How to Reach and Teach All

Children Through Balanced Literacy Sandra F. Rief, Julie A. Heimburge, 2007-08-17 How to Reach and Teach All Children Through Balanced Literacy offers you a handbook for teaching literacy to diverse students in grades 3-8. The balanced literacy method combines the best practices of phonics and other skill-based language instruction with the holistic literature-based approach in order to help you teach reading, writing, and speaking in a clear and approachable format. This dynamic resource offers an easily accessible research-based approach to balanced literacy that is grounded in the innovative ideas developed by authors Sandra F. Rief and Julie A. Heimburge. The book includes detailed descriptions of what a balanced literacy classroom looks like and shows how to create a program from the ground up or give your existing program a boost. The book can be used across content areas and is filled with reproducible worksheets, activities, and other handy classroom tools. Some topics covered include: Shared book experiences, Reading aloud, Oral language and vocabulary development, Guided reading for comprehension, Modeled writing, Reading and writing conferences, Book clubs, Content area reading and writing, Ongoing assessments, Enhancing literacy through technology. Great Genre Writing Lessons Heather Clayton, 2003 Guide students through each step of the writing process from selecting topics to publishing polished pieces. Step by step lessons and reproducibles cover five genres: how-to pieces, fictional and personal narratives, informational reports, and essays, and persuasive writing. Teachers will also find graphic organizers, rubrics, and checklists, examples of students writing, extension activities, and helpful hints for managing writers' workshop. For use with Grades 4-8. Improving Writing Susan Davis Lenski, 2004-02-11 A practical professional resource with a focus on literacy. Includes strategies and activities to help students, student and teacher assessments, student worksheets, transparency masters, teacher and student examples, and technology tips. Homeschooling 101 Mark Field, Christine Field, 2007-04-01 Where to begin and how to continue. Homeschooling 101 will help potential and current homeschooling parents caught between a proverbial rock and the expectations of the world when it comes to education and a hard place honoring God through the raising and teaching of their children. Veteran homeschool couple Mark and Christine Field write from experience about why homeschooling is best for children and how to make the process a complete success at every step. Chapters include discussions on the uniqueness of each child, practical advice on teaching children of different ages at the same time, the centrality of the Bible in the education process, and approaches to teaching various subjects and much more. Non-Fiction Text Structures for Better Comprehension and Response Gail Saunders-Smith, 2009 Non-fiction text structures organize information into comprehensible patterns. Knowing how to recognize and use these structures to navigate non-fiction text greatly improves students' understanding of what they read. Gail Saunders-Smith simplifies the process by providing teachers of grades 4-8 with ways to teach each of the five non-fiction text structures: compare-contrast, cause-effect, sequence, procedure, question-answer, and exemplification. Engaging whole class and small group activities using written, verbal, image, three-dimensional, and technology responses, study skills for locating, recording, and using information, tools for assessing student understanding.
