Historic Buildings of Centre County, Pennsylvania Centre County Library. Historic Registration Project, Gregory Ramsey, 1980 This volume of photographs and text springs from the desire to identify and salvage the authentic character of our past as seen in our built environment Centre County provides a unique mix of historic buildings and villages in a rural landscape setting that is a rich record of development in the area since the earliest days of settlement Local buildings preserve traces of the changing economic activities iron manufacturing and agriculture travel and trade and the growth of the Penn State University and stories related to these buildings and the men who built them create a fascinating picture of life in the county for more than 150 years Each area of the county contains examples of buildings that make up a complete picture of the evolution of local building types Structures described in the detailed text and striking photographs include log houses and round barns the Georgian and Victorian mansions of the iron masters and landowners sturdy inns and mills hotels churches farms and buildings of Beaux Arts classicism on the University campus The book also provides a glossary of descriptive terms for historic buildings defines styles and local building types and gives information on the activities and agencies that support historic preservation

Pennsylvania Architecture Deborah Stephen Burns, 2009-05-01 Includes the catalog of the records for buildings and building groups scattered across PA It surveys PA s 300 years of architecture describes geographical and cultural influences on development patterns within the Commonwealth

s major geo cultural regions and catalogs the Historic American Buildings Survey HABS holdings for each of those regions up to 1990 There is no great body of publications to consult for a statewide survey such as this Also because the limited literature is skewed toward early high style buildings in the Phila region and because HABS surveys in PA have not been comprehensive this book should be viewed as a ground breaking work on PA s architectural heritage Over 100 illustrations
