William E. W. Robinson,2016-11-04 Engage compelling arguments that challenge prominent positions in Pauline studies In this innovative book William E W Robinson takes the reader on a journey through Romans 8 1 17 using Conceptual Metaphor Theory and Conceptual Integration Theory Robinson delineates the underlying cognitive metaphors their structure their function what they mean and how Paul s audiences then and now are able to comprehend their meaning He examines each metaphor in the light of relevant aspects of the Greco Roman world and Paul s Jewish background Robinson contends that Paul portrays the Spirit as the principal agent in the religious ethical life of believers At the same time his analysis demonstrates that the conceptual metaphors in Romans 8 1 17 convey the integral role of believers in ethical conduct In the process he addresses thorny theological issues such as whether Spirit and flesh signal an internal battle within believers or two conflicting ways of life Finally Robinson shows how this study is relevant to related Pauline passages and challenges scholars to incorporate these methods into their own investigation of biblical texts Features Sustained argument that sheds new light on how Paul communicates with his audiences Substantial contribution to current debates about central theological concepts Conceptual Metaphor Theory and Conceptual Integration Theory applied to the metaphors in Romans 8 1 17
