The Cinema of Francesco Rosi Gaetana Marrone, 2020 Francesco Rosi is one of the great realist artists of post war Italian indeed post war world cinema In this book author Gaetana Marrone

explores the rich visual language in which the Neapolitan filmmaker expresses the cultural icons that constitute his style and images Over the years Rosi has offered us films that trace an intricate path between the real and the fictive the factual and the imagined His films show an extraordinarily consistent formal balance while representing historical events as social emblems that examine shape and reflect the national self They rely on a labyrinthine narrative structure in which the sense of an enigma replaces the unidirectional path leading ineluctably to a designated end and solution Rosi's logical investigations are conducted by an omniscient eye and translated into a cinematic approach that embraces the details of material reality with the panoramic perspective of a dispassionate observer This book offers intertextual analyses within such fields as history politics literature and photography along with production information gleaned from Rosi's personal archives and interviews It examines Rosi's creative use of film as document and as spectacle It is also a study of the specific cinematic techniques that characterize Rosi's work and that visually compositionally express his vision of history and the elusive truth of past and present social and political realities

Italian Film in the Shadow of Auschwitz

Millicent Joy Marcus, 2007-01-01 Throughout the book Marcus brings a variety of perspectives to bear on the question of how Italian filmmakers are confronting the Holocaust and why now given the sparse output of Holocaust films produced in Italy from 1945 to the early 1990s

After Fellini

Millicent Joy Marcus, 2002-06-05 In this work Marcus interprets a body of work that managed to transcend the decline of Italian cinema's prominence within the industry during the last two decades of the 20th century

The Social Dynamics of Pronominal Systems

Paul Bouissac, 2019-07-15 Personal pronouns have a special status in languages As indexical tools they are the means by which languages and persons intimately interface with each other within a particular social structure Pronouns involve more than mere grammatical functions in live communication acts They variously signal the gender of speakers as parts of utterances or in their anaphoric roles They also prominently indicate with a range of degrees the kind of social relationships that hold between speakers from intimacy to indifference from dominance to submission and from solidarity to hostility Languages greatly vary in the number of pronouns and other address terms they offer to their users with a distinct range of social values Children learn their relative position in their family and in their society through the correct use of pronouns When languages come into contact because of population migrations or through the process of translation pronouns are the most sensitive zone of tension both psychologically and politically This volume endeavours to probe the comparative pragmatics of pronominal systems as social processes in a representative set from different language families and cultural areas Italian Literature since 1900 in English Translation 1929-2016 Robin Healey, 2019-03-07

Providing the most complete record possible of texts by Italian writers active after 1900 this annotated bibliography covers over 4 800 distinct editions of writings by some 1 700 Italian authors Many entries are accompanied by useful notes that provide information on the authors works translators and the reception of the translations This book includes the works of Pirandello Calvino Eco and more recently Andrea Camilleri and Valerio Manfredi Together with Robin Healey's Italian Literature before 1900 in English Translation also published by University of Toronto Press in 2011 this volume makes comprehensive information on translations from Italian accessible for schools libraries and those interested in comparative literature How the Essay Film Thinks Laura Rascaroli, 2017-05-05

Today the essay film has become a key cultural reference point This book shows how the essay film's disjunctive method comes to be realized at the level of medium montage genre temporality sound narration and framing It situates the essayistic urge within processes of filmic thinking that thrive in gaps Watching Pages, Reading Pictures Daniela De Pau, Georgina Torello, 2008-12-18 Italian cinema is internationally well known for the ground breaking experience of Neo Realism comedy Italian Style Spaghetti Westerns and the horror movies of the seventies However what is rather unfamiliar to wider audiences is Italian cinema's crucial and enduring affair with literature In fact since the very beginning literature has deeply influenced how Italian cinema has defined itself and grown This book provides an empirical approach to this complex and fruitful relationship The aim is to present discussions dealing with significant Italian film adaptations from literary materials which greatly exemplify the variety of styles view points and attitudes produced by such an alliance throughout the different periods Among the adaptations discussed are those that have followed trends and critical debates making them at times rather problematic Conflicts of Memory Emiliano Perra, 2010

This text reconstructs the often conflictual memories of the Holocaust in post war Italy through the analysis of press debates engendered by films and television miniseries The author discusses how Holocaust themes have been appropriated by different political and cultural factions The Idea of Europe in Literature Susanne Fendler, Ruth Wittlinger, 1999-09-11 The relevance of culture has recently enjoyed increasing recognition for the study of European integration and a European identity Appeals to a common European culture as well as appeals to different national cultures have been used respectively as a means to pursue political ends Paying tribute to literature's role as an important constituent part of a culture this collection of essays explores literary representations of Europe and its nation states and should be of particular value to anyone who is interested in cultural political or literary studies in the European context

Three Italian Epistolary Novels, 2005 Three Italian Epistolary Novels looks at the development of a literary genre that flourished in the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries and counted among its illustrious authors Samuel Richardson Henry Fielding Pierre Choderlos de Laclos Jean Jacques Rousseau and Johann Wolfgang von Goethe These translations of three Italian novels by Foscolo De Meis and Piovene never offered before in a single study reflect social historical and stylistic aspects through 150 years of Italian literature from the birth of a touching romantic story to the time of the new currents in Italy and the period of World War II The book is particularly suited for studies in Italian European and comparative literature programs

Inscribing the Other Sander L. Gilman, 1991-01-01 Inscripting the Other focuses on great authors who have by birth or choice or both found themselves outside the mainstream of their culture but who have still wished to address it Goethe Freud Wilde Heine Nietzsche and Isaac Bashevis Singer among others In thirteen probing provocative essays Sander L Gilman reinterprets their writing as it reveals their efforts to come to terms with their real or imagined sense of difference The chapters treat many themes and problems ranging widely from the romantic notion of the transcendent artist to the twentieth century artists in exile and employing the perspectives of psychiatry aesthetics photography politics and the history of mentalities The fate of Jewish writers in modern Germany or of Yiddish writers whose language is devalued in European culture is explored The theme of difference and its artistic and intellectual manifestations runs throughout the book which includes discussions of Goethe's and Wilde's homosexuality Nietzsche's madness Heine's refusal to be photographed and Primo Levi's internment at Auschwitz as well as an interview with Singer In a frank autobiographical introduction Gilman attempts to understand his own writing as an exercise in inscribing the Other in dealing with his own sense of difference through artistic creation

Socialism of Fools Michele Battini, 2016-04-05 In Socialism of Fools Michele Battini focuses on the critical moment during the Enlightenment in which anti Jewish stereotypes morphed into a sophisticated modern social anti-Semitism He recovers the potent anti Jewish anticapitalist propaganda that cemented the idea of a Jewish conspiracy in the European mind and connects it to the atrocities that characterized the Jewish experience in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries Beginning in the eighteenth century counter Enlightenment intellectuals and intransigent Catholic writers singled out Jews for conspiring to exploit self-sustaining markets and the liberal state These ideas spread among socialist and labor movements in the nineteenth century and intensified during the Long Depression of the 1870s Anti Jewish anticapitalism then migrated to the Habsburg Empire with the Christian Social Party to Germany with the Anti-Semitic Leagues to France with the nationalist movements and to Italy where Revolutionary Syndicalists made anti Jewish anticapitalism the basis of an alliance with the nationalists Exemplified best in the Protocols of the Elders of Zion the infamous document that leaked Jewish plans to conquer the world the Jewish conspiracy myth inverts reality and creates a perverse relationship to historical and judicial truth Isolating the intellectual roots of this phenomenon and its contemporary resonances Battini shows us why so many decades after the Holocaust Jewish people continue to be a powerful political target Recent Italian Cinema Tiziana Ferrero Regis,2009 In Recent Italian Cinema two fundamental questions are asked the first concerns whether Italian cinema as national cinema is in reality reduced to a niche market in its own territory The second relates to what Italian audiences do with domestic films For nearly two decades most Italian films have been produced outside box office returns through a practice of subsidy and co financing between many institutional and private entities Thus Italian cinema has had to define its mode of production and use value of films in a different way It is clear that it is no longer possible to separate national cinemas from the grip that the American film industry has on world markets in terms of imagination and modes of production distribution and exhibition It is thus only by examining the multiple layers of description and analysis which take into account the presence of Hollywood that we can come to an understanding of what recent Italian cinema actually is
