Spaces of Danger Heather Merrill, Lisa M. Hoffman, 2015-12-01 These twelve original essays by geographers and anthropologists offer a deep critical understanding of Allan Pred's pathbreaking and eclectic cultural Marxist approach with a focus on his concept of situated ignorance the production and reproduction of power and inequality by regimes of truth through strategically deployed misinformation diversions and silences As the essays expose the cultural and material circumstances in which situated ignorance persists they also add a previously underexplored spatial dimension to Walter Benjamin's idea of moments of danger The volume invokes the aftermath of the July 2011 attacks by far right activist Anders Breivik in Norway who ambushed a Labor Party youth gathering and bombed a government building killing and injuring many Breivik had publicly and forthrightly declared war against an array of liberal attitudes he saw threatening Western civilization However as politicians and journalists interpreted these events for mass consumption a narrative quickly emerged that painted Breivik as a lone madman and steered the discourse away from analysis of the resurgent right wing racisms and nationalisms in which he was immersed The Breivik case is merely one of the most visible recent examples say editors Heather Merrill and Lisa Hoffman of the unchallenged production of knowledge in the public sphere In essays that range widely in topic and setting for example brownfield development in China a Holocaust memorial in Germany an art gallery exhibit in South Africa this volume peels back layers of situated practices and their associated meaning and power relations Spaces of Danger offers analytical and conceptual tools of a Predian approach to interrogate the taken for granted and make visible and legible that which is silenced How Britain Really Works Stig Abell, 2018-05-03 Absorbing an intelligent and clear eyed account of much that goes on in our country Sunday Times Getting to grips with Great Britain is harder than ever We are a nation that chose Brexit rejects immigration but is dependent on it is getting older but less healthy is more demanding of public services but less willing to pay for them is tired of intervention abroad but wants to remain a global authority We have an over stretched free health service an idea from the 1940s that may not survive the 2020s overcrowded prisons a military without an evident purpose an education system the envy of none of the Western world How did we get here and where are we going How Britain Really Works is a guide to Britain and its institutions the economy the military schools hospitals the media and more which explains just how we got to wherever it is we are It will not tell you what opinions to have but will give you the information to help you reach your own By the end you will know how Britain works or doesn't Stig Abell is an urbane and often jaunty guide to modern Britain in the mould of Bill Bryson Irish Times The Powers of the False Doro Wiese, 2014-11-30 Introduction The truth of narration and the powers of the false Accepting complicated legacies by being once removed from the world Everything is illuminated Foer 2002 He looked for truth in facts and not in stories crimes of historiography and forces of fabulation in Richard Flanagan's Gould's book of fish 2003 Making time undoing race Richard Powers The time of our singing 2003 Conclusion Judging a Book by Its Cover Nickianne Moody, 2016-12-05 How do books attract their readers This collection takes a closer look at book covers and their role in promoting sales and shaping readers responses Judging a Book by Its Cover brings together leading scholars many with experience in the publishing industry who examine the marketing of popular fiction across the twentieth century and beyond Using case studies and grounding their discussions historically and methodologically the contributors address key themes in contemporary media literary publishing and business studies related to globalisation the correlation between text and image identity politics and reader reception Topics include book covers and the internet bookstore the links between books the music industry and film literary prizes and the selling of books subcultures and sales of young adult fiction the cover as a signifier of literary value and the marketing of ethnicity and lesbian pulp fiction This exciting collection opens a new field of enquiry for scholars of book history literature media and communication studies marketing and cultural studies Islands Magazine, 2002-09 Geographers Hayden Lorimer, Charles W. J. Withers, 2015-12-14 Volume twenty nine of Geographers Biobibliographical Studies has as its subject matter seven essays covering British and French regionalists one of the world's leading cultural geographers a quantitative geographer turned historical geographer and student of geopolitics a pioneering medical geographer and a leading theoretician of geography's multiple engagements with the urban experience In their different ways and with reference to

Australia Britain France Sweden and the United States of America all were products of and direct influences upon the emergence strength and thematic diversity of geography in the twentieth century Geographers 29 thus provides key insight into the shaping of a discipline and of its practitioners in modern context Hope at Sea Teresa Shewry, 2015-09-16 As far back as Thomas More's Utopia and Francis Bacon's New Atlantis the Pacific Ocean has inspired literary creations of promising worlds Hope at Sea asks how literary writers have more recently conceived the future of ocean living In doing so it provides a new perspective on art and imagination in the face of enormous environmental change Drawing together ecocriticism theories of hope and literary analysis this book explores how literary writers evoke hope in engaging with environmental upheavals that are reshaping life in the Pacific Ocean Teresa Shewry considers contemporary poetry short stories novels art and journalistic pieces from Australia New Zealand Hawai'i and other ocean sites examining their imaginative accounts of present life and future living in places where humans coexist with environmental loss rivers that no longer reach the sea dwindling populations of ocean life the effects of nuclear weapons testing and more These works are connected by their views of a future that includes hope Until now hope has never been theorized in a direct sustained way in ecocriticism Hope at Sea makes an argument for hope as a lens for creative and critical confrontation with environmental disruptions and the resulting sense of loss It also reflects on the critical approaches that hope as an analytic category opens up for the study of environmental literature With hope as a critical perspective Shewry develops a method for reading environmental literature literary writers create new ways to apprehend existing environmental realities and craft stories about seas forests cities and rivers that could be not as literal plans but as ways of imagining promising lives in the present world and in the world to come Slow Narrative and Nonhuman Materialities Marco Caracciolo, 2022-03 2024 Barbara Perkins and George Perkins Prize Slow Narrative and Nonhuman Materialities investigates how the experience of slowness in contemporary narrative practices can create a vision of interconnectedness between human communities and the nonhuman world Here slowness is not a matter of measurable time but a transformative experience for audiences of contemporary narratives engaging with the ecological crisis While climate change is a scientific abstraction the imagination of slowness turns it into a deeply embodied and affective experience Marco Caracciolo explores the value of slowness in dialogue with a wide range of narratives in various media from prose fiction to comic books to video games He argues that we need patience and an eye for complex patterns in order to recognize the multiple threads that link human communities and the slow moving processes of climate and geological history Decelerating attention offers important insight into human societies relations with the nonhuman materialities of Earth's physical landscapes ecosystems and atmosphere Caracciolo centers the experiential effects of narrative and offers a range of theoretically grounded readings that complement the formal language of narrative theory These close readings demonstrate that slowness is not a matter of measurable time but a thickening of attention that reveals the deeply multithreaded nature of reality The importance of this realization cannot be overstated through an investment in the here and now of experience slow narrative can help us manage the uncertainty of living in an era marked by dramatically shifting climate patterns

Neo-Victorian Biofiction, 2020-09-07 This volume explores the many paradoxes of neo Victorian biofiction a genre that yokes together the real and the imaginary biography and fiction and generates oxymoronic combinations like creative facts fictional truth or poetic truthfulness Contemporary biofictions recreating nineteenth century lives demonstrate the crucial but always ethically ambiguous revision and supplementation of the historical archive Due to the tension between ethical empathy and consumerist voyeurism between traumatic testimony and exploitative expos the epistemological response is per force one of hermeneutic suspicion and iconoclasm In the final account this volume highlights neo Victorianism s deconstruction of master narratives and the consequent democratic rehabilitation of over looked microhistories

On Whiteness, 2020-05-18 The essays cover an astonishing range of subject matter from mental health and plastic surgery to literature music political philosophy performance popular culture and history They interrogate the dominance of whiteness exposing the underpinnings of white privilege and considering its global consequences

Apocryphal and Literary Influences on Galway Diasporic History Gay Lynch, 2010-10-12 Apocryphal and Literary Influences on Galway Diasporic History establishes that apocryphal stories in all their transformations contribute to collective memory Common characteristics frame their analysis irreducible and enduring elements often embedded in archetypal drama lack of historical verification establishment in collective memory revivals after periods of dormancy subjection to political and economic manipulation implicit speculation and literary transformations This book contextualises Unsettled an Australian novel about a convict play derived from the Irish apocryphal story of The Magistrate of Galway and documents previously unpublished primary material including apocryphal stories passed through generations of descendents of settlers Martin and Maria Lynch and The Hibernian Father a play by Irish convict Edward Geoghegan It puts forward new hypotheses that the Irish hero Cuchulain may have provided a template for the archetypal and apocryphal story of the Magistrate of Galway that disgraced Trinity College medical student and aspiring writer Edward Geoghegan enacted and recounted the same father son archetypal conflict when he was transported to Botany Bay in 1839 and wrote the The Hibernian Father based on the Magistrate of Galway that working class Irish families were marginalised in South east South Australian historical records that oral apocryphal Lynch stories may be true that Kate Grenville s The Secret River 2006 offers an alternative history of the Hawkesbury River settlement by some definitions apocryphal The mystery of Geoghegan s disappearance is solved and knowledge about his life increased French theorist Gerard Genette s notion advanced in Palimpsests Literature in the Second Degree 1997 of all novels being transtextual provides a model for the analysis of relationships between these key apocryphal texts

Freshwater Biodiversity David Dudgeon, 2020-05-21 Growing human populations and higher demands for water impose increasing impacts and stresses upon freshwater biodiversity Their combined effects have made these animals more endangered than their terrestrial and marine counterparts Overuse and contamination of water overexploitation and overfishing introduction of alien species and alteration of natural flow regimes have led to a great thinning and declines in abundance of freshwater animals a great shrinking in body size with reductions in large species and a great mixing whereby the spread of introduced species has tended to homogenize previously dissimilar communities in different parts of the world Climate change and warming temperatures will alter global water availability and exacerbate the other threat factors What conservation action is needed to halt or reverse these trends and preserve freshwater biodiversity in a rapidly changing world This book offers the tools and approaches that can be deployed to help conserve freshwater biodiversity

The Axe Had Never Sounded John Mulvaney, 2007-08-01 This book meets well the triple promise of the title the inter connections of place people and heritage John Mulvaney brings to this work a deep knowledge of the history ethnography and archaeology of Tasmania He presents a comprehensive account of the areas history over the 200 years since French naval expeditions first charted its coastlines The important records the French officers and scientists left of encounters with Aboriginal groups are discussed in detail set in the wider ethnographic context and compared with those of later expeditions The topical issues of understanding the importance of Recherche Bay as a cultural landscape and its protection and future management inform the book Readers will be challenged to consider the connections between people and place and how these may constitute significant national heritage
