Homeless Voices Mary L. Schuster, 2022-01-27 Homeless Voices Stigma Space and Social Media argues that the best sources for how to address issues of homelessness are people experiencing homelessness themselves particularly as they express their experiences through personal blogs and memoirs Mary L Schuster discusses how space and land have been historically denied to marginalized communities who still feel the effects to this day along with examining the conditions and limitations of common spaces often assigned to those experiencing homelessness culminating in an analysis of how the novel coronavirus COVID 19 has impacted homelessness Schuster focuses on two vulnerable groups that often experience homelessness victims of domestic violence and unaccompanied youth particularly those who struggle with gender identity and unstable housing This book includes a variety of case studies examining public meetings and court decisions public policy symposiums and personal interviews and ultimately finds that intersectionality specifically age race gender identity and ethnicity plays a large part in understanding and experiencing homelessness By shifting our attention to the diverse voices who experience homelessness themselves Schuster claims we can finally begin to remedy this crisis Scholars of media studies sociology and urban development will find this book particularly useful Is Life One Big Goodbye Rose

Becoming My Mother's Daughter A Story of Survival and Renewal tells the story of three generations of a Jewish Hungarian family whose fate has been inextricably bound up with the turbulent history of Europe from the First World War through the Holocaust and the communist takeover after World War II to the family's dramatic escape and emmigration to Canada The emotional centre and narrative voice of the story belong to Eva an artist dreamer and writer trying to work through her complex and deep relationship with her mother whose portrait she cannot paint until she completes her journey through memory The core of the book is Eva's riveting recollection of the last months of World War II in Budapest seen through a child's eyes and is reminiscent in its power of scenes in Joy Kogawa's Obasan Exploring the bond between generations of mothers and daughters the book illustrates the struggle between the need for independence and the search for continuity the significant impact of childhood on adult life the reshaping of personality in immigration the importance of dreams in making
