Homiletic Moves And Structures:

Homiletic David G. Buttrick, 1987-01-01 Buttrick presents a complete homiletic that focuses on how sermons form in consciousness and how the language of preaching functions in the communal consciousness of a congregation His phenomenological approach marks a sharp departure from older homiletics Homiletic David Buttrick, 1987-01-01 homiletics is an odd discipline You cannot talk of sermon design without some glimmer of what sermons are made of and you cannot comprehend the internal parts of a sermon without a grasp of sermon design from back cover The Renewed Homiletic O. Wesley Allen, 2010-04-21 The major shift in the study and practice of preaching in the 1970s and 1980s labeled the New Homiletic turned toward the hearer The purpose of preaching focused less on persuasion and more on transformation less on asserting religious truths and more on offering an experience of the gospel Instead of viewing language as referential its creative evocative nature began to be emphasized Thus homiletical strategies utilizing induction celebration story narrative structures and moves replaced a deductive propositional approach to preaching Now three and a half decades after this shift began preachers recognize that the homiletical landscape has continued to evolve in ways that influence how preaching ought to be done for example the rise of postmodernity the decline of the mainline church cultural pluralism and biblical and theological illiteracy Those considered to be the pillars of the New Homiletic David Buttrick Fred Craddock Eugene Lowry Henry Mitchell and Charles Rice discuss how to change their homiletical approach for a new day Each of these distinguished scholars offers a lecture describing how his mind has changed preaches a sermon reflecting these changes and participates in a panel discussion with younger respondents Publisher description The Homiletical Question William F. Brosend II, 2017-11-09 The Homiletical Question offers preachers from beginning students to the most experienced a concise introduction to lectionary based preaching in liturgical contexts familiar to Anglicans Roman Catholics Lutherans Methodists and others The book demonstrates how by answering a single simple question each time a sermon is prepared preachers can respond fully and faithfully to the biblical text the needs and issues of the audience and the challenges of a changing world Chapters explore the practice of homiletical exegesis creation and illustration of the moves that shape the sermon crafting introductions and conclusions and preaching baptisms weddings funerals and other special occasions As Thomas G Long writes in the foreword That the homiletical question should yield answers that are beyond the reach of the preacher answers that manifest preaching as an event of surplus and abundance answers that point toward the mystery that is the Holy Spirit answers that take us to our knees in prayer before they take us into the pulpit would come as no surprise to Brosend That very mystery that very abundance is at the heart of Brosend s theology of preaching and therefore at the heart of this book Preaching Words John S. McClure, 2007-01-02 John McClure s Preaching Words highlights the most important ideas in homiletics and preaching offering short explanations of these ideas what scholars of preaching are saying about them and how they can help in today s preaching Topics range from elements of the sermon

When God Speaks through Change Craig A. Satterlee, 2005-03-01 At times a congregational transition looms so large in a sermon that it becomes the lens through which scripture is interpreted the congregation is addressed the preacher is heard and God is experienced Homiletics professor and parish pastor Craig Satterlee reflects in this accessible provocative volume about on how to integrate such significant events in a congregation's life into the preaching ministry of the church Rather than offering a blueprint for preaching however he walks along pastors seminarians and other congregational leaders who want to make sure the Gospel not an agenda is preached Illustrating Well Jim L. The Four Pages of the Sermon Paul Scott Wilson,2010-09-01 Doing justice to the complexity of the preaching task and the questions that underlie it Wilson organizes both the preparation and the content of the sermon around its four pages Each page addresses a different theological and creative component of what happens in any sermon Page One presents the trouble or conflict that takes place in or that underscores the biblical text itself Page Two looks at similar conflict sin or brokenness in our own time Page Three returns to the Bible to identify where God is at work in or behind the text in other words to discover the good news Page Four points to God at work in our world particularly in relation to the situations described in Page Two

Martin Luther King in the African American Preaching Tradition Valentino Lassiter,2010-06-01 Valentino Lassiter has cast spiritual breads upon the waters with this compelling comparison of the historic tradition of African American preaching and the overwhelming spiritual preaching of Martin Luther King Jr Martin Luther King in the African American Preaching Tradition details preaching by slave preachers to present day preachers More importantly it shows how King s sermon content was cut from the same loaf as those preachers who preached justice and God s assurance in the 1600s Lassiter has written a book that will be an important resource for pastors seminarians and those who are interested in the never ending fascination with dynamic African American preaching

Preaching and the Human Condition Prof O. Wesley Allen JR., 2016-10-18 In the wake of Enlightenment emphasis on the individual and confidence in human progress ability sermons often suffer from a lack of adequate analysis and presentation of the human condition The result is that preachers either 1 intentionally or unintentionally offer self help type messages or 2 fail to help hearers experience the breadth of the good news of Jesus Christ because the bad news of the world is not presented with weight In this work the author proposes to use the pericope in which Jesus is asked about the greatest commandment Mk 12 28 31 as a lens for preachers exploring the human condition cumulatively from three different perspectives across the course of their preaching week in and week out Love God suggests a perspective in which the human condition is seen in relation to a broken relationship between humanity and God vertical Love neighbor suggests a perspective in which the broken relationship is between humans and others horizontal And as yourself suggests a brokenness in relationship to one's self inner While different theological schools have emphasized these perspectives differently as the starting points for their anthropology views of sin etc all schools include all three perspectives In individual chapters the author will unpack these three perspectives theologically move to suggest practical homiletical approaches to preaching in relation to each perspective and provide a sample sermon dealing with that perspective
