Outsider Art Daniel Wojcik,2016-08-25 Outsider art has exploded onto the international art scene gaining widespread attention for its startling originality and visual power As an expression of raw creativity outsider art remains associated with self taught visionaries psychiatric patients trance mediums eccentric outcasts and unschooled artistic geniuses who create things outside of mainstream artistic trends and styles Outsider Art Visionary Worlds and Trauma provides a comprehensive guide through the contested terrain of outsider art and the related domains of art brut visionary art art of the insane and folk art The book examines the history and primary issues of the field as well as explores the intersection between culture and individual creativity that is at the very heart of outsider art definitions and debates Daniel Wojcik s interdisciplinary study challenges prevailing assumptions about the idiosyncratic status of outsider artists This wide ranging investigation of the art and lives of those labeled outsiders focuses on the ways that personal tragedies and suffering have inspired the art making process In some cases trauma has triggered a creative transformation that has helped artists confront otherwise overwhelming life events Additionally Wojcik s study illustrates how vernacular traditions religious worldviews ethnic heritage and popular culture have influenced such art With its detailed consideration of personal motivations cultural milieu and the potentially therapeutic aspects of art making this volume provides a deeper understanding of the artistic impulse and human creativity The Cambridge History of the Graphic Novel Jan Baetens,Hugo Frey,Stephen E.

Tabachnick,2018-07-19 The Cambridge History of the Graphic Novel provides the complete history of the graphic novel from its origins in the nineteenth century to its rise and startling success in the twentieth and twenty first century It includes original discussion on the current state of the graphic novel and analyzes how American European Middle Eastern and Japanese renditions have shaped the field Thirty five leading scholars and historians unpack both forgotten trajectories as well as the famous key episodes and explain how comics transitioned from being marketed as children s entertainment Essays address the masters of the form including Art Spiegelman Alan Moore and Marjane Satrapi and reflect on their publishing history as well as their social and political effects This ambitious history offers an extensive detailed and expansive scholarly account of the graphic novel and will be a key resource for scholars and students Stan Hopewell Ted Snell,2013 I fixed my mind on the power of love to the extent of painting it When war veteran Stan Hopewell s beloved wife Joyce became seriously ill he turned to art Though he had never painted in his life art became Hopewell s means of expressing his love for Joyce conveying his belief in the power of God dealing with hardship and celebrating the life that he and Joyce had shared Presented here by author Ted Snell this is the powerful and life affirming story of Stan Hopewell a man compelled to paint not by his passion for art but by an inherent creative spirit The urge toward creative expression was so surprising and the results so remarkable that Hopewell assumed his talent came from God This spiritual relationship guided him through the hardships and challenges of life and led to using his extraordinary capacity to give potent visual form to all manner of events and emotions His life story acts as a parallel text to his artwork illustrating and informing each complex painting Stan Hopewell is a man both ordinary and extraordinary and his story extends the readership beyond an artistic one The book moves from the story of one man to the creative journeys of self taught artists and their ineffable drive to create It documents that brief moment of creative focus and energy that turns ordinary people into artists Gatecrashers Katherine Jentleson,2020-04-07 After World War I artists without formal training crashed the gates of major museums in the United States diversifying the art world across lines of race ethnicity class ability and gender At the center of this fundamental reevaluation of who could be an artist in America were John Kane Horace Pippin and Anna Mary Robertson Grandma Moses The stories of these three artists not only intertwine with the major critical debates of their period but also prefigure the call for inclusion in representations of American art today In Gatecrashers Katherine Jentleson offers a valuable corrective to the history of twentieth century art by expanding narratives of interwar American modernism and providing an origin story for contemporary fascination with self taught artists Humanities, Provocateur ,2021-12-30 This highly original collection is a far cry from the demand on the literary humanities to offer the soothing hum of theory to a world of breaks crises and pain Instead it exemplifies a way ahead for the critical humanities Arjun Appadurai New York University Doing the Humanities comes to life in this passionate provocative set of experiments in descriptive poetics Failure fantasy freefall are reconceived as forms of aesthetic achievement across the creative arts Ros Ballaster University of Oxford This timely volume inspires a collective undertaking to learn to do the humanities through the untimeliness of a work of art A humanities that remains attentive to this form of techn will prove indispensable to remaking the world in the aftermath of a pandemic Premesh Lalu University of the Western Cape exhilarating in the democratic breadth of its interests the emotional fervour of its commitments and its yoking of systemic criticism to the work of poetic language Helen Small University of Oxford How can the humanities make an intervention in such a time as this when life as we have known it hangs in pandemic balance since the spring of 2020 and when contagion calls for distancing and isolation while loneliness cries out for the solace of touch Perhaps only by being at once fearless critical sorrowing exultant enraged intimate Humanities Provocateur brings you fourteen essays and two creative pieces by established as well as younger scholars and writers from America Europe the Middle East South Africa and South Asia in a bracing invitation to a freefall of reading They travel from classical literatures and philosophy to twentieth century writing cinema and critical imaginative thinking grouped whimsically around a set of provocations Gleaning Perforation Caprice Paraphernalia Descent Flux Flesh Ephemera and welcome you to argue to cherish or to distrust Taking sharp sparkling twists and turns in thought and style this eclectic collection of writings incites you to be intellectually adventurous and destitute at the same time And invoking Dante to never be afraid for our fate is our gift
