Marcel Duchamp and the Art of Life Jacquelynn Baas, 2019-11-19 A groundbreaking reading of Duchamp s work as informed by Asian esoterism energetic spiritual practices identifying creative energy with the erotic impulse Considered by many to be the most important artist of the twentieth century the object of intensive critical scrutiny and extensive theorizing Marcel Duchamp remains an enigma He may be the most intellectual artist of all time and yet toward the end of his life he said If you wish my art would be that of living each second each breath is a work which is inscribed nowhere which is neither visual or cerebral In Marcel Duchamp and the Art of Life Jacquelynn Baas offers a groundbreaking new reading of Duchamp arguing in particular that his work may have been informed by Asian esoterism energetic spiritual practices that identify creative energy with the erotic impulse Duchamp drew on a wide range of sources for his art from science and mathematics to alchemy Largely overlooked until now have been Asian spiritual practices including Indo Tibetan tantra Baas presents evidence that Duchamp s version of artistic realization was grounded in a western interpretation of Asian mind training and body energetics designed to transform erotic energy into mental and spiritual liberation She offers close readings of many Duchamp works beginning and ending with his final work the mysterious shockingly explicit tant donn s 1 la chute d eau 2 le gaz d clairage Given 1 The Waterfall 2 The Illuminating Gas Generously illustrated with many images in color Marcel Duchamp and the Art of Life speculates that Duchamp viewed art making as part of an esoteric continuum grounded in Eros It asks us to unlearn what we think we know about both art and life in order to be open to experience

Marcel Duchamp and the Architecture of Desire Penelope Haralambidou, 2017-03-02 While much has been written on Marcel Duchamp one of the twentieth century s most beguiling artists the subject of his flirtation with architecture seems to have been largely overlooked Yet in the carefully arranged plans and sections organising the blueprint of desire in the Large Glass his numerous pieces replicating architectural fragments and his involvement in designing exhibitions Duchamp s fascination with architectural design is clearly evident As his unconventional architectural influences Niceron Lequeu and Kiesler and diverse legacy Tschumi OMA Webb Diller Scofidio and Nicholson indicate Duchamp was not as much interested in built architecture as he was in the architecture of desire re constructing the imagination through drawing and testing the boundaries between reality and its aesthetic and philosophical possibilities Marcel Duchamp and the Architecture of Desire examines the link between architectural thinking and Duchamp s work By employing design drawing and making the tools of the architect Haralambidou performs an architectural analysis of Duchamp s final enigmatic work Given 1 The Waterfall 2 The Illuminating Gas demonstrating an innovative research methodology able to grasp meaning beyond textual analysis This novel reading of his ideas and methods adds to but also challenges other art historical interpretations Through three main themes allegory visuality and desire the book defines and theorises an alternative drawing practice positioned between art and architecture that predates and includes Duchamp

Thinking with Images John M. Carvalho, 2018-08-06 This book advances an enactivist theory of aesthetics through the study of inscrutable artworks that challenge us to think because we do not know what to think about them John M Carvalho presents detailed analyses of four artworks that share this unique characteristic Francis Bacon's Study After Velazquez's Portrait of Pope Innocent X 1953 the photographs of Duane Michals based on a retrospective of his work Storyteller at the Carnegie Museum of Art 2014 tant donn's 1968 by Marcel Duchamp and Jean Luc Godard's 1963 film Le Mpris released in the United States as Contempt Carvalho argues against the application of theory to derive appreciation or meaning from these artistic works Rather each study enacts an embodied cognitive engagement with the specific artworks intended to demonstrate the value of thinking about artworks that might be extended to our engagement with the world in general This thinking happens as these studies show when we trust our embodied skills and their guide to what artworks and the world around us afford for the activation and refinement of those skills Thinking with Images will be of interest to scholars working in the philosophy of art and philosophical aesthetics as well as art historians concerned with the meaning and value of contemporary art

Cultures of Colour Chris Horrocks, 2012-06-01 Colour permeates contemporary visual and material culture and affects our senses beyond the superficial encounter by infiltrating our perceptions and memories and becoming deeply rooted in thought processes that categorise and divide along culturally constructed lines Colour exists as a cultural as well as psycho physical phenomenon and acquires a multitude of meanings within differing historical and cultural contexts The contributors examine how colour becomes imbued with specific symbolic and material meanings that tint our constructions of race gender ideal bodies the relationship of the self to others and of the self to technology and the built environment By highlighting the relationship of colour across media and material culture this volume reveals the complex interplay of cultural connotations discursive practices and socio psychological dynamics of colour in an international

Taylor, 2009 In his early thirties Marcel Duchamp 1887-1968 convinced everyone that he had abandoned making art in favor of playing chess But from 1946 to 1966 he was secretly at work in his studio on West 14th Street in New York City There he produced his final masterpiece *Etant donn*s 1 la chute d'eau 2 le gaz d'éclairage composed of a battered wood door through which one views a prone nude female holding aloft an antique gas lamp against a landscape of trees waterfall and sky Unveiled as a permanent installation at the Philadelphia Museum of Art in July 1969 the year after Duchamp's death it startled the art world with its explicit eroticism and voyeurism as well as its trompe l'oeil realism Since its public debut *Etant donn*s has been recognized as one of the most important and enigmatic works of the 20th century Published to commemorate the fortieth anniversary of the original installation of *Etant donn*s and to accompany the first major exhibition on the artwork and its studies this richly illustrated book presents a wealth of new research and documents that draw upon previously unpublished works of art and materials The catalogue also examines the critical and artistic reception of *Etant donn*s as evidenced by the subsequent work of Les Levine Hannah Wilke Robert Gober Marcel Dzama Ray Johnson and other artists who have engaged with Duchamp's provocative and challenging tableau construction Marcel Duchamp and the Art of Life Jacquelynn Baas, 2019-11-19 A groundbreaking reading of Duchamp's work as informed by Asian esoterism energetic spiritual practices identifying creative energy with the erotic impulse Considered by many to be the most important artist of the twentieth century the object of intensive critical scrutiny and extensive theorizing Marcel Duchamp remains an enigma He may be the most intellectual artist of all time and yet toward the end of his life he said If you wish my art would be that of living each second each breath is a work which is inscribed nowhere which is neither visual or cerebral In Marcel Duchamp and the Art of Life Jacquelynn Baas offers a groundbreaking new reading of Duchamp arguing in particular that his work may have been informed by Asian esoterism energetic spiritual practices that identify creative energy with the erotic impulse Duchamp drew on a wide range of sources for his art from science and mathematics to alchemy Largely overlooked until now have been Asian spiritual practices including Indo-Tibetan tantra Baas presents evidence that Duchamp's version of artistic realization was grounded in a western interpretation of Asian mind training and body energetics designed to transform erotic energy into mental and spiritual liberation She offers close readings of many Duchamp works beginning and ending with his final work the mysterious shockingly explicit *Etant donn*s 1 la chute d'eau 2 le gaz d'éclairage Given 1 The Waterfall 2 The Illuminating Gas Generously illustrated with many images in color Marcel Duchamp and the Art of Life speculates that Duchamp viewed art making as part of an esoteric continuum grounded in Eros It asks us to unlearn what we think we know about both art and life in order to be open to experience Unseparate Steven Henry Madoff, 2025-10-21 Art historian and critic Steven Henry Madoff offers a contemporary reframing of modernist art and the way it presages installation and performance art For more than a century European modernist art has been written about as a profound expression of fragmentation of an alienated world in pieces In Unseparate Steven Henry Madoff proposes that there was always another artistic intention present among the modernists offering visions of wholeness in the face of the instability and alienation brought on by war and new technologies Blending history philosophy and media theory Madoff argues that from the mid nineteenth century when Richard Wagner championed his idea of the Gesamtkunstwerk the total work of art to the rise of the Bauhaus the urge to connect different art forms into single unified works anticipates our contemporary networked culture Madoff revisits the artworks and projects of such leading figures of European modernism as Paul C zanne Marcel Duchamp Hugo Ball and Walter Gropius proposing that their various ambitions for totality were both aesthetically beneficent and politically dangerous This striking contemporary rethinking gives readers a way to understand modernism s complex history more fully Modernism seen through the lens of network aesthetics and its emphasis on interconnectivity presages many different forms of contemporary art including installation and performance art Further as Madoff reveals the modernist drive for wholeness and unity can give us a way to look at our own increasingly divisive society Marcel Duchamp Rudolf E. Kuenzli, Francis M. Naumann, 1991 Artist of the Century These eleven illustrated essays explore the structure and meaning of Duchamp s work as part of an ongoing critical enterprise that has just begun
