Present Tense, 1989 Russian Fractals in Indigenous Artifacts Abdul Karim Bangura, Leonid A. Zhigun, 2025-06-22

This book is the first comprehensive work on Russian Fractals in indigenous artifacts While existing works focus on universal phenomena such as liquid crystal or finance none explore the intersection between Fractals and Russia Russian Fractals in Indigenous Artifacts therefore investigates how indigenous Russian cultures have a wonderful Fractal heritage that was originally tied to socially just and ecologically sustainable social practices including those of indigenous northern groups such as the Yakut Fractal designs originally allowed unalienated value both human and nonhuman to be visible thereby enabling just and sustainable living This book also examines how the tsarist elite encouraged the creation of unique creative masterpieces developing and strengthening traditional crafts and art of indigenous people hence Fabergé or imperial architecture Today the challenge for contemporary Russia is to reestablish the relationship between the social and ecological sustainability of indigenous cultures and practices for which we can now provide modeling and analysis Lay attempts at this have only limited success as they have based the attempts on a purely religious basis which recognizes the ecological aspects but often succumbs to authoritarian nationalism However the freely accession of indigenous peoples to Russia for the sake of national liberation has had a positive effect on enriching them with spirituality and creativity by Fractal artifacts through friendly exchanges with one another In Russian Fractals in Indigenous Artifacts Bangura and Zhigun express why there is a need for a forward thinking Fractal renaissance in Russia bringing together contemporary computational and scientific analyses with these ecologically and socially sustainable traditions Explorations of a Mind-Traveling Sociologist Renée C.

Fox, 2019-11-15 Explorations of a Mind Traveling Sociologist is a book of thematically interconnected ethnographic essays by the internationally esteemed sociologist Renée C Fox who employs a participant observer outlook to provide unique insight on such enduring and pressing issues as the lived experiences of physicians and patients including patients who are physically challenged elderly mortally ill or beyond the reach of medical care the origins and consequences of epidemic outbreaks of old and new plague like infectious diseases that occur and recur despite the impressive advances of medicine the concomitants and challenges of aging the wellsprings dynamics and significance of medical humanitarian action engagement with a beyond borders world view the occurrence of national and international events of major moral as well as political and legal import and repercussions and the meaning and meaningfulness of teaching exploring questing and writing Latently associated with these themes are the author's social values and social conscience Composing these essays from a participant observer outlook heightens and enriches the author's observations over the course of her daily life enabling her to engage in mind travel to places and people she has intimately known in the past and to places she has yearningly hoped to visit but never has
