Childhood in Contemporary Diasporic African Literature Christopher E. W.

Ouma,2020-02-27 This book examines the representation of figures memories and images of childhood in selected contemporary diasporic African fiction by Adichie Abani Wainaina and Oyeyemi The book argues that childhood is a key framework for thinking about contemporary African and African Diasporic identities It argues that through the privileging of childhood memory alternative conceptions of time emerge in this literature and which allow African writers to re imagine what family ethnicity nation means within the new spaces of diaspora that a majority of them occupy The book therefore looks at the connections between childhood space time and memory childhood gender and sexuality childhoods in contexts of war as well as migrant childhoods These dimensions of childhood particularly relate to the return of the memory of Biafra the figures of child soldiers memories of growing up in Cold War Africa queer boyhoods sonhood as well as experiences of migration within Africa North America and Europe Corruption Plots Malini Ranganathan,David L.
