Non-biomedical Perspectives on Pain and its Prevention and Management

Mark I. Johnson,James Woodall,Emmanouil Georgiadis ,Antonio Bonacaro,Isobel Jacob,2024-06-06 Overreliance on the biomedical paradigm has contributed in part to illogical use of surgery and long term opioid medication with harmful physical psychological social and economic consequences Pain literature is dominated by biomedical research at the expense of a holistic understanding of the lived experience of pain Pain practice seems overly consumed with the burden of pain at an individual level patient centred pain management and has neglected exploration of societal level community centred or environmental level ecologically centred solutions

Handbook of Complex Occupational Disability Claims Izabela Z. Schultz,Robert J. Gatchel,2006-06-14 Chronic back and neck pain Whiplash Fibromyalgia Carpal tunnel syndrome Intractable headaches Depression Anxiety and posttraumatic stress Concussion More than ever the term workplace disabilities is synonymous with greater clinical and case management complexity and escalating personal social occupational and economic cost Complex illnesses and injuries that defy a traditional medical management model continue to baffle medical mental health rehabilitation compensation corporate and legal professionals despite new advances in diagnosis prevention and rehabilitation The Handbook of Complex Occupational Disability Claims Early Risk Identification Intervention and Prevention cuts through the confusion by integrating current theories and findings into a state of the art tool for critical thinking decision making and effective practice A book that synthesizes so many diverse viewpoints has the potential to influence both policy and practice across disciplines and cut through politicization of these still poorly understood conditions with evidence The Handbook is important reading for all clinicians professionals and members of rehabilitation and disability management teams across healthcare occupational and compensation settings
