Choosing a mate is like picking house paint from one of those tiny color squares You never know how it will look across a large expanse or how it will change in different light Meet Janna and Graeme After a decade long tango together apart together apart they re back in love but the stress of nine to five is seriously hampering their happiness So they quit their jobs tie the knot and untie the lines on a beat up old sailboat for a most unusual honeymoon a two year voyage across the Pacific But passage from first date to first mate is anything but smooth sailing From the rugged Pacific Northwest coast to the blue lagoons of Polynesia to bustling Asian ports Janna and Graeme find themselves at the mercy of poachers under the spell of crossdressers and under the gun of a less than sober tattooist And they encounter do or die moments that threaten their safety their sanity and their marriage Join Janna and Graeme s 17 000 mile journey and their quest to resolve the uncertainties so many couples face How do you know if you ve really found the One How do you balance duty to others while preserving space for yourself And when the waters get rough do you jump ship or do you learn to navigate the world together
