Islamic Biomedical Ethics Principles And Application:

Islamic Biomedical Ethics Abdulaziz Sachedina, 2009-04-06 Biomedical ethics is a burgeoning academic field with complex and far reaching consequences Whereas in Western secular bioethics this subject falls within larger ethical theories and applications utilitarianism deontology teleology and the like Islamic biomedical ethics has yet to find its natural academic home in Islamic studies In this pioneering work Abdulaziz Sachedina a scholar with life long academic training in Islamic law relates classic Muslim religious values to the new ethical challenges that arise from medical research and practice He depends on Muslim legal theory but then looks deeper than juridical practice to search for the underlying reasons that determine the rightness or wrongness of a particular action Drawing on the work of diverse Muslim theologians he outlines a form of moral reasoning that can derive and produce decisions that underscore the spirit of the Shari'a These decisions he argues still leave room to revisit earlier decisions and formulate new ones which in turn need not be understood as absolute or final After laying out this methodology he applies it to a series of ethical questions surrounding the human life cycle from birth to death including such issues as abortion euthanasia and organ donation The implications of Sachedina's work are broad His writing is unique in that it aims at conversing with Jewish and Christian ethics moving beyond the Islamic fatwa literature to search for a common language of moral justification and legitimization among the followers of the Abrahamic traditions He argues that Islamic theological ethics be organically connected with the legal tradition of Islam to enable it to sit in dialogue with secular and scripture based bioethics in other faith communities A breakthrough in Islamic bioethical studies this volume is welcome and long overdue reading for anyone interested in facing the difficult questions posed by modern medicine not only to the Muslim faithful but to the ethically minded at large

Islamic Biomedical Ethics
Abdulaziz Abdulhussein Sachedina, 2009 Islamic Perspectives On The Principles Of Biomedical Ethics Mohammed Ghaly, 2016-07-19 Islamic Perspectives on the Principles of Biomedical Ethics presents results from a pioneering seminar in 2013 between Muslim religious scholars biomedical scientists and Western bioethicists at the research Center for Islamic Legislation Ethics Qatar Faculty of Islamic Studies By examining principle based bioethics the contributors to this volume addressed a number of key issues related to the future of the field Discussion is based around the role of religion in bioethical reasoning specifically from an Islamic perspective Also considered is a presentation of the concept of universal principles for bioethics with a response looking at the possibility or not of involving religion Finally there is in depth analysis of how far specific disciplines within the Islamic tradition such as the higher objectives of Sharia maq'id al Shar'ah and legal maxims qaw'id fiqh yah can enrich principle based bioethics

Islamic Bioethics: Current Issues And Challenges Alireza Bagheri, Khalid Abdulla Al-ali, 2017-08-30 Islamic Bioethics presents a wide variety of perspectives and debates on how Islamic societies deal with the ethical dilemmas raised by biomedicine and new technologies The book is a constructive dialogue between contributors selected from a multidisciplinary group of Muslim and non Muslim scholars from different

Islamic countries The 11 chapters illuminate the diversity and complexity of the issues discussed in Islamic bioethics and pave the way to a better understanding of Islamic bioethics and dialogue in the global bioethics community The chapters take both theoretical and practical approaches to the topic and each covers an emerging issue in Islamic bioethics This book will be useful for academics and professional institutions in both Islamic and non Islamic countries and will be instrumental in providing researchers scholars students policymakers and medical professionals with access to the latest issues and debates related to Islamic bioethics Contributors include Tariq Ramadan Abdallah Daar Ali Albar Mohsin Ebrahim Baharouddin Azizan Alastair Campbel Bagher Larijani Carol Taylor Gamal Serour James Rusthoven Ilhan Ilkilic Ingrid Mattson Hassan Chamsi Pasha Jonathan Crane Hakan Ertin Mehunisha Suleman Islam and Biomedical Research Ethics Mehrunisha Suleman, 2020-07-07 This book is a contribution to the nascent discourse on global health and biomedical research ethics involving Muslim populations and Islamic contexts It presents a rich sociological account about the ways in which debates and questions involving Islam within the biomedical research context are negotiated a perspective which is currently lacking within the broader bioethics literature The book tackles some key understudied areas including role of faith in moral deliberations within biomedical research ethics the moral anxiety and frustration experienced by researchers when having to negotiate multiple moral sources and how the marginalisation of women the prejudice and abuse faced by groups such as sex workers and those from the LGBT community are encountered and negotiated in such contexts The volume provides a valuable resource for researchers and scholars in this area by providing a systematic review of ethical guidelines and a rich case based account of the ethical issues emerging in biomedical research in contexts where Islam and the religious moral commitments of Muslims are pertinent The book will be essential for those conducting research in low and middle income countries that have significant Muslim populations and for those in Muslim minority settings It will also appeal to researchers and scholars in religious studies social sciences philosophy anthropology and theology as well as the fields of biomedical ethics Islamic ethics and global health Preaching Islamic Renewal Jacqueline G. Brinton, 2015-10-27 Preaching Islamic Renewal examines the life and work of Muhammad Mitwalli Sha rawi one of Egypt's most beloved and successful Islamic preachers His wildly popular TV program aired every Friday for years until his death in 1998 At the height of his career it was estimated that up to 30 million people tuned in to his show each week Yet despite his pervasive and continued influence in Egypt and the wider Muslim world Sha rawi was for a long time neglected by academics While much of the academic literature that focuses on Islam in modern Egypt repeats the claim that traditionally trained Muslim scholars suffered the loss of religious authority Sha rawi is instead an example of a well trained Sunni scholar who became a national media sensation As an advisor to the rulers of Egypt as well as the first Arab television preacher he was one of the most important and controversial religious figures in late twentieth century Egypt Thanks to the repurposing of his videos on television and on the Internet Sha rawi's performances are still regularly viewed Jacqueline Brinton uses Sha rawi and his work as a lens to explore how traditional Muslim authorities have used various media to put forth a unique vision of how Islam can be renewed and revived in the contemporary world Through his weekly television appearances he popularized long held theological and ethical beliefs and became a scholar celebrity who impacted social and political life in Egypt Islam and Assisted Reproductive Technologies Marcia C. Inhorn, Soraya Tremayne, 2012-07-01 How and to what extent have Islamic legal scholars and Middle Eastern lawmakers as well as Middle Eastern Muslim physicians and patients grappled with the complex bioethical legal and social issues that are raised in the process of attempting to conceive life in the face of infertility This path breaking volume explores the influence of Islamic attitudes on Assisted Reproductive Technologies ARTs and reveals the variations in both the Islamic jurisprudence and the cultural responses to ARTs Global Bioethics: The Impact of the UNESCO International Bioethics Committee Alireza Bagheri, Jonathan D. Moreno, Stefano Semplici, 2015-10-22 The UNESCO International Bioethics Committee is an international body that sets standards in the field of bioethics This collection represents the contributions of the IBC to global bioethics The IBC is a body of 36 independent experts that follows progress in the life sciences and its applications in order to ensure respect for human dignity and freedom Currently some of the topics of the IBC contributions have been discussed in the bioethics literature mostly journal articles However this is a unique contribution by the scholars who developed these universal declarations and reports The contributors have not only provided a scholarly up to date discussion of their research topics but as members of the IBC they have also discussed specific practical challenges in the development of such international documents This book will be suited to academics within bioethics health care policy and international law Maqasid al-Shari'a and Contemporary Reformist Muslim Thought A. Duderija, 2014-09-04 It is the first study which comprehensively systematically and critically examines the role and usefulness of the concept of Maqasid al Shari a higher Objectives of Islamic Law in contemporary Muslim reformist thought in relation to number of specific issues pertaining to Islamic legal philosophy law ethics and the socio political sphere Shame, Modesty, and Honor in Islam Ayang Utriza Yakin, Adis Duderija, An Van Raemdonck, 2023-12-28 With a particular emphasis on definitions continuities and change this edited volume examines the historical role and function of haya or feelings of shame modesty and honor in Islamic theology and law and explores contemporary Muslims engagements with the concept The book explores various conceptions of haya and the practices associated with the concept in both Muslim majority and minority contexts The empirically rich contributions reveal how haya is socially constructed in varying social and cultural environments across the globe From medieval Islam to the modern day this book demonstrates the importance of haya and its temporal and spatial transformations End-of-Life Care, Dying and Death in the Islamic Moral Tradition, 2022-12-05 Modern biomedical technologies managed to revolutionise the End of Life Care EoLC in many aspects The dying process can now be engineered by managing the accompanying physical symptoms or by prolonging hastening death itself Such interventions questioned and problematised long established understandings of key moral concepts such as good life quality of life pain suffering good death appropriate death dying well etc This volume examines how multifaceted EoLC moral questions can be addressed from interdisciplinary perspectives within the Islamic tradition Contributors Amir Abbas Alizamani Beate Anam Hamed Arezaei Asma Asadi Pieter Coppens Hans Daiber Khalid Elzamzamy Mohammed Ghaly Hadil Lababidi Shahaboddin Mahdavi Aasim Padela Rafaqat Rashid and Ayman Shabana

Organ Donation in Islam Mahdiyah Jaffer, Aasim I. Padela, Gurch Randhawa, 2022-12-13 A 2023 Choice Reviews Outstanding Academic Title Organ Donation in Islam The Interplay of Jurisprudence Ethics and Society delves into the complexities and nuances of organ donation in Muslim communities A diverse group of authors including Muslim jurists academic researchers clinicians and policy stakeholders engage with the multi faceted topic Contributions from Sunni and Shia scholars are positioned alongside each other giving the reader an appreciation of the different Islamic traditions and legal methodologies and qualitative research examining the views and potential concerns of Muslim families towards donating organs of loved ones is juxtaposed with the work of academicians and community advocates engaging diverse Muslim communities to equip them with the knowledge and tools to make informed donation decisions Taken together the collection yields new ethical empirical and sociological insights into how issues of body ownership the definition of death and community engagement interface with the act of donation Accordingly this wide ranging volume represents a invaluable resource for religious leaders healthcare professionals social scientists policy makers researchers and others interested in the interplay between contemporary healthcare religious tradition health policy and the topic of organ donation

Patents on Life Thomas C. Berg, Roman Cholij, Simon Ravenscroft, 2020 A unique collection of legal religious ethical and political perspectives on debates surrounding biotechnology patents or patents on life

Shi'ism Revisited Liyakatali Takim, 2022 How should contemporary Muslims define the relationship between normative Islamic jurisprudence worked out by classical jurists over the course of centuries and the reality that confronts them in their everyday lives Is there a need for reformation in Islam If so where should it begin and how should it proceed So far these challenging questions have received little attention from Western scholars Shi'ism Revisited will address this gap

The Shari'a Ayn al-Jamali, 2018-03-30 2019 Choice Outstanding Academic title I B Tauris in association with the Institute of Ismaili Studies Why is the term shari'a the mention of which conjures up images of a politicised religion in many parts of the world understood in the ways that it is today For Muslims and non Muslims alike much is read into this term often with scant regard for its historical cultural or theological underpinnings The politics of identity has a profound effect on contemporary life both secular and religious and this includes our understandings of the shari'a Yet at the core of this concept for Muslims is the quest for a moral compass by which to navigate a path through life Qur'an 45:18 informed deeply by revelation and its interpretation by the Prophet Muhammad as well as his closest Companions Built on this foundation is an ongoing human endeavour to grasp and lend expression to that teaching elaborately in law but no less so in devotional ethical and customary practices in diverse Shi'i and Sunni Muslim communities including in the West Popular myths about the shari'a that it is divine law that it is contained in a single code recognised by all Muslims that it is about controlling behavior that it defines Islam are challenged in this volume by leading scholars with a view to illuminating how we arrived here and where we might be headed The claims of the modern state as the custodian of the shari'a are put into perspective alongside the vital role of a pluralist civil society From bioethics human development family law and finance to constitutional and human rights issues this fifth volume in the Muslim Heritage Series offers an accessible account of the ideals and realities of the shari'a As such it will appeal not only to specialists in the humanities and social sciences but also to the general reader with an interest in global affairs and informed citizenship

Religion and Ethics in the Neonatal Intensive Care Unit Ronald M. Green, George A. Little, 2019-09-04 Families religious beliefs often profoundly shape their approach to medical decisions including treatment of their sick or premature newborns But there are few studies of major religions teachings about the newborn This volume provides information to neonatal intensive care unit professionals parents of NICU patients and students of bioethics on religious teachings about the status treatment and ritual accompaniments of care of the newborn

Between Islamic and Secular Law Arezoo Sang Bastian, 2024-01-31 When describing the legal systems and laws of today's Muslim majority states in the Middle Eastern and North African region two categories of laws are identified one derived from Islamic and one from non Islamic law Following this notion the literature finds that novel legal areas do not have any connection to Islamic law since they were not regulated by classical Islamic law In contrast the topic of organ transplantation is inherently connected to Islamic law because Islam considers itself to encompass all aspects of life This research based on the analysis of organ transplantation laws of the MENA states encourages to rethink that a strict dichotomy between Islamic and non Islamic laws does not exist Organ transplantation laws in MENA states generally follow an international legal standard while also complying with the sharia

Medicine and Shariah Aasim I. Padela, 2021-06-15 Medicine and Shariah brings together experts from various fields including clinicians Islamic studies experts and Muslim theologians to analyze the interaction of the doctors and jurists who are forging the field of Islamic bioethics Although much ink has been spilled in generating Islamic responses to bioethical questions and in analyzing fatwas Islamic bioethics still remains an emerging field How are Islamic bioethical norms to be generated Are Islamic bioethical writings to be considered as part of the broader academic discourse in bioethics What even is the scope of Islamic bioethics Taking up these and related questions the essays in Medicine and Shariah provide the groundwork for a more robust field The volume begins by furnishing concepts and terms needed to map out the discourse It concludes by offering a multidisciplinary model for ethical deliberation that accounts for the various disciplines needed to derive Islamic moral norms and to understand biomedical contexts In between these bookends contributors apply various analytic empirical and normative lenses to examine the interaction between biomedical knowledge represented by physicians and Islamic law represented by jurists in Islamic bioethical deliberation By providing a multidisciplinary model for generating Islamic bioethics rulings Medicine and Shariah provides the critical foundations for an Islamic bioethics that better attends to specific biomedical contexts and also accurately reflects the moral vision of Islam The volume will be essential reading for bioethicists and scholars of Islam for those interested in the dialectics of tradition modernity science and religion and more broadly for scholarly and professional communities that work at the intersection of the Islamic tradition and contemporary healthcare Contributors Ebrahim Moosa Aasim I Padela Vardit Rispler Chaim Abul Fadl Mohsin Ebrahim Muhammed Volkan Yildiran Stodolsky Mohammed Amin Kholwadia Hooman Keshavarzi and Bilal Ali Artificial Intelligence and Islam

,2024-09-06 In an era where artificial intelligence AI shapes industries and societies the relationship between technology and religious thought is more crucial than ever Artificial Intelligence and Islam Analysing Synergy between Heritage Digital Age offers a groundbreaking exploration of how Religious Heritage and AI can not only coexist but also complement each other With AI rapidly advancing ethical concerns about its development and impact arise How can we ensure that technology upholds human dignity purpose and justice For Muslims these questions intertwine with centuries of scholarship ethics and spirituality This book delves into how Islamic principles can guide the ethical application of AI providing insights into how technology serves and can serve humanity in ways that align with Ethical values Through a thoughtful analysis of historical precedents philosophical debates and modern challenges this book uncovers a roadmap for integrating AI into the digital age with wisdom and care Perfect for academics technologists religious scholars and curious readers alike Artificial Intelligence and Islam invites you to engage in a meaningful dialogue about how tradition and innovation can create a more just and compassionate future Whether you are intrigued by the ethics of AI or interested in the intersection of faith and technology this book will inspire thoughtful reflection on how we can shape a digital future that is guided by heritage and human values
