The Future of Islamic Banking and Finance in Indonesia Romi Adetio Setiawan, 2023-07-20 Sharia compliance is the raison d'être of Islamic banks All of their instruments and activities should be based on sharia principles which unfortunately exposes them to greater risks than their conventional counterparts regulated under the dual banking system in Indonesia These include inconsistencies between fatwas unique reputational risks and inefficiencies in the regulatory framework governing Islamic banks This book critically examines the less studied issue of developing an Islamic banking regulatory and supervisory framework that considers the risk pressures faced by Islamic banks operations in an Indonesian financial sector dominated by conventional banks The book assesses the extent to which the global financial standards of the Basel Accords have been followed by Islamic Banks in Indonesia with respect to their regulation supervision and risk management to highlight the unresolved tensions in the multiple regulatory and supervisory institutions The book proposes a middle ground approach that accommodates modification of the existing financial regulatory and supervisory system in line with international best practice. Macroeconomic Policy and Islamic Finance in Malaysia Azura Othman, Norhanim Mat Sari, Syed Othman Alhabshi, Abbas Mirakhor, 2017-10-10. This book offers an alternative framework for macroeconomic policy in Malaysia derived from the universal principles of social justice espoused in the objectives of the Shariah. It attempts to holistically analyze issues related to public finance which has been criticized for lack of transparency and justice in wealth distribution. This book explores these criticisms and discusses the principles of Islamic finance that may be applied to macroeconomic policymaking to create a better economy overall. It presents a case for a flat tax system to make the economy more resilient to shocks and financing methods that limit interest rate based debt contracts and allow greater risk sharing among the market participants on a broad scale. Using both qualitative and quantitative methods, this book models the Malaysian economy based on policies that apply the fundamental Islamic finance principle of risk sharing to demonstrate its benefits in spurring growth, promoting distributive justice, rendering the economy more stable, strengthening the potency of monetary policy, enhancing fiscal governance, and improving financial inclusion. The book will be of interest to students, policymakers, financial institutions, researchers, ministries of finance, central banks, securities commissions, and anyone interested in alternative economic paradigms.

Islamic Banking & Finance in South-East Asia Angelo M. Venardos, 2012. Islamic Banking and Finance in South East Asia by Angelo M. Venardos has been a must read since its first edition in 2005 and has already been translated to Arabic. Now in its 3rd edition, the book offers important updates you can look forward to, starting with the foundations of Islamic banking, developments and issues. The reader is then treated to a timely survey of Islamic banking in five South East Asian countries. Most of these chapters have been completely revamped from the last edition. One additional chapter has been added on Islamic Succession Planning, which introduces an increasingly essential aspect of Muslim life: that of managing one's wealth now and in the afterlife. Whether you are new to the topic or a practitioner in the industry, you will appreciate the accessible way in which the book is written. According to the Asian Journal of Comparative Law, the book gives a broad overview yet manages to achieve this in a rather slim volume while providing depth of analysis at the same time.
