Notes on the Greek Text of Exodus John William Wevers, 2019-04-09 A result of John Wevers s twenty five year association with the Gttingen LXX this work records his textual notes on the Greek Exodus The Greek text of Exodus departs in places radically from the Hebrew of the Masoretic tradition These Notes presuppose that the Hebrew parent text was not all that different from the Masoretic tradition text and that the Greek translator throughout tried to formulate an understanding of the Hebrew from an Alexandrian Jewish perspective Included in the Notes are assessments of major textual variants by later readers This volume is intended for serious students interested in using the LXX text rather than for the professional LXX scholar

Memory and Pedagogy Claudia Mitchell, Teresa Strong-Wilson, Kathleen Pithouse, Susann Allnutt, 2010-12-14 Memory work the conscious remembering and study of individual and shared memories is increasingly being acknowledged as a key pedagogical tool in working with children Giving students opportunities and support to remember and study their selves as individuals and as communities allows them to see their future as something that belongs to them and that they can influence in some way for the better This edited volume brings together essays from scholars who are studying the interconnections between pedagogy and memory in the context of social themes and social inquiry within educational research The book provides a range of perspectives on the social and pedagogical relevance of memory studies to the educational arena in relation to the themes of memory and method revisiting childhood memory and place addressing political conflict sexuality and embodiment and inter generational studies Free Fishes Durime P.
