Simul Mark Patrick Odland, 2007-08 While serving at a church in 2005 I began to dream about publishing an anthology of poetry written by Lutherans After personally contacting 28 Lutheran colleges 8 Lutheran seminaries and almost 8 000 Lutheran congregations the poetry submissions poured in by the hundreds making my dream a reality When the final deadline had passed I had received over 1 200 poems written by pastors professors and dozens of everyday Lutherans from all walks of life Selected authors range from newly discovered talent to well known Lutheran poets and hymn writers To hear their stories and read their poetry was a great gift to me and I will be forever grateful for the experience It is my hope and prayer that these poems might find a special place in your heart and that they might be a blessing to you and your family now and for years to come Mark Odland editor Mark Patrick Odland is a published poet and visual artist from Alexandria MN A graduate of Augustana College and Luther Seminary Mark currently serves as pastor of outreach and new ministry development at Living Waters Lutheran Church in Sauk Rapids MN He is happily married to Rachel and they are expecting their first child a little girl in September of 2007 Mark feels a strong calling to encourage inspire and nourish the arts within the larger church and believes that the creation of SIMUL Lutheran Voices in Poetry is simply one of many ways to help make this a reality

Wreading Jed Rasula, 2022-03-29 Jed Rasula is a preeminent scholar of avant garde poetics noted for his erudition intellectual range and critical independence He is also a gifted writer his recent books have won praise for their entertaining clear prose in addition to their scholarship He is also an alumnus of UAP's distinguished Modern and Contemporary Poetics series which published his Syncopations fifteen years ago Rasula returns to the MCP series with Wreading A collection of essays interviews and occasional writings that reflects the breadth and diversity of his curiosity One of the referees likened Wreading to a victory lap but one that sets its own further record in the taking This is a collection of highlights from Rasula's shorter critical pieces but also a carefully assembled and revised intellectual autobiography Wreading consists of two parts an assortment of Rasula's solo criticism and selected interviews and conversations with other critics and scholars Evelyn Reilly Leonard Schwartz Tony Tost Mike Chasar Joel Bettridge and Ming Qian Ma The collection opens with a trio of essays that complicate the idea of a poet By interrogating the selection of poets for anthologies in the 20th century Rasula identifies a host of forgotten poets once prominent but now forgotten Another essay on the state of the poetry anthology reveals how much influence literary gatekeepers have and what a reimagination of the anthology form could make possible In subsequent chapters Rasula finds surprising overlap between Dada and Ralph Waldo Emerson charts the deep links between image and poetic inspiration and reckons with Ron Silliman's The Alphabet a UAP classic In the book's second half Rasula engages in detailed conversations with a roster of fellow critics Their exchanges confront ecopoetics the corporate university the sheer volume of contemporary poetry and more This substantial set of dialogues gives readers a glimpse inside a master critic s deeply informed critical practice and lists his intellectual touchstones The balance between essay and interview achieves a distillation of Rasula s long established idea of wreading In his original use the term denotes how any act of criticism inherently adds to the body of writing that it purports to read how Rasula couldn t help but participate in his favorite poems In this latest form Wreading captures a critical perception that sparks insight and imagination no matter what it sees

The Autumn Balloon Kenny Porpora, 2024-09-24 Porpora's coming of age memoir is a brilliant debut from a fine writer with an intriguing way of viewing the world four stars out of four USA Today Every autumn Kenny Porpora would watch his heartbroken mother scribble messages on balloons and release them into the sky above Long Island one for each family member they'd lost to addiction As the number of balloons grew his mother fell deeper into alcoholism drinking away her sorrows every night in front of the television where her love of Regis Philbin provided a respite from the sadness around her When their house was foreclosed upon Kenny's mother absconded with him and his beloved dog and fled for the Arizona desert joining her heroin addicted brother on a quixotic search for a better life What followed was an outlaw adolescence spent in constant upheaval surrounded by bizarre characters and drug addicted souls In the wake of unspeakable loss Kenny convinced a college to take a chance on him and turned to the mentors writers and poets he found to rebuild the family he lost and eventually graduated from the Ivy League with a new life Porpora's memoir is the story of a deeply dysfunctional but loving family and follows his life from the chaos of his youth to his triumphs in the Ivy League At times darkly comic at times elegiac The Autumn Balloon is a beautifully written testament to the irreplaceable bonds of family even under the most trying circumstances and one that marks the debut of an exciting new
