Postcolonial Representations of Women Rachel Bailey Jones, 2011-06-11 In this accessible combination of post colonial theory feminism and pedagogy the author advocates using subversive and contemporary artistic representations of women to remodel traditional stereotypes in education It is in this key sector that values and norms are molded and prejudice kept at bay yet the legacy of colonialism continues to pervade official education received in classrooms as well as unofficial education ingested via popular culture and the media The result is a variety of distorted images of women and gender in which women appear as two dimensional stereotypes The text analyzes both current and historical colonial representations of women in a pedagogical context In doing so it seeks to recast our conception of what difference is challenging historical patriarchal gender relations with their stereotypical representations that continue to marginalize minority populations in the first world and billions of women elsewhere These distorted images the book argues can be subverted using the semiology provided by postcolonialism and transnational feminism and the work of contemporary artists who rethink and recontextualize the visual codes of colonialism These resistive images created by women who challenge and subvert patriarchal modes of representation can be used to create educational environments that provide an alternative view of women of non western origin

Legal Geography Matteo Nicolini, 2022-12-05 This book invites readers to critically rethink the interrelations between geography and the law Traditionally legal geographical interrelations have been dominated by scholars with backgrounds in geopolitics economics or geography More recently a new interdisciplinary approach has been developed with the aim of offering a fresh perspective on how law and geography intersect There has been a steady growth in cross disciplinary research in this field how legal geographical taxonomies interrelate has attracted attention from scholars and academics with a diverse range of backgrounds namely law anthropology and human physical geography thus giving rise to several publications Against this backdrop the book adopts a legal comparative perspective and assesses normative spatialities which are the outcomes of processes of legal spatial production In addition the comparative analysis offers readers new insights on some traditional geographic features which are essential to legal studies territorial identity regional demarcation territorial alternation and place name policy Examples are drawn from several jurisdictions both from the Global North and the Global South and partly employ a diachronic perspective As its subversive character is ideally suited to revealing policies and agendas comparative law is used to identify the ethnocentric and colonial biases underpinning the use and misuse of legal geographic devices by policymakers and academics In sum the book presents legal geography as an interdisciplinary undertaking in which geographers and legal scholars can jointly examine common concepts in the historical cultural political and social contexts in which law is practised The book transcends the boundaries between disciplines to engage in a fruitful dialogue on how the law can help to address the current socio geographic and ecological crises

Traditions and Encounters Lynda Schaefer Bell, Bentley, 1999-12

Vertical Margins Reuben J. Ellis, 2001 History meets high altitude adventure This engaging analysis of twentieth century imperialism takes early mountaineering beyond the realm of recreation Vertical Margins sets Halford Mackinder s 1899 climb of Mt Kenya Annie Smith Peck s 1908 ascent of Huascaran in Bolivia and John Baptiste Noel s filming of the 1924 British attempt on Mt Everest in the larger historical context of American and British foreign policy and neo imperialism Reuben Ellis shows that mountain exploration reached far beyond the motivations of adrenaline driven adventurers to an aggressive ideology of power and expansion that fed the New Imperialism the end of the era of European empire building and the beginnings of American dominance in world affairs With so many mountains at the margins of European and American territorial and economic domains mountaineering often overlapped with the motivations of empire the earth s mountains came to be regarded as frontiers open to the full range of political economic and personal concerns that drove geographical exploration

Visual Voyages Daniela

Bleichmar,2017-01-01 An unprecedented visual exploration of the intertwined histories of art and science of the old world and the new From the voyages of Christopher Columbus to those of Alexander von Humboldt and Charles Darwin the depiction of the natural world played a central role in shaping how people on both sides of the Atlantic understood and imaged the region we now know as Latin America Nature provided incentives for exploration commodities for trade specimens for scientific investigation and manifestations of divine forces It also yielded a rich trove of representations created both by natives to the region and visitors which are the subject of this lushly illustrated book Author Daniela Bleichmar shows that these images were not only works of art but also instruments for the production of knowledge with scientific social and political repercussions Early depictions of Latin American nature introduced European audiences to native medicines and religious practices By the 17th century revelatory accounts of tobacco chocolate and cochineal reshaped science trade and empire around the globe In the 18th and 19th centuries collections and scientific expeditions produced both patriotic and imperial visions of Latin America Through an interdisciplinary examination of more than 150 maps illustrated manuscripts still lifes and landscape paintings spanning four hundred years Visual Voyages establishes Latin America as a critical site for scientific and artistic exploration affirming that region s transformation and the transformation of Europe as vitally connected histories
