Us versus Them, Second Edition Douglas Little, 2022-08-02 Acclaimed historian of U S Middle East foreign relations Douglas Little examines how American presidents policy makers and diplomats dealt with the rise of Islamic extremism in the modern era Focusing on White House decision making from George H W Bush to Barack Obama Little traces the transformation of the Cold War era Red Threat into the Green Threat of radical Islam Analyzing key episodes from the 1991 Persian Gulf War and Bill Clinton s mishandling of the Oslo peace process through the 9 11 attacks George W Bush s decision to invade Iraq and the showdown with ISIS Little shows how the threat posed by Islamic others shaped the Middle Eastern policies of both Democratic and Republican presidents This second edition includes a new afterword that carries the story through the Trump administration and into the Biden presidency focusing particularly on Afghanistan a major trouble spot in the Muslim world that will command global attention for many years to come Media Language on Islam and Muslims Salman Al-Azami, 2023-10-07 This book brings together contributions from ten academics and a commentary from a Muslim community leader on how the British media represent some of the most important terminologies related to Islam and Muslims It takes a nuanced approach to language within Muslims in the media research by focusing on terminologies Each contributor in this volume focused on one terminology and its associated words to show how the representation of these terminologies have major implications on the lives of British Muslims The book also includes some key recommendations on the usage of these terms from the Media Style Guide of the Centre for Media monitoring a research organisation of the Muslim Council of Britain This book s link with the Muslim community can be a step towards new approaches in this field where academics will engage with communities and practitioners to ensure better impact of their academic works This book will be of interest to students scholars and practitioners in a range of fields including Journalism Media and Communication Studies English Language and Linguistics Sociology Cultural and Religious Studies Marked for Death Geert Wilders, 2012-05-01 Marked for Death Fanatics terrorists and appeasers have tried everything to silence Geert Wilders Europe s most controversial Member of Parliament from putting him on trial to putting a price on his head But Wilders refuses to be silenced and one result is the book you have in your hands For years from his native Netherlands Wilders has sounded the alarm about the relentless spread of Islam in the West And he has paid a steep personal price enduring countless death threats and being forced into a permanent state of hiding Now for the first time Wilders offers a full account of his long battle against the zealots who have already slaughtered his countryman Theo van Gogh whose killer also threatened to murder Wilders himself In Marked for Death Wilders reveals How and why liberal politicians including Barack Obama downplay the Islamic threat The systematic suppression of free speech through lawsuits prosecutions threats and violence meted out against Islam s critics The untold story how Islamic groups are redefining human rights to suppress non Muslims everywhere The true bloody history of Islam s spread throughout the world How the West can defend itself against an existential enemy determined to conquer the globe Expelled from Britain banned from Indonesia denounced by the UN Secretary General prosecuted in court for his beliefs forced into government safe houses and constantly threatened with death Geert Wilders is unbowed and unapologetic Marked for Death is a stark warning about a growing threat to our liberties written by a man who has lost his freedom and would not see the rest of us suffer the same fate Modern Islamic Thought in a Radical Age Muhammad Qasim Zaman,2012-10-15 This book explores some of the most fiercely debated issues facing the Islamic world today ThirdWay,2005-03 Monthly current affairs magazine from a Christian perspective with a focus on politics society economics and culture Singapore Jason Lim,Terence Lee,2016-05-26 On 9 August 2015

Singapore celebrated its 50th year of national independence a milestone for the nation as it has overcome major economic social cultural and political challenges in a short period of time Whilst this was a celebratory event to acknowledge the role of the People's Action Party PAP government it was also marked by national remembrance as founding Prime Minister Lee Kuan Yew died in March 2015 This book critically reflects on Singapore's 50 years of independence Contributors interrogate a selected range of topics on Singapore's history culture and society including the constitution education religion and race and thereby facilitate a better understanding of its shared national past Central to this book is an examination of how Singaporeans have learnt to adapt and change through PAP government policies since independence in 1965 All chapters begin their histories from that point in time and each contribution focuses either on an area that has been neglected in Singapore's modern history or offer new perspectives on the past Using a multi disciplinary approach it presents an independent and critical take on Singapore's post 1965 history A valuable assessment to students and researchers alike Singapore Negotiating State and Society 1965 2015 is of interest to specialists in Southeast Asian history and politics

Counting Islam Tarek E. Masoud,2014-04-28 This book explains why Islamist parties have dominated the politics of Egypt for the better part of fifty years Analyzing Islamist electoral performance and behavior before and after the 2011 revolution that unseated former dictator Hosni Mubarak this book argues that Islamists win elections not because Egyptians are fundamentalists but because these parties have more organizational resources to call on than their secular rivals Militant Islam Reaches America Daniel Pipes,2003 Long before September 11 2001 Daniel Pipes publicly warned Americans that militant Islam had declared war on America yet sadly Americans failed to take heed The publication of Militant Islam Reaches America finally brought Pipes the attention he deserves Dividing his work into two parts Pipes first defines militant Islam stressing the large and crucial difference between Islam the faith and the ideology of militant Islam He then discusses the relatively new subject of Islam in the United States and how it has developed rapidly in the last decade In Militant Islam Reaches America the product of thirty years of extensive research Pipes provides one of the most incisive examinations of the growing radical Islamic movement ever written The paperback edition includes a new essay Jihad and the Professors

Islamism and Islam Bassam Tibi,2012-05-22 Despite the intense media focus on Muslims and their religion since the tragedy of 9 11 few Western scholars or policymakers today have a clear idea of the distinctions between Islam and the politically based fundamentalist movement known as Islamism In this important and illuminating book Bassam Tibi a senior scholar of Islamic politics provides a corrective to this dangerous gap in our understanding He explores the true nature of contemporary Islamism and the essential ways in which it differs from the religious faith of Islam Drawing on research in twenty Islamic countries over three decades Tibi describes Islamism as a political ideology based on a reinvented version of Islamic law In separate chapters devoted to the major features of Islamism he discusses the Islamist vision of state order the centrality of antisemitism in Islamist ideology Islamism s incompatibility with democracy the reinvention of jihadism as terrorism the invented tradition of shari a law as constitutional order and the Islamists confusion of the concepts of authenticity and cultural purity Tibi s concluding chapter applies elements of Hannah Arendt s theory to identify Islamism as a totalitarian ideology

Arab Nationalism B. Tibi,1997-01-14 The third edition includes a new Part Five on the tensions between Arab nationalism and Islam arising from the crisis of the nation state and of the de legitimisation of Pan Arab regimes The effects of the Arab defeat in the Six Day War 1967 and the rise of political Islam in the 1970s are the focus of the new part The background of the analysis of the impact and function of nationalism and its contribution to social and political change in the Third World taking the rise of nationalism in the Middle East as a historical example Professor Tibi concentrates on the period after the First World War when many Arab intellectuals became disillusioned with Britain and France as a result of the occupation of their countries One focus of this study are the writings and influence of Sati al Husri on Middle Eastern politics Professor Tibi illustrates the connection between modern Arab nationalism and nineteenth century German Romantic nationalism which will be of particular interest to the English reader Professor Tibi concludes that while nationalism has played a necessary and important role in the movement for national independence in the Middle East it has since developed into an ideology which seems to obstruct further social and political emancipation This third edition brought completely up to date by a substantial new introduction and two new concluding chapters will be of particular interest to historians and social scientists dealing with nationalism and crises of the nation state as well as to students of the Middle East and contemporary Islam

Christianity, Islam, and Atheism William Kilpatrick,2012 Christianity Islam and atheism argues that Islam is a religion of conquest and subjugation and that in spite of 9 11 and thousands of other terrorist attacks throughout the world many in the West still do not know or admit this because it conflicts with their multiculturalism and their belief in the equivalence of all cultures and religions

Remaking the Classics Christopher Stray,Lorna Hardwick,Amanda Wrigley,Deborah Roberts,Elizabeth Vandiver,Leanne Hunnings,Ruth Hazel,Sheila Murnaghan,Stephen Harrison,2013-10-16 This important collection of essays both contributes to the expanding field of classical reception studies and seeks to extend it Focusing on nineteenth and twentieth century Britain it looks at a range of different genres epic novel lyric tragedy political pamphlet Within the published texts considered the usual range of genres dealt with elsewhere is extended by chapters on books for children and those in which childhood and memories of childhood are informed by antiquity and also by a multi genre case study of a highly unusual subject Spartacus Remaking the Classics also goes beyond books to dramatic performance and beyond the theatre to radio a medium of enormous power and influence from the 1920s to the 1960s whose role in the reception of classics is largely unexplored The variety of genres and of media considered in the book is balanced both by the focus on Britain in a specific time period and by an overlap of subject matter between chapters the three chapters on twentieth century drama for example range from performance strategies to post colonial contexts The book thus combines the consolidation of a field with an attempt to push it in new and exciting directions

Religious Violence Today Michael Jerryson, 2020-07-15 Through sections containing overview essays and reference entries related to particular religions this resource explores the rise of religious violence hate crime and persecution around the world Religious violence and persecution have been growing steadily both within the United States and around the world Drawing on the expertise of a wide range of scholars this current and comprehensive reference helps readers understand the persecution of members of particular faiths as well as violence committed by members of those faiths In doing so it promotes a greater understanding of the role of religion in global politics domestic and international terrorism and religious bigotry The book contains sections on particular religious traditions from around the world Each section begins with an overview essay surveying violence related to that particular religion whether committed by or against members of that faith Reference entries in each section then provide objective fundamental information about particular topics related to violence and the religion discussed The entries provide cross references and suggestions for further reading and the work closes with a bibliography of resources for further study

Constitutionalism, Human Rights, and Islam after the Arab Spring

Rainer Grote, Tilmann J. Röder, 2016-07-25 Constitutionalism Human Rights and Islam after the Arab Spring offers a comprehensive analysis of the impact that new and draft constitutions and amendments such as those in Jordan Morocco Syria Egypt and Tunisia have had on the transformative processes that drive constitutionalism in Arab countries This collection of essays written by an expert team of constitutional and comparative law scholars and practitioners provides an overview of the recent constitutional experience of Arab countries explores the potential and actual impact of Islam and Sharia on the notion of modern constitutionalism and offers insight into the ways in which Western ideals may be reconciled with the Islamic tradition

The Tyranny of Silence Flemming Rose, 2016-05-10 Journalists face constant intimidation Whether it takes the extreme form of beheadings death threats government censorship or simply political correctness it casts a shadow over their ability to tell a story When the Danish newspaper Jyllands Posten published the cartoons of the prophet Muhammad nine years ago Denmark found itself at the center of a global battle about the freedom of speech The paper's culture editor Flemming Rose defended the decision to print the 12 drawings and he quickly came to play a central part in the debate about the limitations to freedom of speech in the 21st century In The Tyranny of Silence Flemming Rose writes about the people and experiences that have influenced his understanding of the crisis including meetings with dissidents from the former Soviet Union and ex Muslims living in Europe He provides a personal account of an event that has shaped the debate about what it means to be a citizen in a democracy and how to coexist in a world that is increasingly multicultural multireligious and multiethnic Islam and Politics John L. Esposito,1998-08 Provides the historical background and context necessary for understanding the politics in Moslem countries and the role of Islam in them The second edition was in 1988 the first in 1984 Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Guardians of Faith in Modern Times Meir Hatina,2009 This collective volume provides an integrative historical and contemporary discussion of Sunni EulamaE3 4 in the Middle East in both an urban and a semi tribal context The various chapters reinforce a renewed interest in the position of the EulamaE3 4 in modern times and offer new insights as to their ideological vitality and contribution to the public discourse on moral and sociopolitical issues War and Religion in the Secular Age Davis Brown,2019-11-12 Is religion a factor in initiating interstate armed conflict and do different religions have different effects Breaking new ground in political science this book explores these questions both qualitatively and quantitatively concluding that the answer is yes Previous studies have focused on conflict within states or interstate aggression with overtly religious motivations in contrast Brown shows how religion affects states propensities to militarize even disputes that are not religious in nature Different religions are shown to have different influences on those propensities and those influences are linked to the war ethics inculcated in those religions The book analyses and classifies war ethics contained in religious scripture and other religious classics teachings of religions contemporary epistemic communities and religions historical narratives Using data from the new Religious Characteristics of States dataset project qualitative studies are combined with empirical measurements of governments institutional preferences and populations cultures This book will provide interesting insights to scholars and researchers in international security studies political science international law sociology and religious studies Islam Richard Crandall,2008-07 The attacks on 9 11 were part of a 1 400 year Islamic jihad against the non Islamic world Since 9 11 there have been over 10 000 additional violent jihads In addition there have been thousands of soft jihads where Muslims have attempted to replace Western culture with that of Islam The jihadists are motivated by the core principles of Islam with the goal of converting killing or subjugating all non Muslims Unfortunately too many non Muslims have reverted to a pre 9 11 mentality and do not see the necessity of an offensive war in Iraq or Afghanistan or of a defensive war at home Non Muslims are going to have to decide to fight for their cultures freedoms and values or they are going to lose them Dr Crandall has been teaching sociology at the college and university level for over 30 years The focus of some of his other books have been in the area of gerontology the physiological and psychological consequences of running and Inuit art The attacks on 9 11 changed the focus of his research and he has spent the last seven years researching and writing this book The Idea of Islam Ziauddin Sardar,Robin Yassin-Kassab,2012 A quarterly magazine of ideas and issues showcasing ground breaking thinking on Islam and what it means to be a Muslim in a rapidly changing interconnected world
