discussion is combined with close reading of texts and exploration of context comparison with other genres and other literatures and reference to novels from earlier periods This companionable introduction includes a chronology and guide to further reading From it emerges a strong sense of the vitality and energy of the modern French novel and of the debates surrounding it Teaching the Cult of Literature in the French Third Republic M. Guiney,2004-09-17 This book explores literature in its role as a sacred text within the confines of 19th century French primary and secondary education helping the school to take over the role of spiritual authority from the Catholic Church French Cartoon Art in the 1960s and 1970s Wendy Michallat,2018-07-25 Pilote s unique position in a new and fast developing youth press market The French comic magazine Pilote hebdomadaire arrived in a weakening comics market in 1959 largely dominated by syndicated translations of American comics and comics inspired by a Catholic ethos It tailored its content and tone to an older adolescent reader far removed from that of France s infant comic Pilote s profile set it on a turbulent course subject to the vicissitudes and fickleness of fashion which situated it within an emerging teenager press under pressure to renew and innovate to survive When it made cartoons its defining characteristic in 1963 Pilote articulated its uniqueness by channelling teenager discourse through them whilst also trying to encourage a zest for education in a modernising and economically buoyant France of exciting new opportunities Pilote s cartoon art thus became a dynamic repository for the ideas and attitudes of France s educated youth which evolved into the radical discourses of the lifestyle and political revolutions of the late 1960s and early 1970s This book tells how Pilote hebdomadaire s unique positioning in a new and fast developing youth press market for teenagers provided the forum and catalyst for the bande dessin e s stylistic evolution over the course of the 1960s and 1970s Speech and Thought Presentation in French Sophie Marnette,2005-08-18 This book analyses and describes Speech and Thought Presentation S TP in French from a broad theoretical perspective building bridges between linguistic stylistic and narratological frameworks that have until now been developed separately It combines the French th orie de l nonciation and different Anglo Saxon approaches of reported discourse into a harmonious whole in order to create a new and exciting paradigm for our conception of S TP strategies Basing its findings on actual corpora and going beyond the canonical categories of reported discourse it shows that the study of S TP strategies is essential to our understanding of phenomena as diverse as the evolution and categorization of literary genres the production and staging of orality in literature the various conceptualizations of the notion of Truth in fiction and non fiction the expression of points of view in narrative the structuring of rhetorical strategies and the construction of the Self versus the representation of the Other in discourse representations of sexuality and the new realism Encyclopedia of French Film Directors Philippe R ge,2009-12-11

Cinema has been long associated with France dating back to 1895 when Louis and Auguste Lumi re screened their works the first public viewing of films anywhere Early silent pioneers Georges M li s Alice Guy Blach  and others followed in the footsteps of the Lumi re brothers and the tradition of important filmmaking continued throughout the 20th century and beyond In Encyclopedia of French Film Directors Philippe R ge identifies every French director who has made at least one feature film since 1895 From undisputed masters to obscure one timers nearly 3 000 directors are cited here including at least 200 filmmakers not mentioned in similar books published in France Each director's entry contains a brief biographical summary including dates and places of birth and death information on the individual's education and professional training and other pertinent details such as real names when the filmmaker uses a pseudonym The entries also provide complete filmographies including credits for feature films shorts documentaries and television work Some of the most important names in the history of film can be found in this encyclopedia from masters of the Golden Age _Jean Renoir and Ren  Clair_ to French New Wave artists such as Fran ois Truffaut and Jean Luc Godard The Algerian War in Film Fifty Years Later, 2004-2012 Anne Donadey,2020-10-07 The Algerian War in Film Fifty Years Later 2004 2012 examines the cultural political and aesthetic significance of narrative films made during the fiftieth anniversary period of the war between 2004 and 2012 This period was a fruitful one in which film became a central medium generating varied representations of the war and Anne Donadey argues that the fiftieth anniversary film production contributed to France's move from a period of the return of the repressed to one of difficult anamnesis Donadey provides a close analysis of twenty narrative films made during this period on both side of the Mediterranean observing that while some films continue to center on the point of view of only one stake holding group a number of films open up new opportunities for multicultural French audiences to envision the war through the eyes of Algerian characters on screen and other films bring memories from various groups together in thoughtful articulations that represent the complexity of the situation Donadey takes this analysis a step further to analyze what types of gendered representations emerge in these films given the important participation of Algerian women in the revolutionary war Scholars of Francophone studies film women s studies and history will find this book particularly useful Obelisk Neil Pearson,2007-01-01 Obelisk A History of Jack Kahane and the Obelisk Press details the history of one of the most extraordinary and controversial publishing enterprises of the twentieth century Publisher simultaneously of the infamous novels of the literary elite as well as low budget erotica and dirty books Jack Kahane s Obelisk Press published the likes of Henry Miller James Joyce Ana s Nin and D H Lawrence alongside a lengthy list of censor baiting eccentrics like N Reynolds Packard the New York Daily News Rome correspondent and the self styled Marco Polo of Sex Here for the first time is the story of this remarkable venture which captures some of the twentieth century s most outrageous literary personalities and their often scandalous exploits including the failed golf club society magazine run by Nin Miller and Lawrence Durrell and the tortured relationship between Obelisk author Marjorie Firminger and Wyndham Lewis A richly illustrated cultural history of 1920s Paris a fully narrated bibliography of works published by an unforgettable literary institution and a glimpse into the remarkable life of the Press s creator Jack Kahane The Obelisk Press is a publishing event not to be missed by anyone with an interest in twentieth century literary lives and letters Loris Malaguzzi and the Schools of Reggio Emilia Paola
