History of Bloomington and Normal, in McLean County, Illinois (Classic Reprint) John H. Burnham, 2017-09-17
Excerpt from History of Bloomington and Normal in McLean County Illinois In this connection I wish to remark that the preparation of this little work was to the historian almost a labor of love As he progressed in the work his interest in everything pertaining to the towns increased until he could scarcely lay aside the pen He was aware of the great responsibility resting upon the writer of the first historical sketch but has attempted conscientiously and fairly to arrange and present an impartial authentic account of the events of our half century of history The imperfections of the present work are perhaps more evident to its author than they possibly can be to the general reader and such as exist he hopes will be regarded with all proper indulgence Great care was taken in verifying all statements particularly those relating to the earliest events The writer visited Pekin and Vandalia and carefully examined all records being perhaps the only person who has ever taken such pains to ascertain the facts of our early history Only those who have been actually engaged in an enterprise of this kind can properly estimate the difficulties and perplexities that must be encountered and it is asking too much to expect the general public will be satisfied with what has been accomplished Still such as it is we hereby present the little work hoping our earnest efforts will be appreciated and that our contribution to history will prove acceptable About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works

History of Holy Trinity Parish, Bloomington, Illinois (Classic Reprint) Stephen N.

Moore, 2017-10-22 Excerpt from History of Holy Trinity Parish Bloomington Illinois When Father Weldon published his Annual Statement for the year 1902 he gave a History of the Parish down to that time It was the Golden Jubilee Year in the history of the parish and he endeavored to commemorate it in that manner However so far as the early history of the parish was concerned it was an almost verbatim copy of the history as given in that special edition of the New World I spent twenty four years I presume the best of my life as pastor of Holy Trinity and of course became familiar with what had been considered its early history and certainly I never questioned its accuracy In my association with some of the older members of the parish I obtained some further knowledge of its early history That has helped me considerably as it gave me leads to questions to be investigated For some months previous to my resignation as pastor which became effective July 1 1948 I had contemplated that in such an event I might profitably spend my leisure time in an attempt to write up the history of that parish About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com

Transactions the McLean County Historical Society, Bloomington, Illinois, 1903, Vol. 2 (Classic Reprint) McLean County Historical Society, 2017-10-21. Excerpt from Transactions the McLean County Historical Society, Bloomington, Illinois, 1903, Vol. 2. In presenting this second volume to the public, the McLean County Historical Society desires to explain the unexpected delay in its appearance. Soon after it was projected and announced, the society determined to hold a meeting commemorative of the convention held at Bloomington, May 29, 1856, that organized the Republican party in Illinois, where Abraham Lincoln delivered his famous "Lost Speech." On account of the rapidly thinning ranks of the illustrious men who participated in that meeting, the memorial meeting and its proceedings, Vol. III of this society could not be postponed. The great fire of June 19, 1900, that destroyed the office of this society and the larger part of the business portion of Bloomington, again postponed our work, and we have been greatly delayed in securing some of the material for it.
