Parasight E. Carter, 2017-03-28 I am drowning in darkness My limbs submerged in inky tar my lungs asphyxiated by the stench of death's hold My eyes see nothing but black Yet I see him And I am not scared I should be Don't look into my eyes for my demons will eat you alive My devil inside will feast on your soft flesh His jagged teeth will tear the meat from your bones and drink the light from your soul His scars will turn the innocent into sinful and drag you into his dark pit of hell No light lives within this disfigured shell I am a vessel for pain Giving and receiving It feeds me It nourishes me It holds me close like the arms of a lover and whispers to me in the twilight They say the devil was once an angel There is no angel inside me I do not seek repentance nor forgiveness I do not crave things as weak as love My desire for her is purely selfish and once my appetite is sated she will be unlucky to leave with her life When she looks into my eyes my demons will eat her alive Book 2 of The Red Order series Can be read as a standalone but to understand the full storyline consider beginning the journey with Feyness
