The Clash of Civilizations and the Remaking of World Order Samuel P. Huntington, 2007-05-31 The classic study of post Cold War international relations more relevant than ever in the post 9 11 world with a new foreword by Zbigniew Brzezinski Since its initial publication The Clash of Civilizations and the Remaking of World Order has become a classic work of international relations and one of the most influential books ever written about foreign affairs An insightful and powerful analysis of the forces driving global politics it is as indispensable to our understanding of American foreign policy today as the day it was published As former National Security Adviser Zbigniew Brzezinski says in his new foreword to the book it has earned a place on the shelf of only about a dozen or so truly enduring works that provide the quintessential insights necessary for a broad understanding of world affairs in our time Samuel Huntington explains how clashes between civilizations are the greatest threat to world peace but also how an international order based on civilizations is the best safeguard against war Events since the publication of the book have proved the wisdom of that analysis The 9 11 attacks and wars in Iraq and Afghanistan have demonstrated the threat of civilizations but have also shown how vital international cross civilization cooperation is to restoring peace As ideological distinctions among nations have been replaced by cultural differences world politics has been reconfigured Across the globe new conflicts and new cooperation have replaced the old order of the Cold War era The Clash of Civilizations and the Remaking of World Order explains how the population explosion in Muslim countries and the economic rise of East Asia are changing global politics These developments challenge Western dominance promote opposition to supposedly universal Western ideals and intensify intercivilization conflict over such issues as nuclear proliferation immigration human rights and democracy The Muslim population surge has led to many small wars throughout Eurasia and the rise of China could lead to a global war of civilizations Huntington offers a strategy for the West to preserve its unique culture and emphasizes the need for people everywhere to learn to coexist in a complex multipolar multicivilizational world

The Future of Islam and the West Shireen T. Hunter, 1998-03-25 Shireen Hunter provides a pragmatic analysis of relations between Islam and the West marked by specific cases from the contemporary Islamic Western divide Her book gives a realistic and accurate assessment of the relative role of civilizational factors in determining the nature of the state and the prospects for Muslim Western relations i e whether they will be conflictual or cooperative Hunter answers the question Can an accommodation between Islam and the West take place in a gradual and evolutionary manner or will it happen only after conflict and confrontation And contrary to Huntington s vaunted thesis in The Clash of Civilizations and the Remaking of World Order Simon Schuster 1996 she finds that the reality of modern Islam offers room for hope Hunter challenges many of the prevailing Western views of the Muslim world For example despite the widespread belief on the specificity of Islam because of an assumed fusion of politics and religion in reality the fusion of the spiritual and the temporal has not been greater in Islam than in other religions Therefore Hunter asserts the slower pace of secularization in Muslim countries can not be attributed to Islam s specificity This is a major study that will be of interest to concerned citizens as well as scholars and students of the Middle East and Islam

The Myth of the Clash of Civilizations Chiara Bottici, Benoît Challand, 2013-01-11 While globalization unifies the world divisions re emerge within it in the form of a spectacular separation between Islam and the West How can it be that Huntington s contested idea of a clash of civilizations became such a powerful political myth through which so many people look at the world Bottici and Challand disentangle such a process of myth making both in the West and in Muslim majority countries and call for a renewed critical attitude towards it By analysing a process of elaboration of this myth that took place in academic books arts and media comics and Hollywood films they show that the clash of civilizations has become a cognitive scheme through which people look at the world a practical image on the basis of which they act on it as well as a drama which mobilizes passions and emotions Written in a concise and accessible way this book is a timely and valuable contribution to the academic literature and more generally to the public debate As such it will be an important reference for scholars and students of political science sociology philosophy cultural studies Middle Eastern politics and Islam

Beyond the Clash of Civilizations Mohamed Wa Baile, 2011-08-17 In today's ever changing and often uncertain world encouraging healthy dialogue between all cultures and religions is vital In Beyond the Clash of Civilizations Mohamed Wa Baile carefully explores how Muslims and people of other faiths can achieve a peaceful coexistence instead of being victims of conflict Wa Baile a follower and practitioner of Islamic religion has had the privilege of unconditional access to study Muslim communities in Switzerland There for the past ten years he has examined the interactions between Muslims and the complex introspective issues that often plague both individuals and families Through attending hundreds of congregational prayers and interviews with Muslim leaders Wa Baile shares his thoughtful observations as he seeks new meanings and alternative ways of thinking that will help all Muslims understand and assess the real challenges that lie ahead It is up to the current generation to seek practical solutions and peaceful resolutions rather than insist on the narrative of one insular side or the other Beyond the Clash of Civilizations encourages a new respect for Islam with the hope of changing long held perceptions of both Muslims and non Muslims alike The Clash of

Civilizations and the Muslim World Ghulam Zikria,2017-08-29 Master s Thesis from the year 2009 in the subject Theology Islamic theology The Islamia University of Bahawalpur Department of Political Science course M Phil language English abstract The political phenomena of the contemporary world are more disturbing than they were in previous times Upheaval and unease have prevailed throughout religions economic systems cultures traditions and values due to attempts by different civilizations to forcefully infuse particular ideas over the entire world Today it is the Western and the Eastern Muslim world that are standing up against each other Each of them is the preacher of a particular civilization Their mutual conflicts have been going on for more than fourteen hundred years and still continue The contemporary events of attacks in the last few years from the Western world to the Muslim territories like as Sudan Somalia Afghanistan and Iraq including the threats of attacks on Iran Yemen and Pakistani tribal areas and the Muslim extremist activities against the Western benefits show the serious situation of the maintenance of peace and security condition in the entire world What is the nature of clash Why did they remain in conflict What will be the future aspects of their relations While also regarding other religions e g Judaism Hinduism and Buddhism this paper pursues the above mentioned questions trying to find possibilities to unite those seemingly opposing cultures Young Islam on Trek Basil Mathews,1926 Written by a Protestant missionary soon after

Ataturk s takeover of Turkey Mathews discusses recent political developments in Turkey Egypt India and so forth with respect to the enduring religious hold of Islam He sees little to redeem the religion even though he sees potential in the people themselves However Mathews is also unimpressed with the cultural offerings of the West while he sees Christianity as vital he also perceives contemporary European culture as dissipated and sinful and thus he argues that Christian missionaries should not attempt to actually replace local cultural practices with European ones Middle Eastern Societies and the West Meir Litvak,2006 For many Middle Eastern Muslims the West came to personify the ultimate other occupying a space that was simultaneously appealing intimidating and often abhorrent The multilayered ambivalent interaction between Middle Eastern societies and the West has been a major theme in the history of this region for the past two centuries The al Qa eda terrorist attack against the United States on September 11 2001 the 2003 U S invasion of Iraq and Israel s war against Hizbullah in the summer of 2006 have made the in depth study of this interaction more critically important than ever Taking the concepts of the Middle East and the West into account as useful analytical categories the various articles in this volume examine and analyze a broad spectrum of Middle Eastern encounters and attitudes toward the West This collection provides a fuller understanding of the complexities involved in both the historical and contemporary relationship between Middle Eastern societies and the West

The Clash of Civilizations Mohamad Saleh Kotob,2015 From the Graveyard of Civilizations Feza Aazmi,2007-10-16 Islam s Bloody Borders Chapter 10 The Clash of Civilizations Samuel P Huntington is what provoked noted Pakistani poet writer and literary activist Feza Aazmi to write From The Graveyard of Civilizations giving an equally acerbic and angry rejoinder Christianity s Bloody Borders to Huntington Feza Aazmi s book is an attempt to prove that most wars in the past history were essentially wars of aggrandizement These were waged for hegemony and for control of resources The future wars are not going to be any different In Aazmi s view Prof Huntington s book is a gross misinterpretation of facts of history and present day ground realities Aazmi detects a distinct intent in the book to malign Islamic faith and history in order to provide an excuse to launch actions against Muslim nations and to develop a new pattern of hegemony over them Refuting the basic elements contained in the theory of Clash of Civilizations Aazmi offers a viable alternative of a global society living in peace and security this is the paradise promised on earth for every living soul concludes Aazmi All this is expressed in the format of a book length verse which is unique in many ways

The New Clash of Civilizations Minhaz Merchant,2013 A compelling amalgam of new writing and published essays by Minhaz Merchant The New Clash of Civilizations offers deep and stimulating insights into how the contest between four major civilizational forces the United States China India and Islam will shape our century The historic shift in the economic and geopolitical balance of power from the West to the East Merchant writes will determine the ideas and principles that govern this unfolding century Divided into six distinct sections History Nation World Leaders Science Society and Vintage the book provides an original perspective on a dynamic nation coming to terms with itself and the world In politics and science history and economics India s place in an increasingly competitive global order and its interaction with the other three major civilizational strands forms a cornerstone of the book s narrative Broad in sweep and range The New Clash of Civilizations is a lucid and brilliant account of the ebb and flow of power in the twenty first century

Islam Vs. West Abubakr Asadulla,2009 Islam s 1 400 year history has made an important contribution to world civilization In its nascent state it miraculously brought the mighty Christian Byzantine and Zoroastrian Persian empires to their knees In the span of a generation the Islamic world became one of the largest empires in history Despite the stereotype of Islam being spread with the sword it was mainly adopted and practiced peacefully Islam recognizes the fundamental importance of the individual s right to religious self determination Islam s aversion to compulsion and its affirmation of the individual s right to choose are clearly stated in the Quran Nevertheless a transformation has occurred in the Muslim world that has led to a decline in Islamic civilization This book summarizes the major historical factors that have contributed to this decline leading to the 9 11 terrorist attacks and proposes a three step process of conflict resolution between Islam and the West Internal problems especially doctrinal struggles were primarily responsible for Islam s downfall In addition disorder and intolerance followed from the devastating conquests by Christian Crusaders and Mongol hordes and more recently from the imperialism and colonization of the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries

The Claim to Christianity Hannah Strømmen,Ulrich Schmiedel,2020-06-30 The far right is on the rise across Europe pushing a battle scenario in which Islam clashes with Christianity as much as Christianity clashes with Islam From the margins to the mainstream far right protesters and far right politicians call for the defence of Europe s Christian culture The far right claims Christianity This book investigates contemporary far right claims to Christianity Ulrich Schmiedel and Hannah Str mmen examine the theologies that emerge in the far right across Europe concentrating on Norway Germany and Great Britain They explore how churches in these three countries have been complicit complacent or critical of the far right sometimes intentionally and sometimes unintentionally Ultimately Schmiedel and Str mmen encourage a creative and collaborative theological response To counter the far right Christianity needs to be practiced in an open and open ended way which calls Christians into contact with Muslims

A Quarter Century of the "Clash of Civilizations" Jeffrey Haynes,2021-05-10 The clash of civilizations focuses on conflict and cooperation between and within states Dealing with the clash is essential for a peaceful and harmonious world The clash of civilizations is a topic of great interest around the world and constitutes an important dimension of religion and international relations In the quarter century since Huntington first aired his controversial framework inter civilizational clash and dialogue have become mainstream issues both in international relations and in many Western countries domestic concerns The book examines a key question how does Samuel Huntington s clash of civilizations paradigm help explain current Western governments responses to Muslim migration and related security issues Understanding relations between the West Westerners and Muslim majority societies Muslims is impossible without being aware that right wing populist politicians in the West as well as some policy makers and commentators seem to view all Muslims in a malign way This indicates a lack of willingness to make a distinction between on the one hand the mass of moderate ordinary and peaceful Muslims and on the other hand a small minority of Islamist extremists and even smaller number of Islamist terrorists The result is a crucial topic of our times how do different civilizations coexist in a small and increasingly congested planet without conflict The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of The Review of Faith International Affairs

Islam's Predicament with Modernity Bassam Tibi, 2009-02-25 This book presents an in depth cultural and political analysis of the issue of political Islam as a potential source of tensions and conflict and how this might be peacefully resolved Looking at modernity from an Islamic point of view the author analyses issues such as law knowledge and human rights

The Fear of Barbarians Tzvetan Todorov, 2010-10-15 The relationship between Western democracies and Islam rarely entirely comfortable has in recent years become increasingly tense A growing immigrant population and worries about cultural and political assimilation exacerbated by terrorist attacks in the United States Europe and around the world have provoked reams of commentary from all parts of the political spectrum a frustrating majority of it hyperbolic or even hysterical In The Fear of Barbarians the celebrated intellectual Tzvetan Todorov offers a corrective a reasoned and often highly personal analysis of the problem rooted in Enlightenment values yet open to the claims of cultural difference Drawing on history anthropology and politics and bringing to bear examples ranging from the murder of Theo van Gogh to the French ban on headscarves Todorov argues that the West must overcome its fear of Islam if it is to avoid betraying the values it claims to protect True freedom Todorov explains requires us to strike a delicate balance between protecting and imposing cultural values acknowledging the primacy of the law and yet strenuously protecting minority views that do not interfere with its aims Adding force to Todorov s arguments is his own experience as a native of communist Bulgaria his admiration of French civic identity and Western freedom is vigorous but non nativist an inclusive vision whose very flexibility is its core strength The record of a penetrating mind grappling with a complicated multifaceted problem The Fear of Barbarians is a powerful important book a call not to arms but to thought

Sacred and Secular Pippa Norris, Ronald Inglehart, 2011-10-17 This book develops a theory of existential security It demonstrates that the publics of virtually all advanced industrial societies have been moving toward more secular orientations during the past half century but also that the world as a whole now has more people with traditional religious views than ever before This second edition expands the theory and provides new and updated evidence from a broad perspective and in a wide range of countries This confirms that religiosity persists most strongly among vulnerable populations especially in poorer nations and in failed states Conversely a systematic erosion of religious practices values and beliefs has occurred among the more prosperous strata in rich nations
