Heironimus, 2018-01-20 Excerpt from The Missouri Compromise An Historical Study for Eighth Grade Pupils As a preparation for a study of the Missouri Compromise a short review of the condition of our country at the time of that famous struggle may not be amiss The growth in different lines between 1776 and 1820 had been most marked At the close of the Revolution our treaty with England gave us an area of square miles bounded on the north by Canada and the Great Lakes on the west by the Mississippi on the south by the Spanish provinces of Florida and West Florida and on the east by the Atlantic by 1820 we had increased this area to square miles with Canada and the Great Lakes on the north Mexico and the Rockies on the west Mexico and the Gulf on the south and the Atlantic on the east Florida was not actually in our possession but the treaty of purchase was awaiting ratification by the Spanish government and there was no doubt but that the formal transfer would be made In addition to this extended territory the work of the explorers Gray Lewis and Clark and the settlement of Astoria by the Pacific Fur Company had given us good grounds for claiming the rich region known as the Oregon Country About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original

History of the United States (Serapis Classics) John Clark Ridpath, 2017-11-12. On the day after the assassination of Mr. Lincoln, Andrew Johnson took the oath of office and became President of the United States. He was a native of Raleigh, North Carolina, born in 1808. With no advantages of education, he passed his boyhood in poverty and neglect. In 1828, he removed to Tennessee and settled at Greenville. Here, through toil and hardship, he rose to distinction and, after holding minor offices, was elected to Congress. As a member of the United States Senate in 1860-61, he opposed secession with all his powers and continued to hold his seat as senator from Tennessee. On the 4th of March 1862, he was appointed military governor of that State. This office he held until 1864 and was then nominated for the Vice Presidency. Now, by the death of the President, he was called to assume the responsibilities of chief magistrate. On the 1st of February 1865, Congress adopted an amendment to the Constitution by which slavery was abolished and forbidden in all the States and Territories of the Union. By the 18th of the following December, the amendment had been ratified by the legislatures of twenty-seven States and was duly proclaimed as a part of the Constitution. The Emancipation Proclamation had been issued as a military measure; now, the doctrines and results of that instrument were recognized and incorporated in the fundamental law of the land. The problem of reconstruction of the Southern States was a most serious one, and the Republican party came near splitting asunder over it. As early as 1863, President Lincoln had formulated a plan by which any seceding State might be restored to the Union if one-tenth of its voters of 1860 should take an oath to support the Constitution and the laws and should set
