Branding Books Across the Ages Helleke Braber, Jeroen Dera, Jos Joosten, Maarten Steenmeijer, 2025-10-01 For many literature and marketing are considered opposite phenomena This book discusses cases in which the two are closely connected It argues that literature is subject to the same mechanisms as other commercial products our experience of literary texts is prefigured by brands trademarks that identify a product and differentiate it from its competitors From the early modern period onwards literary authors and their texts are constantly branded and have been both the object and the trailblazer of a complex marketing process The authors of this volume analyze this branding process throughout the centuries focusing on the Netherlands To what extent is our experience of Dutch literature prefigured by brands and what role does branding play when introducing European authors in the Dutch literary field or vice versa By answering these questions Branding Books Across the Ages seeks to show how literary scholars understand branding a phenomenon that has long been intertwined with literature

A Diffuse Murmur of History Fiona Schouten, 2010 After decades of uncomfortable silence Spain has now started dealing with its violent twentieth century past In recent years a vibrant memory discourse has emerged in Spanish society the number of films TV series newspaper articles history books and memorials dedicated to the Civil War of 1936 1939 and the ensuing dictatorship of Franco has increased dramatically Literature has also played its part in provoking and maintaining this memory boom and as a consequence the study of contemporary Spanish novels has started revolving around questions on the responsibility of the author on the impact of literature in society on its role in shaping memories and on its ethical status This book takes up these questions in an attempt to combine the outlook of collective memory studies with the theoretical demands of Poststructuralist theories Focusing on themes such as haunting and the uncanny nostalgia the Bildungsroman genre and autobiography its author analyses memory narratives in fourteen novels by foremost Spanish authors like Javier Mar as Luis Goytisolo Enrique Vila Matas and Manuel Vicent From publisher s website
