Unfortunately however our popular expositors do not always serve us very well The two who are most widely read in this country are Sir Arthur Eddington and Sir James Jeans They are not always reliable guides Their influence has been considerable upon the reading public upon theologians and upon preachers they have even misled philosopher who should have known better Accordingly it has seemed to me to be worth while to examine in some detail the philosophical views that they have put forth and to criticize the grounds upon which these views are based The Software Encyclopedia ,1988
