Istorie Manual Xi Humanitas:

Holocaust Public Memory in Postcommunist Romania Alexandru Florian, 2018-01-24 How is the Holocaust remembered in Romania since the fall of communism Alexandru Florian and an international group of contributors unveil how and why Romania a place where large segments of the Jewish and Roma populations perished still fails to address its recent past These essays focus on the roles of government and public actors that choose to promote construct defend or contest the memory of the Holocaust as well as the tools the press the media monuments and commemorations that create public memory Coming from a variety of perspectives these essays provide a compelling view of what memories exist how they are sustained how they can be distorted and how public remembrance of the Holocaust can be encouraged in Romanian society today

Holocaust Education E. Doyle Stevick, Deborah Michaels, 2017-10-02 Holocaust Education Promise Practice Power and Potential provides timely studies of some of the most pressing issues in teaching and learning about the Holocaust around the world Europe is experiencing both anti Semitic attacks many by radicals claiming the banner of Islam and the resurgence of right wing movements that are openly hostile to minority rights particularly for marginalized and vulnerable groups like the Roma Sinti and Muslim refugees Can Holocaust education an encounter with the most extreme racial ideology to afflict the continent reduce violence and prejudice against Jewish and other minority groups The important studies in this volume address these and other pressing issues for the field including the progress of Central and Eastern European countries that experienced both Soviet hegemony and Nazi terror in grappling with the history of the Holocaust This book was originally published as a special issue of Intercultural Education Europe in the Classroom Simona Szakács, 2017-10-13 This book provides an unconventional account of post 1989 education reform in Romania By drawing on policy documentation interviews with key players qualitative data from everyday school contexts and extensive textbook analysis this groundbreaking study explores change within the Romanian education system as a process that institutionalises world culture through symbolic mediation of the concept Europe The book argues that the education system s structural and organisational evolution through time is decoupled from its self depiction by ultimately serving a nation building agenda It does so despite notable changes in the discourse reflecting increasingly transnational definitions of the mission of the school in the post 1989 era The book also suggests that the notions of nation and citizen institutionalised by the school are gradually being redefined as cosmopolitan matching post war patterns of post national affiliations on a worldwide level

Improvement of Balkan History Textbooks Project Reports Türkiye Ekonomik ve Toplumsal Tarih Vakfı, 2003 Judicial process Judges Turkey Non-Inclusive Education in Central and Eastern Europe Katarzyna Górak-Sosnowska, Urszula Markowska-Manista, 2022-11-03 This book presents research into inclusive education in Central and Eastern Europe CEE written by scholars based in CEE Inclusive education has become a framework for understanding and embracing diversity but most of the research in this area has been carried out in intercultural or culturally diverse settings within a relatively inclusive and open framework of democratic liberal and multicultural Western societies Unlike many Western societies the realities of CEE countries are often much less diverse and connected with different fragile historical and political processes which puts tackling sensitive topics in a different context The editors and contributors address the dominant Western ways of looking at inclusive and global education in CEE They argue that Western leveraged pedagogy has been imposed on CEE and outline the context specific problems of teaching global education in CEE Collectively the chapters offer critical responses to the issues of exclusion and exclusionary practices of silenced minorities in CEE Written by academics based in Czech Republic Germany Hungary Poland Romania and Russia the book cover topics including Roma genocide in Poland teaching about Islam and teaching about LGBTQ issues The book includes a preface written by Jacqueline Bhabha Professor of the Practice of Health and Human Rights at Harvard University USA Clio in the Balkans Christina Koulouri,2002

Post/modern Dracula John S. Bak,2009-03-26 Post modern Dracula explores the postmodern in Bram Stoker s Victorian novel and the Victorian in Francis Ford Coppola s postmodern film to demonstrate how the century that separates the two artists binds them more than it divides them What are the postmodern elements of Stoker s novel Where are the Victorian traits in Coppola s film Is there a postmodern gloss on those Victorian traits And can there be a Victorian directive behind postmodernism in general The nine essays compiled in this collection address these and other relevant questions per the novel and the film at three distinct periods post modern Victorianism post modernism and finally postmodernism Part I on post modernist issues in Stoker s novel establishes the link between Victorian themes and postmodern praxes that begins with colonialist concerns and ends with poststructuralist signification Part II looks at the post modernist traits in Stoker s Dracula those obviously influenced by modernism but also with the help of the novel s plasticity vis vis the media over the last century by postmodernism Part III examines more closely the novel s postmodern characteristics particularly with respect to Coppola s 1992 film Bram Stoker s Dracula Dracula defies time and promises to undermine any critical study of it that precisely tries to situate it within a given epoch including a postmodernist one Given its relationship to late capitalist economy to post Marxist politics and to commodity culture and given its universal appeal to human fears and anxieties fetishes and fantasies lusts and desires Stoker s novel will forever remain post modern always haunting our future as it has repeatedly done so our past Though scholars of Dracula and Gothic literature in general will find some of the essays innovative and engaging per today s literary criticism the book is also intended for both an informed general reader and a novice student of the novel and of the film As such a few essays are highly specialized in postmodern theory whereas others are more centered around the sociohistorical context of the novel and film and use various postmodern theories as inroads into the novel s or the film s study Istoria din ghiozdan Mirela-Luminița Murgescu,2004 Insegnare l'Europa Falk Pingel,2003 Come l Europa viene insegnata oggi nelle scuole dei diversi paesi europei Ne emerge un quadro inedito di grande interesse non privo di spunti problematici ma che rivela il grande impegno in corso nei vari paesi per elaborare un educazione all Europa Bibliografia cărților în curs de apariție ,2005 Red Army in Romania Constantin Hlihor,2022-07-01 The Red Army in Romania is the first comprehensive study of the Soviet occupation of Romanian territory in 1940 1941 and its occupation of the country at the end of World War II which lasted until Soviet troops withdrew from the country in 1958 Based on previously unavailable archival sources it sheds light on the occupation policies of the Red Army and Soviet policy in Eastern Europe generally at the end of World War II The authors both well known historians discuss the geopolitical and historical conditions that allowed the Red Army to occupy Romania They analyze the consequences of the occupation on the country particularly on political life as it led to the establishment of a Communist regime in Romania The Red Army in Romania is a valuable book for students and researchers alike Constantin Hlihor is a professor of history at the University of Bucharest and a researcher at the Center for Euro Atlantic Studies and at the Academy for Military Studies in Bucharest Ioan Scurtu is a professor of history at the University of Bucharest and former director of the Romanian National Archives Dimensiunea europeană a învățămîntului românesc Roxana Tudorică,2004 Transitional Justice in Post-Communist Romania Lavinia Stan,2013 This is the first volume to overview the complex Romanian transitional justice effort detail the political negotiations that have led to the adoption and implementation of relevant legislation and assess these processes in terms of their timing sequencing and impact on democratization Nemzeti identitás és külpolitika Közép- és Kelet-Európában László J. The Balkans and the West Andrew Hammond,2017-03-02 This collection of essays locates investigates and challenges the manner in which the Balkans and the West have constructed each other since 1945 Scholars from the two sections of the continent explore a wide range of fiction film journalism travel writing and diplomatic records both to analyse Western European balkanism and to study Balkan representations of the West over the last fifty years The first section looks back to the Cold War examining the divergent often favourable images of the Balkans that existed in Western culture as well as the variety of responses that appeared in South East European writings on the West The second section analyses the transitions that took place in representation during the 1990s Here contributors explore both the harsh denigration of the Balkans which came to dominate western discourse after the initial euphoria of 1989 and the emerging tradition of contesting Western balkanism in South East European cultural production Through this dual emphasis the volume exposes the representational practices that help to maintain a deeply divided Europe and challenges the economic and political injustices that result Despite the rise to prominence of postcolonial theory with its awareness of global inequality the current crises in many parts of South East Europe have received scant attention in literary and cultural studies The Balkans and the West addresses this deficiency Ranging in focus from Serbian cinema to Romanian travel literature from Western economic writings to Yugoslav fiction and from public discourse in Albania to NATO s vast propaganda machine the essays offer wide insight into representation and power in the contemporary European context
