Ivy and Bean What's the Big Idea? Annie Barrows, Sophie Blackall, 2010-07-01 In this seventh entry in the New York Times bestselling series two unlikely best friends get creative as they prepare for the Science Fair It's the Science Fair and the second grade is all over it Some kids are making man eating robots Some kids are holding their breath for a very very long time Some kids are doing interesting things with vacuum cleaners The theme obviously is global warming But what should Ivy and Bean do Something involving explosions Or ropes Something with ice cubes Or maybe maybe something different Praise for What's the Big Idea This seventh episode about unlikely best friends Ivy and Bean may be the most ambitious and triumphant yet Barrows and Blackall know just how to expose situations that are familiar to second graders with empathy and a light touch Shelf Awareness Ivy and Bean Bundle Set 3 (Books 7-9) Annie Barrows, 2013-09-24 New York Times best selling series of books for children Ivy Bean Ivy and Bean two friends who never meant to like each other This boxed set Ivy and Bean Boxed Set Books 7-9 continues the story of these two spunky characters It includes the third of three books in the Ivy and Bean series Author Annie Barrows talks about her award winning Ivy Bean series One of the big problems of being a kid is that your parents often try to make you play with people you don't really like My parents were forever trying to get me to like the kids of their friends These kids were often weird I didn't want to play with them It was a problem Ivy and Bean are very different Bean is loud and wild and goofy She loves to be involved in games and poke her nose in other people's business Ivy is quiet and full of ideas She spends most of her time learning how to be a witch Each girl thinks the other one is weird Each girl thinks she could never be friends with the other Especially because their parents keep nagging them about it But sometimes opposites can become the best of friends because they're opposites Ivy and Bean Boxed Set Books 7-9 includes Book 7 Ivy Bean What's the Big Idea Wouldn't it be cool if Ivy and Bean found the solution to global warming Wouldn't it be especially cool if the solution was shimmering pink goo in a test tube and all the famous scientists in the world wished they had thought of it first It's Science Fair time at Emerson School and all the kids are supposed to find a way to cool down the earth Some kids are planting trees Some kids are holding their breath for a very very long time Some kids are doing interesting things with vacuum cleaners But what should Ivy and Bean do Something with explosions Something with ropes Something with ice cubes Or maybe something very very quiet Book 8 Ivy Bean No News Is Good News Ivy and Bean need some money Ten dollars to be exact Never mind what for Don't even ask Okay it's for cheese Two bags of lowfat Belldeloon cheese in a special just for you serving size Don't ask why But ten dollars is a lot of money How are Bean and Ivy going to make ten dollars Should they babysit Eww diapers No Should they wash the car They're not allowed to touch the car No Should they write a newspaper about their neighbors and sell it Yes Great idea and easy too All Ivy and Bean have to do is snoop around Pancake Court and gets some news It's very interesting what you can find out if you look in your neighbors windows It's even more interesting when the neighbors read about it in the newspaper Book 9 Ivy Bean Make the Rules It's Spring Break and Bean's older sister Nancy is going to Girl Power 4 Ever Camp where she will do Crafts and Dance and First Aid and other secret things that Bean will never know about because you have to be eleven to go to Girl Power 4 Ever Camp Bean doesn't care She doesn't want to go to camp She wouldn't go even if they begged her So ha So ha ha So wait a second Bean and Ivy can make their own camp their own better camp It's Camp Flaming Arrow where Crafts include escaping Dance includes thumbtacks First Aid includes zombies and counselors Ivy and Bean make the rules If you and your child liked Junie B Jones Magic Tree House books and Princess in Black you'll love Ivy Bean

The Early Reader in Children's Literature and Culture Jennifer Miskec, Annette Wannamaker, 2015-12-22 This is the first volume to consider the popular literary category of Early Readers books written and designed for children who are just beginning to read independently It argues that Early Readers deserve more scholarly attention and careful thought because they are for many younger readers their first opportunity to engage with a work of literature on their own to feel a sense of mastery over a text and to experience pleasure from the act of reading independently Using interdisciplinary approaches that draw upon and synthesize research being done in education child psychology sociology cultural studies and children's literature the volume visits Early Readers from a variety of angles as teaching tools as cultural artifacts that shape cultural and individual subjectivity as mass produced products sold to a niche market of parents educators and young children and as aesthetic objects works of literature and art with specific conventions Examining the reasons such books are so popular with young readers as well as the reasons that some adults challenge and censor them the volume considers the ways Early Readers contribute to the construction of younger children as readers thinkers consumers and as gendered raced classed subjects It also addresses children's texts that have been translated and sold around the globe examining them as part of an increasingly transnational children's media culture that may add to or supplant regional ethnic and national children's literatures and cultures While this collection focuses mostly on books written in English and often aimed at children living in the US it is important to acknowledge that these Early Readers are a major US cultural export influencing the reading habits and development of children across the globe

Ivy and Bean What's the Big Idea? Annie Barrows, 2011-09-07 It's the Science Fair and the second grade is all over it Some kids are making man eating robots Some kids are holding their breath for a very very long time Some kids are doing interesting things with vacuum cleaners The theme obviously is global warming But what should Ivy and Bean do Something involving explosions Or ropes Something with ice cubes Or maybe maybe something different
