New Actors and Alliances in Development Lisa Ann Richey, Stefano Ponte, 2016-03-17 This collection brings together an interdisciplinary group of scholars exploring how development financing and interventions are being shaped by a wider and more complex platform of actors than usually considered in the existing literature The contributors also trace a changing set of key relations and alliances in development those between business and consumers NGOs and celebrities philanthropic organizations and the state diaspora groups and transnational advocacy networks ruling elites and productive capitalists and between new donors and developing country governments Despite the diversity of these actors and alliances several commonalities arise they are often based on hybrid transnationalism and diffuse notions of development responsibility rather than being new per se they are newly being studied as engaging in practices that are now coming to be understood as development and they are limited in their ability to act as agents of development by their lack of accountability or pro poor commitment The articles in this collection point to images and representations as increasingly important in development branding and suggest fruitful new ground for critical development studies This book was originally published as a special issue of Third World Quarterly

Advances in Management Information Systems* Dennis F. Galletta, Yahong Zhang, 2014-12-18 Human Computer Interaction and Management Information Systems Applications offers state of the art research by a distinguished set of authors who span the MIS and HCI fields The original chapters provide authoritative commentaries and in depth descriptions of research programs that will guide 21st century scholars graduate students and industry professionals Human Computer Interaction or Human Factors in MIS is concerned with the ways humans interact with information technologies and tasks especially in business managerial organizational and cultural contexts It is distinctive in many ways when compared with HCI studies in other disciplines The MIS perspective affords special importance to managerial and organizational contexts by focusing on analysis of tasks and outcomes at a level that considers organizational effectiveness With the recent advancement of technologies and development of many sophisticated applications human centeredness in MIS has become more critical than ever before This work focuses on applications and evaluations including special case studies specific contexts or tasks HCI methodological concerns and the use and adoption process Die Casting Engineer,2005 Europe's Relations with North Africa Adam Yousef,2017-04-25 The rapid evolution of events in the European Middle Eastern and North African spheres has reinvigorated the debate on Euro Mediterranean relations Since 1995 these relations have operated under the auspices of the Barcelona Process which laid the foundations for three initiatives that define European policy towards neighbouring states the Euro Mediterranean Partnership the European Neighbourhood Policy and the Union for the Mediterranean This book scrutinises these initiatives through a socioeconomic prism Adam Yousef reviews how appropriate these initiatives have been in promoting socioeconomic development in North African states projects the long term implications of these policies and investigates whether they can reduce the gap in social outcomes across the Mediterranean Basin over time Using Morocco as a case study this book employs a mixed methods approach combining qualitative and quantitative data as well as economic theory It reveals not only that the Barcelona Process has had a limited impact on promoting social outcomes in Morocco but crucially that it is also unlikely to do so in the future suggesting a new approach may be required
