La Imperfecta Casada:

García Lorca y la tragedia española Ricardo Doménech, 2008 Leopoldo Alas "Clarín" Antonio Vilanova, Adolfo Sotelo Vázquez, 2002 La imperfecta casada Leopoldo "Clarín" Alas, 1995 Clarín y La regenta en su tiempo Jean-François Botrel, 1987 Leopoldo Alas (Clarín) Noël Maureen Valis, 2002

Novelist critic Leopoldo Alas's reputation suffered neglect and silent reproval during much of the twentieth century especially under the Franco regime but his reputation has now achieved classic status in Spain. Clearly related to this is the great increase in the number of translations. Julian Barnes called La Regenta the foreign classic tardily discovered. This bibliography picks up where the first one left off in 1984. It is divided into primary material and secondary material. Primary material includes Anthologies and Selections, Criticism, Novels, Short Story Collections, Plays, Correspondence, Prologues, Reprints, Translations, and Miscellaneous, with two new categories: autograph manuscripts and iconography.

The Emerging Female Citizen Theresa Ann Smith, 2006-05-15

Eighteenth century Spanish women were not idle bystanders during one of Europe's most dynamic eras. As Theresa Ann Smith skillfully demonstrates in this lively and absorbing book, Spanish intellectuals calling for Spain to modernize its political, social, and economic institutions brought the question of women's place to the forefront, as did women themselves. In explaining how both discourse and women's actions worked together to define women's roles in the nation, The Emerging Female Citizen not only illustrates the rising visibility of women but also reveals the complex processes that led to women's relatively swift exit from most public institutions in the early 1800s. As artists, writers, and reformers, Spanish women took up pens, joined academies, and economic societies, formed tertulias similar to French salons, and became active in the burgeoning public discourse of Enlightenment. In analyzing the meaning of women's presence in diverse centers of Enlightenment, Smith offers a new interpretation of the dynamics among political discourse, social action, and gender ideologies.

Subversive Seduction Travis Landry, 2013-01-10

Male-male rivalry and female passive choice, the two principal tenets of Darwinian sexual selection, raise important ethical questions in The Descent of Man and in the decades since about the subjugation of women. If female choice is a key component of evolutionary success, what impact does the constraint of women's choices have on society? The elaborate courtship plots of 19th century Spanish novels, with their fixation on suitors and selectors, rivalry, and seduction, were attempts to grapple with the question of female agency in a patriarchal society. By reading Darwin through the lens of the Spanish realist novel and vice versa, Travis Landry brings new insights to our understanding of both while Darwin's theories have often been seen as biologically deterministic, Landry asserts that Darwin's theory of sexual selection was characterized by an open-ended dynamic whose oxymoronic emphasis on passive female choice carries the potential for revolutionary change in the status of women.

Four Key Plays Federico García Lorca, 2019-06-03

In addition to a substantial introduction to the life and works of Federico García Lorca, avant-garde poet, playwright, and soul of Spain's Generation of '27, this collection features vibrant new English translations of four of his plays. The legacy of a dramatic religious and social iconoclast whose death made him a martyr of the left in Civil War Spain and who today is embraced as a gay icon shines through in Michael Kidd's stage worthy renderings of Yerma Blood Wedding The House of Bernarda Alba and a more experimental play The Audience a kaleidoscopic exploration of sexual identity and theater La imperfecta casada W. Romance and Exemplarity in Post-war Spanish Women's Narratives Nino Kebabdz, 2009 A reading of women's post war literary representations in terms of exemplarity The effects of General Francisco Franco's authoritarian rule 1939-1975 on the production and reception of cultural texts can be gauged by the silence that now surrounds them This is especially true of works which enjoyed considerable popularity when first published Most of the novels in question belong to the sentimental genre known as novela rosa whose authors mostly women and heroines Academe has consistently treated as literary pariahs This volume represents the first serious effort to question the categories used to assess the value and meaning of texts previously presumed to be devoid of both It does so by bringing to the fore the operative premise of Francoist cultural politics wherein fictional works have the power to mould individual character and conduct Narratives by Luisa Mar a Linares Concha Linares Becerra Carmen de Icaza and Mar a Mercedes Ortoll are thus examined in terms of the effects that they were expected to have on their readers and the constraints that such expectations placed on the works production and reception The result is a paradox while the study of women s bestselling novels is by definition a study of the constraints that shape them careful reading reveals the limitations of those selfsame constraints NINO KEBADZE is an Assistant Professor in the Hispanic Studies Department of the University of Massachusetts Boston
