Tunisian cinema is often described as the most daring of all Arab cinemas For many Tunisia appeared to be a model of equipoise between East and West and yet during Zine El Abidine Ben Ali s presidency from 1987 to 2011 the country became the most repressive state in the Maghreb Against considerable odds a generation of filmmakers emerged in the mid 1980s to make films that are allegories of resistance to the increasingly illiberal trends that were marking their society In New Tunisian Cinema Robert Lang focuses on eight films by some of the nation s best known directors including Man of Ashes 1986 Bezness 1992 and Making Of 2006 by Nouri Bouzid Halfaouine 1990 by F rid Boughedir The Silences of the Palace 1994 by Moufida Tlatli Essa da 1997 by Mohamed Zran Bedwin Hacker 2002 by Nadia El Fani and The TV Is Coming 2006 by Moncef Dhouib He explores the political economy and social historical and psychoanalytic dimensions of these works and the strategies filmmakers deployed to preserve cinema s ability to shape debates about national identity These debates Lang argues not only helped initiate the 2011 uprising that ousted Ben Ali s regime but also did much to inform and articulate the aspirations of the Tunisian people in the new millennium

The Emotions of Protest James M. Jasper, 2018-05-24 In Donald Trump s America protesting has roared back into fashion The Women s March held the day after Trump s inauguration may have been the largest in American history and resonated around the world Between Trump s tweets and the march s popularity it is clear that displays of anger dominate American politics once again There is an extensive body of research on protest but the focus has mostly been on the calculating brain a byproduct of structuralism and cognitive studies and less on the feeling brain James M Jasper s work changes that as he pushes the boundaries of our present understanding of the social world In The Emotions of Protest Jasper lays out his argument showing that it is impossible to separate cognition and emotion At a minimum he says we cannot understand the Tea Party or Occupy Wall Street or pro and anti Trump rallies without first studying the fears and anger moral outrage and patterns of hate and love that their members feel This is a book centered on protest but Jasper also points toward broader paths of inquiry that have the power to transform the way social scientists picture social life and action Through emotions he says we are embedded in a variety of environmental bodily social moral and temporal contexts as we feel our way both consciously and unconsciously toward some things and away from others Politics and collective action have always been a kind of laboratory for working out models of human action more generally and emotions are no exception Both hearts and minds rely on the same feelings racing through our central nervous systems Protestors have emotions like everyone else but theirs are thinking hearts not bleeding hearts Brains can feel and hearts can think

Bad Books Amy S. Wyngaard, 2013 Bad Books reconstructs how the eighteenth century French author Nicolas Edme R tif de la Bretonne and his writings were at the forefront of the development of modern conceptions of sexuality and pornography Although certain details are well known for example that R tif s 1769 treatise on prostitution Le Pornographe is the work from which the term pornography is derived or that he was an avid foot and shoe fetishist much of this story has been obscured and even forgotten including how the author actively worked to define the category of obscenity and the modern pornographic genre and how he coined the psycho sexual term fetish and played a central role in the formation of theories of sexual fetishism in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries Thus this book is also about literary history and how it is written it explores how R tiff perceived as a bad author in both senses of the term and his contributions were glossed over or condemned such that the originality of his texts has still not been fully established Placing R tiff s novels and short stories in dialogue with his autobiographical writings as well as with contemporary and modern critical commentaries the various chapters of the book examine the author s repeated testing of the limits of censorship to define and redefine the boundaries of obscenity his advancement of the modern form and definition of pornography through a focus on intimacy and female pleasure his detailed narrative explorations of foot and shoe fetichisms that were later appropriated by the sexologists and his development of theories of eugenics and reproduction in his utopian science fiction The history of R tiff s texts and their reception reveals an evolution in the criteria of what is considered to be good or worthy literature a category once defined purely on moral grounds that is increasingly seen in cultural terms Bad Books corroborates the recent resurgence of interest in the author by showing the import of his texts which not only designate a number of firsts in the histories of sexuality and pornography but which also illuminate some of the defining moments in the history of French literary studies Owning It Leah Marie Brown,2017-05-02 The chance of a lifetime or just another bad decision Delaney Lavender Brooks needs to grow up At least according to her parents After getting evicted from her apartment and wrecking her car Laney is almost ready to trade in her paintbrushes and surrender to a more sensible 9 to 5 existence Almost Until she s awarded an internship at a prestigious art gallery in Paris What else can the free spirited artist do but follow her dreams Even if her latest attempt at chasing rainbows might cost her a real future Once in the city of lights Laney is almost undone by the glaring truth maybe she isn t sophisticated or talented enough to make it as an artist or an independent woman for that matter And when she s hotly pursued by a seductive Frenchman she has to wonder if she s about to be a fool for love too Soon Laney s greatest challenge is not proving herself to her parents but having the courage to live the life and love of her dreams Leah Marie Brown has a wily way of bringing her stories to life with sharp dialogue and drop dead sexy characters Cindy Miles National Bestselling Author When it comes to crafting clever intelligent wonderful escapist fiction with a heroine every woman wants to know Leah Marie Brown is a new voice to watch Prepare to fall in love Renee Ryan Daphne du Maurier Award Winning Author
