Educating for Sustainability in Primary Schools Neil Taylor, Frances Quinn, Chris Eames, 2015-06-17 Education for Sustainability is a key priority in today's schools as our society seeks to find a balance between environmental social cultural political and economic imperatives that affect our future As young children will become the next generation of adults it is vital that they are educated about sustainability issues so that they can learn to make informed decisions and take positive action for a sustainable world Teachers are ideally placed to educate for sustainability issues and indeed have a responsibility to do so However they often lack support and experience in this area and constraints of current curriculum priorities can inhibit Education for Sustainability being taught effectively in many classrooms Educating for Sustainability in Primary Schools Teaching for the Future addresses this problem by showing how Education for Sustainability can be developed within and across all areas of the primary curriculum in the Australian and New Zealand contexts The book provides a range of educational approaches and examples of activities to support teachers in addressing national requirements for teaching the major primary curriculum learning areas while simultaneously educating for sustainability This integrative approach to primary education can promote knowledge of positive attitudes towards and suitable action for sustainability in relevant meaningful enjoyable and creative ways This book is a valuable resource for all primary teachers who wish to make a real difference to educating children for the future

Empathy and History Tyson Retz, 2018-07-27 Empathy and History offers a comprehensive and dual account of empathy's intellectual and educational history Beginning in an influential educational movement that implanted the concept in R G Collingwood's re-enactment doctrine the book goes back to reveal the fundamental role that empathy played in the foundation of the history discipline before tracing its reception and development in twentieth century hermeneutics and philosophy of history Attentive to matters of practice it illuminates the distinct character of the historical context that empathetic understanding seeks to capture and sets out a new approach to empathy as a special variety of historical questioning

Numeracy in Authentic Contexts Maura Sellars, 2017-10-25 This book is based on the notion that there are many ways in which mathematics learning can be achieved for students and that not all of them are focused on the mathematics classroom It explores the foundational numeracy principles of the non mathematical subject areas and aligns these to the Australian numeracy learning continuum It demonstrates in detail the extent to which numeracy competencies underpin successful learning in all the subject areas of the curricula It validates a focus of developing numeracy competencies through learning in the arts science and other discipline areas with which school students to engage with in order develop holistically but which are not subjected to national assessment practices It is developed around the notion of praxis putting theory into practice in order to respond to the urgent need for students to be supported in their efforts to increase their numeracy capabilities in a world where extensive amounts of new information are often presented in graphical or data based formats Additionally it offers perspectives on developing all students capacities to become numerate in school contexts and presents inclusive differentiated lesson examples as an alternative way of exploring numeracy in the context of teaching and learning in real world classroom contexts
