Self-Study and Diversity II Julian Kitchen,Deborah Tidwell,Linda Fitzgerald,2016-07-08 Self Study and Diversity II is a book about the self study of teacher education practices in a diverse world In this volume the authors examine the preparation of teachers through a shared orientation to diversity grounded in a commitment to addressing issues of identity equity diversity social justice inclusion and access in their professional practice The first chapters are autobiographical studies in which teacher educators reflect on how their personal identities as minorities within a historically oppressive culture inform their professional practice These powerful narratives are followed by accounts of teacher educators addressing diversity issues in the United Arab Emirates India South Africa and Thailand The closing chapters attend to the challenges of preparing teacher candidates to become inclusive educators in a diverse world Even though each chapter focusses on a particular dimension of equity and social justice or dilemma of practice the insights in these self studies are relevant to all teacher educators interested in improving teacher education by respecting diversity and becoming more inclusive Particular strengths are the diversity of authors and international scope of the book Resources in Education ,2001-04 Opportunities and Challenges of Bilingualism Li Wei,Jean-Marc Dewaele,Alex Housen,2011-09-12 This volume contributes to the debates about the social aspects of bilingualism focusing on the various opportunities and challenges bilingualism presents to today's society. The contributions in this volume are of a prospective stance delineating directions for future research on bilingualism and identifying important issues which have been under researched or which are still of a controversial nature. All the contributions are from leading international scholars who have researched and published extensively in the field of bilingualism. To facilitate further discussions of the issues raised in the volume there are study questions and suggested reading attached to each of the main chapters.

Teaching in Two Languages Sharon Adelman Reyes, Tatyana Kleyn, 2010-02-18. The authors deliver a passionate practical and loving approach to teaching children whose first language is other than English. This is a source of both inspiration and practical strategies for those educating our newest emergent bilingual citizens. Sonia Nieto, Professor Emerita, Language Culture and Teaching, University of Massachusetts Amherst. Finally a comprehensive and beautifully written guide to teaching bilingually. Full of creative strategies, practical mentoring and well chosen vignettes, this book is destined to become the standard text in bilingual methods courses. James Crawford, President, Institute for Language and Education Policy. A truly intellectual text for all teachers of bilingual learners. Mar a E Torres Guzm n, Professor of Bilingual Bicultural Education, Teachers College, Columbia University. A hands on guide to meeting the unique challenges of educating English language learners. Bilingual education programs give students who are learning languages and content the opportunity to progress academically while gaining proficiency in English as well as their first language. Grounded in current research, this hands on guide helps educators navigate the linguistic, academic and cultural considerations of bilingual classrooms. Focusing on teachers' day to day experiences, the authors present classroom ready strategies such as: Guidance on balancing instruction in two languages including age specific needs and social and academic language development; Tools for content area teaching across the curriculum including vocabulary development; Recommendations on appropriate assessments; Vignettes from schools and teachers illustrating solutions to challenges. Appropriate for a wide range of K-12 bilingual programs. Teaching in Two Languages is a comprehensive guide to language and content area instruction for educators in any bilingual program or setting.

Teaching Dialogue Interpreting Letizia Cirillo, Natacha Niemants, 2017-10-15. Teaching Dialogue Interpreting is one of the very few book length contributions that cross the research to training boundary in dialogue interpreting. The volume is innovative in at least three ways. First it brings together experts working in areas as diverse as business interpreting, court interpreting, medical interpreting and interpreting for the media who represent a wide range of theoretical and methodological approaches. Second it addresses instructors and course designers in higher education but may also be used for refresher courses and/or retraining of in-service interpreters and bilingual staff. Third and most important it provides a set of resources which while research driven are also readily usable in the classroom either together or separately depending on specific training needs and or research interests The collection thus makes a significant contribution in curriculum design for interpreter education

Motivation to Learn Multiple Languages in Japan Chika

Takahashi,2022-11-22 This book provides rare insights into motivation among extremely successful learners of English and languages other than English LOTE through the analysis of a longitudinal study and the examination of the factors involved in becoming multilingual in a non multilingual environment Based on sixteen interview sessions conducted over the course of nine years while the learners progressed from high school to the world of work this book offers the story of how two learners persist in English LOTE learning The study illuminates the long term processes through which the interviewees develop ideal English LOTE selves in an environment where multilingualism is not emphasized and where both English and LOTE can still be described as foreign languages Educators and researchers will learn from this study which stretches our understanding of motivation beyond the recent theorizing of L2 motivation and contributes to the limited research in long term motivational trajectories and LOTE learning motivation which is particularly scarce in non European contexts The book will be of interest not only to readers in Japan but also to those in other contexts as it offers an example of successful learners who go beyond the pragmatic and instrumentalist view of language learning to hold a more holistic view thus revealing the factors which can sustain multiple language learning even in foreign language contexts
