A. Engdahl,2021-01-26 This critical and close reading of two African theologians Origen 185 254 and Mbiti 1931 2019 focuses on the following areas philosophy African philosophy and religion and Platonic cosmology ecclesiology and eschatology a parallel presentation of these three themes leads to a fourth theme that of the resurrection where it is argued that there exists a consensus and a convergence between the two This reading also highlights two convictions that partly have caused strong criticism Mbiti has suggested that African philosophy and religion have a conception of time of their own Origen that all and everything is gradually moving towards an apokatastasis at which point all will be saved Yet the contention is that even more important to both Mbiti and Origen is the resurrection of Jesus Christ In order to establish the impact of the resurrection on their lives as Christians and as theologians a contrast reading has been undertaken i e texts are identified which underline the need to forge a link between the resurrection and the earthly ministry of Jesus These texts also underwrite the conviction of Mbiti as well as Origen of the resurrection as something which must be lived in church and society corporately as well as in personal devotion The fact of resurrection creates a new mode of life American Pigeon Journal ,1928 Christ, Church and World Michael Mawson,Philip G.
