Modern Indian Literature as Cosmopolis Didier Coste, 2024-10-09 This book redefines modern Indian literature from a cosmopolitan comparative perspective inclusive of literature in English from India and the diaspora in native languages and works by non Indians It shows how since the mid 19th century Indian literary modernity pursued the conjunction of the sensuous and ethical spiritual that characterized its three traditions Sanskrit Persian and folk culture while the encounter both receptive and oppositional with the West vastly expanded the Indian literary sphere Aesthetics and ethics are not antithetical in the Indian cultural space but the quest for an exclusive Indian identity versus universalist approaches offsets concerns for social justice as well as enjoyable embodied communication The literary constellation in many languages now formed in and around India can be better apprehended as a virtual Cosmopolis a commonwealth of elaborate emotions The versatile figure of Hanuman metaphorically flies across this Ocean of Stories to make us discover new worlds of experience

All the Lives We Never Lived Anuradha Roy, 2019-10-15 From the Man Booker Prize nominated author of Sleeping on Jupiter and one of India's greatest living authors O The Oprah Magazine a poignant and sweeping novel set in India during World War II and the present day about a son's quest to uncover the truth about his mother. In my childhood I was known as the boy whose mother had run off with an Englishman. The man was in fact German but in small town India in those days all white foreigners were largely thought of as British. So begins the gracefully wrought Kirkus Reviews story of Myshkin and his mother Gayatri who rebels against tradition to follow her artist's instinct for freedom. Freedom of a different kind is in the air across India. The fight against British rule is reaching a critical turn. The Nazis have come to power in Germany. At this point of crisis two strangers arrive in Gayatri's town opening up to her the vision of other possible lives. What took Myshkin's mother from India and Dutch held Bali in the 1930s ripping a knife through his comfortingly familiar universe. Excavating the roots of the world in which he was abandoned Myshkin comes to understand the connections between the anguish at home and a war torn universe overtaken by patriotism. Evocative and moving this mesmerizing exploration of the darker consequences of freedom, love and loyalty is an astonishing display of Roy's literary prowess. Publishers Weekly

Intellectuals and Fascism in Interwar Romania Cristina A. Bejan, 2019-08-23 In 1930s Bucharest some of the country's most brilliant young intellectuals converged to form the Criterion Association. Bound by friendship and the dream of a new modern Romania their members included historian Mircea Eliade, critic Petru Comarnescu, Jewish playwright Mihail Sebastian and a host of other philosophers and artists. Together they built a vibrant cultural scene that flourished for a few short years before fascism and scandal splintered their ranks. Cristina A. Bejan asks how the far right Iron Guard came to eclipse the appeal of liberalism for so many of Romania's intellectual elite drawing on diaries, memoirs and other writings to examine the collision of culture and extremism in the interwar years. The first English language study of Criterion and the most thorough to date in any language this book grapples with the complexities of Romanian intellectual life in the moments before collapse

Fathers in the Motherland Swapna M. Banerjee, 2022-08-03 This monograph breaks new ground by weaving stories of fathers and children into the history of gender, family and nation in colonial India. Focusing on the reformist Bengali Hindu and Brahmo communities the author contends that fatherhood assumed new meaning and significance in late nineteenth and early twentieth century India. During this time of social and political change fathers extended their roles beyond breadwinning to take an active part in rearing their children. Utilizing pedagogic literature, articles in scientific journals, autobiographies, correspondence and published essays Fathers in a Motherland documents the different ways the authority and power of the father was invoked and constituted both metaphorically and in everyday experiences Exploring specific moments when educated men as biological fathers literary activists and educators assumed guardianship and became crucial agents of change Banerjee interrogates the connections between fatherhood and masculinity The last chapter of the book moves beyond Bengal and draws on the lives of Mohandas K Gandhi and Jawaharlal Nehru to provide a broader salience to its argument Reclaiming two missing links in Indian history fathers and children the book argues that biological and imaginary fathers assumed the moral guardianship of an incipient nation and rested their hopes and dreams on the future generation Fiction and Drama in Eastern and Southeastern Europe Henrik Birnbaum, Thomas Eekman, 1980 The Woman Who Flew Nasreen Jahan, 2012-06-14 Winner of the Philips Literary Award in Bangladesh The Woman Who Flew Urukkoo tells the story of Nina a young woman who moves from small town Bangladesh to the megacity of Dhaka where she soon finds herself divorced bereaved of her newborn and trapped in a mundane existence Hungry for fresh air Nina strikes up a friendship with her mother's handsome ex lover Irfan who encourages her to paint again But as Nina tugs at her chains her sexually confused ex husband Rezaul insinuates himself back into her life leaving her pregnant Intense edgy and tinged with rage The Woman Who Flew lays bare the inner world of a woman beating her wings against a hostile conservative landscape International Eliade, The, Bengal and Italy Paromita Chakravarti, Mario Prayer, 2023-07-07 The ten chapters collected in this book manifest the current global interest in trans border dialogues and trace the origins and development of Italian and Bengali internationalisms in the period from the mid 19th to the early 20th century Despite having differing political statuses and lacking a shared geographical or historical space Bengal and Italy remained uniquely connected and at times actively sought to transcend different kinds of constraints in their search for a significant dialogue and mutual enrichment in the fields of literature music architecture art cinema diplomacy entrepreneurship travels education and intellectual engagement In this context the volume confronts strategies of evaluation adopted by prominent representatives of the Bengali and Italian cultural environments with particular emphasis on readings embedded in the moment of contact Both regions benefitted from this elective affinity as they advanced along their respective paths towards a fuller awareness of their specific identity and thus set a positive example of transcultural understanding which may inspire today's world
