

A photograph of a lighthouse on a rocky island at sunset. The lighthouse is white with a dark roof and a lantern room. It is surrounded by a wooden walkway and a low stone wall. The sky is a mix of orange, yellow, and purple, and the water is calm with a reflection of the sky.

Sea Girt Lighthouse Bill Dunn,2014-04-08 The Jersey Shore lighthouse that stands in Sea Girt has been a guiding beacon for seafarers since the end of the nineteenth century A revolutionary lens designed by Frenchman Augustin Jean Fresnel captured the flickering flame of a burning wick and projected a unique flash that could be seen for fifteen miles The genius of Fresnel s design on full display at the lighthouse impresses as much now as it did in the days of sail Many colorful characters were put in command here including a Civil War soldier a pioneering woman an inventor and for one day the twenty year old daughter of a keeper Sea Girt Lighthouse played an important role in defending the coast during World War II when U S Coast Guard troops stood watch in the tower and patrolled the beaches After its decommissioning the lighthouse served for over two decades as the town library and recreation center but by 1981 it was at risk of being closed and sold That s when a group of community members the Sea Girt Lighthouse Citizens Committee successfully fought to save and preserve the shore landmark Today the lighthouse is the community beacon alive with activity and attracting visitors who flock from around the country and the world to experience its history

For Want of a Lighthouse Marc Seguin, 2015-04-25 No safe harbours for steamboats or sailing vessels could be found along an isolated 70 mile stretch of eastern Lake Ontario dominated by the irregular shaped Prince Edward County peninsula Frequent storms rocky reefs and sandy shoals were among the many dangers facing 19th century mariners So many shipwrecks mark one narrow and shallow underwater ridge in the region that it became known as the graveyard of Lake Ontario It was on these shores from Presquile Bay to Kingston harbour and along the Bay of Quinte that a network of more than forty lighthouses and light towers was built between 1828 and 1914 FOR WANT OF A LIGHTHOUSE presents a sweeping look at the social and technological changes which marked the era and brings to life the people politics and hardships involved in the construction of these essential aids to navigation Through the use of extensive archival material and more than 100 maps and photographs Marc Seguin documents the vital role these lighthouses played in the building of a nation There is now a race against time to save the few original towers that are still standing All profits from the sale of this book will be used to preserve these remaining lighthouses

Michigan's Haunted Lighthouses Dianna Stampfler, 2019-08-26 Travel Michigan's coast and into the state's history with otherworldly tales of the spirits of those who sought to keep its waters safe Michigan has more lighthouses than any other state with more than 120 dotting its expansive Great Lakes shoreline Many of these lighthouses lay claim to haunted happenings Former keepers like the cigar smoking Captain Townshend at Seul Choix Point and prankster John Herman at Waugoshance Shoal near Mackinaw City maintain their watch long after death ended their duties At White River Light Station in Whitehall Sarah Robinson still keeps a clean and tidy house and a mysterious young girl at the Marquette Harbor Lighthouse seeks out other children and female companions Countless spirits remain between Whitefish Point and Point Iroquois in an area well known for its many tragic shipwrecks Join author and Promote Michigan founder Dianna Stampfler as she recounts the tales from Michigan's ghostly beacons Haunting tales of Michigan's lighthouses Her stories come from lighthouse museums friends and family Great Lakes Echo

Ladies of the Lights Patricia Majher, 2011-03-15 A great read about some great ladies Pat Majher's Ladies of the Lights pays long overdue homage to an overlooked part of Great Lakes maritime history in which a select group of stalwart women beat the odds to succeed in a field historically reserved for men Terry Pepper Executive Director of Great Lakes Lighthouse Keeper's Association Michigan once led the country in the number of lighthouses and they're still a central part of the mystique and colorful countryside of the state What even the region's lighthouse enthusiasts might not know is the rich history of female lighthouse keepers in the area Fifty women served the sailing communities on Lakes Huron Michigan and Superior as well as on the Detroit River for more than 100 years From Catherine Shook who raised eight children while maintaining the Pointe Aux Barques light at the entrance to Saginaw Bay to Eliza Truckey who assumed responsibility for the lighthouse in Marquette while her husband fought for four years in the Civil War to Elizabeth Whitney whose combined service on Beaver Island and in Harbor Springs totaled forty one years the stories of Michigan's ladies of the light are inspiring This is no technical tome documenting the minutiae of Michigan's lighthouse specifications Rather it's a detailed human portrait of the women who kept those lighthouses running defying the gender expectations of their time Patricia Majher is Editor of Michigan History magazine published by the Historical Society of Michigan Prior she was Assistant Director of the Michigan Women's Historical Center and Hall of Fame in Lansing Michigan In addition she has been writing both advertising and editorial copy for almost thirty years and has been a frequent contributor to Michigan newspapers and magazines

American Book Publishing Record ,2004 Around the World in 80 Ways Stephen Webb,2023-03-01 Around the World in 80 Ways offers a sometimes opinionated discussion of 80 data driven maps of our planet Taken together the maps tell a story about the physical world about the impact our species is having on the world and about how people live in the world or at least how we lived immediately before the emergence of Covid 19 The maps lie All maps lie But the origins of the deceptions are explained the data sources are signposted and referenced and the readers are shown how to create their own maps using freely available software The reader is thus armed with the tools needed to explore local national or world data on topics ranging from science to society environment to entertainment wealth to wellbeing a valuable skill in an age when certain politicians are happy to refer to alternative facts and media outlets deliver data visualizations that sometimes mislead as much as inform Archaeology in Hertfordshire Kris Lockyear,2015-10-01 Celebrating the rich heritage of archaeology and of archaeological research in Hertfordshire the 15 papers collected in this work focus on various aspects of the region including the Neolithic to the post Medieval periods and include a report on the important excavations at the formative henge at Norton Several chapters focus new attention on the Iron Age and Roman periods both from a landscape perspective and through detailed studies of artefacts while a discussion of the rare early Saxon material recently excavated at Watton at Stone makes a vital contribution to the existing corpus of knowledge about this little understood period All of the papers in the volume focus on the local scene with an understanding of wider issues in each period and as a result the papers are of importance beyond the boundaries of the county and will be of interest to scholars with wide ranging interests
