Adeline Virginia Woolf 25 January 1882 428 March 1941 was an English writer and one of the foremost modernists of the twentieth century During the interwar period Woolf was a significant figure in London literary society and a central figure in the influential Bloomsbury Group of intellectuals Her most famous works include the novels Mrs Dalloway 1925 To the Lighthouse 1927 and Orlando 1928 and the book length essay A Room of One's Own 1929 with its famous dictum A woman must have money and a room of her own if she is to write fiction

Rio de Janeiro in the Global Meat Market, c. 1850 to c. 1930 Maria-Aparecida

Lopes,2021-07-19 This book examines the meat provision system of Rio de Janeiro from the 1850s to the 1930s Until the 1920s Rio was Brazil s economic hub main industrial city and prime consumer market Meat consumption was an indicator of living standards and a matter of public concern The work unveils that in the second half of the nineteenth century the city was well supplied with red meat Initially dwellers relied mostly on salted meat then in the latter decades of the 1800s two sets of changes upgraded fresh meat deliveries First ranching expansion and transportation innovation in southeast and central west Brazil guaranteed a continuous flow of cattle to Rio Second the municipal centralization of meat processing and distribution made its provision regular and predictable By the early twentieth century fresh meat replaced salted meat in the urban marketplace This study examines these developments in light of national and global developments in the livestock and meat industries

Nevertheless Ashley Boggan,2025-05-06 2020 marked the 100th anniversary of the 19th Amendment While some things have changed others haven t This book tells the story of American Methodist women s efforts fight for women s rights beginning with the Women s Christian Temperance Union and ending with the MeToo movement Each chapter documents particular Methodist women and provides the reader with a basic historic context of the time or situation at hand as it shows how Methodist women engaged and fought for women s equality or women s rights in American society and American Methodism The faith of these Methodist women emboldened them to reach beyond their social confines to find political avenues of social justice As women engaged in mission they sought to not simply fix social ills but to prevent them from happening again They addressed the causes of oppression and by stepping out of their place made a place for others

Self-Representation in an Expanded Field Ace Lehner,2021-05-31 Defined as a self image made with a hand held mobile device and shared via social media platforms the selfie has facilitated self imaging becoming a ubiquitous part of globally networked contemporary life Beyond this selfies have facilitated a diversity of image making practices and enabled otherwise representationally marginalized constituencies to insert self representations into visual culture In the Western

European and North American art historical context self portraiture has been somewhat rigidly albeit obliquely defined and selfies have facilitated a shift regarding who literally holds the power to self image Like self portraits not all selfies are inherently aesthetically or conceptually rigorous or avant guard But as this project aims to do address via a variety of interdisciplinary approaches selfies have irreversibly impacted visual culture contemporary art and portraiture in particular Selfies propose new modes of self imaging forward emerging aesthetics and challenge established methods they prove that as scholars and image makers it is necessary to adapt and innovate in order to contend with the most current form of self representation to date The essays gathered herein will reveal that in our current moment it is necessary and advantageous to consider the merits and interventions of selfies and self portraiture in an expanded field of self representations We invite authors to take interdisciplinary global perspectives to investigate various sub genres aesthetic practices and lineages in which selfies intervene to enrich the discourse on self representation in the expanded field today
