Inleiding In De Nieuwere Zendingswetenschap:

Mission & Science Carine Dujardin, Claude Prudhomme, 2015-03-26 Science as an instrument to justify religious missions in secular society The relationship between religion and science is complex and continues to be a topical issue However it is seldom zoomed in on from both Protestant and Catholic perspectives By doing so the contributing authors in this collection gain new insights into the origin and development of missiology Missiology is described in this book as a project of modernity a contemporary form of apologetics Scientific apologetics was the way to justify missions in a society that was rapidly becoming secularized Mission Science deals with the interaction between new scientific disciplines historiography geography ethnology anthropology linguistics and new scientific insights Darwin's evolutionary theory heliocentrism as well as the role of the papacy and what inspired missionary practice first in China and the Far East and later in Africa The renewed missiology has in turn influenced the missionary practice of the twentieth century guided by apostolic policy Some missionary scholars have even had a significant influence on the scientific discourse of their time An Assessment of Mass

Meetings as a Method of Evangelism William Thomas, 2024-09-16 Heart for the Gospel, Heart for the World Paul J. Visser, 2003-10-28 In this study one finds the missiological inheritance of the first Reformed missiologist Johan Herman Bavinck in an organized and systematic form The following topics are discussed theology of religion biblical theology of missions elenctics mission apologetics and practical subjects such as inculturation ecumenism and the race issue The context in which Bavinck developed his vision is discussed in an explicit way Special attention is given to the influence of Hendrik Kramer on Bavinck's development as well as the psychological dimension in his theologizing The author evaluates the relevancy of Bavinck's missiology for the development of a Reformed missiology The above is made complete by an extensive biographical sketch shedding light on the background and way of life of this Johan Herman Bavinck Bible Translation in Suriname Franklin Steven Jabini, 2015-07-31 The Republic of Suriname has a long and rich heritage of Bible translation spanning more than 250 years yet very little has been published on its history In this book Dr Franklin Jabini a Surinamer as well as a translator himself provides the reader with a detailed survey of the history of Bible translation across the many language groups of Suriname Illustrating the difficult and complicated process of Bible translation the book furnishes brief biographies of translators both national and foreign as well as the denominations and parachurch organizations involved This book is not just a historical account but provides important insight into the efforts of reaching all tribes tongues and nations with God's word In Search of Foundations for African Catholicism Mika Vähäkangas, 2016-05-18 This study deals with the interaction between neo Thomism and African traditional thinking in Charles Nyamiti's theological methodology The approach of the study is groundbreaking as it is the first monograph published on the theological method of any African theologian The question about the position and relevance of Western philosophical theological systems in a non Western context also has a wider relevance concerning contextual theologies in general Nyamiti's theology is a germane and a fruitful choice for the study of this issue because of his programmatic attempt to build a coherent African Roman Catholic theological system His theology is also well known for its strong African flavor in elaborating theological questions within the framework of orthodox Roman Catholic doctrine Modern Societies & the Science of Religions Gerard Wiegers, 2018-11-13 This book brings together studies by seventeen specialists in the science of religions in which they relate the changes in their discipline to the changes which have occurred in a select number of modernising societies worldwide It attempts to study these developments in their relation to and as conditioned and constrained by cultural change changes in educational systems technology population for example migration economic patterns politics and last but not least religious systems The essays focus on resp France Germany the Netherlands Spain the USA Turkey Israel Morocco Saudi Arabia South Africa Indonesia Japan and China Written in honour of Dr Lammert Leertouwer professor of History of Religions and the Comparative Study of Religions at Leiden University from 1979 until his retirement in 1997 the book is particularly important for all those who are interested in the religious social and political contexts of the academic Study of Religions in general and in the various countries dealt with in particular Missionary Messengers of Liberation in a Colonial Context Jan Harm Boer, 2024-10-21 Mission the "labour room" of theology Johannes Knoetze, 2022-11-09 Johannes Knoetze Associate Professor in Practical Theology and Missional Studies at the Faculty of Theology of the University of Pretoria served as the editor of this extremely important and relevant publication Mission the labour room of theology The book comprises of 21 chapters by various esteemed scholars in Missiology or Missional Studies The contributors engage critically with mission history and mission understandings from different contexts in Southern Africa The book is divided in three sections The first gives a historical denominational and current overview of mission in Africa A second section focuses on current theological understandings of the origin of mission the changing contexts of mission as well as importance of mission studies in the theological curriculum in Africa especially in the 21st century Africa A third section looks at the how of mission different modes or figure of mission under the title Mission as or mission in the context of It is an attractive publication with a wealth of information and a wide collection of reflections on the transmittance and reception of faith in Southern African contexts The chapters are written in a clear concise and understandable style This book will appeal to a wide audience ranging from undergraduate students ministers mission practitioners lecturers teaching practical theology missiology missional studies and scholars engaging in academic research Maintaining Apartheid or Promoting Change? Abdulkader Tayob, Wolfram Weisse, Carel Aaron Anthonissen, Wolfram Weie, Accompanying CD ROM contains a video documentation on cd rom Page 323 Theologia Crucis in Asia A.A. Yewangoe, 2024-08-19 The J. H. Bavinck Reader John Bolt, James D. Bratt, Paul J. Visser, 2013-06-03 Crucial themes and issues explored by a premier missiologist Johan Herman Bavinck 1895 1964 was a prominent twentieth century Dutch Calvinist missiologist who wrestled with the tension between religious absolutism and relativism as many Christians do in today's pluralistic context The J H Bavinck Reader gathers together a choice selection of

Bavinck's significant writings that are essential for understanding his theology of missions his approach to world religions and his religious psychology His treatment of religious consciousness and Christian faith expands on the brief treatment of it in his own work The Church Between Temple and Mosque The concluding chapters show how Bavinck's theoretical reflection on religious consciousness was rooted in his close observation during his years as a missionary in Indonesia Offering a constructive way forward Bavinck affirms both the particularity of salvation in Christ and the universality of the Christian hope A substantial introduction enhances the book with the most thorough biographical sketch of Bavinck available

Nederlandse zendingsgeschiedenis Deel II van Jan Jongeneel behandelt de Nederlandse zendingsgeschiedenis vanaf De Eerste Wereldoorlog tot nu Al sinds de Verenigde Oost Indische Compagnie en West Indische Compagnie waaieren protestantse Nederlanders naar alle windstreken uit Dat is zo gebleven in de postkoloniale periode Predikanten zendelingen en bijbelvertalers lopen voorop bij het nadenken over andere godsdiensten en geloven en bij het ontmoeten van hun aanhangers Het eerste deel van dit handboek besprak de ontwikkelingen tot de Eerste Wereldoorlog Philosophy, Science, and Theology of Mission in the 19th and 20th Centuries: The philosophy and science of mission J. A. B. Jongeneel, 1995 Missiology, 1979 An international review Reformed and Ecumenical, 2021-11-15 Farewell to Innocence Allan Aubrey Boesak, 2015-05-01 While we acknowledge that all expressions of liberation theology are not identical we must protest very strongly against the false divisions that some make between black theology in South Africa and black theology in the United States between black theology and African theology and between black theology and Latin American liberation theology But moving away from the illusioned universality of western theology to the contextuality of liberation theology is a risky business one that cannot be done innocently In the search for theological and human authenticity in its own situation black theology does not stand alone It is but one expression of this search going on within many different contexts Until now the Christian church had chosen to move through history with a bland kind of innocence hiding the painful truths of oppression behind a facade of myths and real or imagined anxieties This is no longer possible The oppressed who believe in God the Father of Jesus Christ no longer want to believe in the myths created to subjugate them It is no longer possible to innocently accept history as it happens silently hoping that God would take the responsibility for human failure The theology of liberation spells out this realization For the Christian church it constitutes in no uncertain terms farewell to innocence Nes Ammim Gert van Klinken, 2021 Today Europe is a favoured destination for refugees from all over the world We might have forgotten an earlier exodus during the aftermath of the Second World War in the opposite direction Jewish survivors of the Holocaust aimed for Palestine and after 1948 the State of Israel Protestants from the Netherlands Switzerland America and Germany intended to join the Jewish people in their new homeland by building the village Nes Ammim The Netherlands had been occupied during the war Switzerland had remained neutral Germany carried the taints of guilt and defeat the United States the laurels of the victor What made them work together And why did the Americans and the Swiss withdraw in 1967 the year of the Six Day War The many questions surrounding this village do not end here Nes Ammim was founded near Akko in 1962 Just fourteen years earlier a majority of the local population had been Druze or Arab Most of the Arabs ended up as refugees and their land was repurposed for the kibbutzim How did Protestants relate to these events It is not the intention of the author to impose present day views onto the Christian founders of Nes Ammim The challenge of understanding their mindset within the context of their time is exactly what makes them so fascinating

Reveil en afscheiding W. van der Zwaag, 2006 Geschiedenis en achtergronden van twee negentiende eeuwse opwekkingsbewegingen die vanuit hun gereformeerde uitgangspunten zich verzetten tegen het toenmalige verlicht godsdienstige klimaat in de Hervormde Kerk

Mission Legacies Gerald H. Anderson, 1994 Contains seventy eight biographies of missionaries involved in the modern Christian missionary movement Includes biographies of missionaries such as Robert Speer Kenneth Latourette and William Taylor

God Moves in a Mysterious Way Anna Maria Kool, 1993
