Burgess, Paul W. Lewis, 2017-03-02 The essays in this volume which are written by friends colleagues and former students are dedicated to Gary B McGee as a memorial to his life work and service As a professor with a clear calling to teach he modeled this passion at the Open Bible College Des Moines Iowa Central Bible College Springfield Missouri and the Assemblies of God Theological Seminary Springfield Missouri He exuded the understanding that quality teaching superior scholarship a genuine Pentecostal spirituality and an irenic spirit can and should go together Within the title of this volume A Light to the Nations two aspects become clear First each person is called to be a light to the nations as Gary McGee modeled Second and foundational to the first is the reality that Jesus Christ is the ultimate light and our energies study discussions and life in general should rely on this fact As a reflection of Gary McGee s life and ministry these two aspects are focused through three lenses which are the three sections of this volume Ecumenism Missions and Pentecostalism The essays represent a diversity of subjects and denote various explorations by colleagues and friends of Gary B McGee Celebrating a Century of Ecumenism John A. Radano, 2012-04-30 Modern ecumenism traces its roots back to the 1910 World Missionary Conference in Edinburgh Celebrating a Century of Ecumenism brings readers up to date on one hundred years of global dialogue between many different church traditions including Anglican Lutheran Methodist Roman Catholic Pentecostal Evangelical Orthodox Baptist Disciples of Christ Oriental Orthodox and more Eighteen essays by authors representing a wide spectrum of denominational interests outline the achievements of this movement toward unity The first part of the book focuses on multilateral dialogue that involved a variety of churches attempting to delineate common ground with considerable progress reported The second part describes bilateral discussions between two churches or groups of churches Celebrating a Century of Ecumenism is one

Remembering the Reformation

Michael Root, James J. Buckley, 2017-12-13 In 1517 Martin Luther set off what has been called at least since the nineteenth century the Protestant Reformation Can Christians of differing traditions commemorate the upcoming 500th anniversary of this event together How do we understand and assess the Reformation today What calls for celebration What calls for repentance Can the Reformation anniversary be an occasion for greater mutual understanding among Catholics Orthodox and Protestants At the 2015 Pro Ecclesia annual conference for clergy and laity meeting at the Catholic University of America in Washington DC an array of scholars Catholic and Orthodox Evangelical Lutheran and American Evangelical as well as Methodist addressed this topic The aim of this book is not only to collect these diverse Catholic and Evangelical perspectives but also to provide resources for all Christians including pastors and scholars to think and argue about the roads we have taken since 1517 as we also learn to pray with Jesus Christ that all may be one John 17 21
