Gaming Utopia Claudia Costa Pederson, 2021-04-06 In Gaming Utopia Ludic Worlds in Art Design and Media Claudia Costa Pederson analyzes modernist avant garde and contemporary video games to challenge the idea that gaming is an exclusively white heterosexual male corporatized leisure activity and reenvisions it as a catalyst for social change By looking at over fifty projects that together span a century and the world Pederson explores the capacity for sociopolitical commentary in virtual and digital realms and highlights contributions to the history of gaming by women queer and transnational artists The result is a critical tool for understanding video games as imaginative forms of living that offer alternatives to our current reality With an interdisciplinary approach Gaming Utopia emphasizes how game design creation and play can become political forms of social protest and examines the ways that games as art open doors to a more just and peaceful world

Non-Standard Architectural Productions Sandra Karina Löschke, 2019-07-30 This book captures concepts and projects that reshape the discipline of architecture by prioritizing people over buildings In doing so it uncovers sophisticated approaches that go beyond standard architectural protocols to explore experience based aesthetics encounters action based research critical practices and social engagement If these are widely understood as singular or incompatible approaches the book reveals that they form a growing network of interrelations and generate levels of flexibility and dynamism that are reshaping the discipline The thirteen chapters analyze thought provoking projects branded museums restaged exhibitions home work spaces multi cultural spaces ageing apartment blocks abandoned homes and urban slums amongst them Together they enliven the stalled debate about a single architectural response to the complex challenges of the contemporary world by highlighting pluralistic perspectives on architecture that offer fresh solutions on how architecture can improve people s lives Featuring essays from an international range of authors this book makes a vital contribution to our understanding of the wider conditions under which and in relation to which contemporary architecture is produced

Imagined Utopias in the Built Environment Anna Novakov, 2017-01-06 Beginning with the early history of London s Vauxhall pleasure gardens this volume surveys visionary architecture and urban planning from the 18th century to the present The recurrence of themes of technology individual agency and communal living in the work of Le Corbusier Eileen Gray Charles and Ray Eames and Constant Nieuwenhuys testifies to the continued search for an ideal personal and public space Inspired by works of fiction such as Utopia Herland Mizora World of Women and Homo Ludens and the films Metropolis and Stalker artists and architects created fantastic plans for individual homes housing complexes and entire urban centers The resulting projects discussed here manifest the modern anxiety between the liberation of the individual and the needs of the collective The urban landscape from the 18th to the 21st centuries has been woven into the fabric of architecture as a way to improve day to day life as well as to create personal identity within an expanding public world The seven chapter topics are arranged chronologically and begin with the design of social space in Georgian era pleasure gardens and conclude with a study of contemporary Utopian groups that utilize early literary references as a focus for their societies As such the book builds upon the understanding of technology and architecture in its many forms as a shared benchmark for the expansion of individual rights and the growth of Utopian ideas in modern European and American society

Art as Information Ecology Jason A. Hoelscher, 2021-08-09 In Art as Information Ecology Jason A Hoelscher offers not only an information theory of art but an aesthetic theory of information Applying close readings of the information theories of Claude Shannon and Gilbert Simondon to 1960s American art Hoelscher proposes that art is information in its aesthetic or indeterminate mode information oriented less toward answers and resolvability than toward questions irresolvability and sustained difference These irresolvable differences Hoelscher demonstrates fuel the richness of aesthetic experience by which viewers glean new information and insight from each encounter with an artwork In this way art constitutes information that remains in formation a difference that makes a difference that keeps on differencing Considering the works of Frank Stella Robert Morris Adrian Piper the Drop City commune Eva Hesse and others Hoelscher finds that art exists within an information ecology of complex feedback between artwork and artworld that is driven by the unfolding of difference By charting how information in its aesthetic mode can exist beyond today's strictly quantifiable and monetizable forms Hoelscher reconceives our understanding of how artworks work and how information operates Nervous Systems Johanna Gosse, Timothy Stott, 2021-11-02 The contributors to Nervous Systems reassess contemporary artists and critics engagement with social political biological and other systems as a set of complex and relational parts an approach commonly known as systems thinking Demonstrating the continuing relevance of systems aesthetics within contemporary art the contributors highlight the ways that artists adopt systems thinking to address political social and ecological anxieties They cover a wide range of artists and topics from the performances of the Argentinian collective the Rosario Group and the grid drawings of Charles Gaines to the video art of Singaporean artist Charles Lim and the mapping of global logistics infrastructures by contemporary artists like Hito Steyerl and Christoph Bachel Together the essays offer an expanded understanding of systems aesthetics in ways that affirm its importance beyond technological applications detached from cultural contexts Contributors Cristina Albu Amanda Boetzkes Brianne Cohen Kris Cohen Jaimey Hamilton Faris Christine Filippone Johanna Gosse Francis Halsall Judith Rodenbeck Dawna Schuld Luke Skrebowski Timothy Stott John Tyson

Introduction to Design Psychology Eleni Kalantidou, 2025-01-09 In the age of climate change psychology and design have been employed through impromptu collaborations to validate solutions and future scenarios Introduction to Design Psychology contests this approach by proposing an ideological framework for an intentional joint endeavour between psychology and design Intentional design psychology is presented as a critical proposal grounded in unpredictability nominating ways to activate new production consumption and habitation patterns It unfolds through chapters exploring urban environments technology and consumer culture making evident the need for new definitions of social resilience and adaptation As part of this process adaptive designs that enable resilient psychologies are revealed By challenging the disciplinary status quo of psychology and design this book aims to activate a new field of knowledge Introduction to Design

Psychology is essential for psychologists designers and urban planners as well as professionals from affiliated fields willing to reconfigure their own thinking and practice

Framing the Black Panthers Jane Rhodes, 2017-01-30 A potent symbol of black power and radical inspiration the Black Panthers still evoke strong emotions This edition of Jane Rhodes's acclaimed study examines the extraordinary staying power of the Black Panthers in the American imagination Probing the group's longtime relationship to the media Rhodes traces how the Panthers articulated their message through symbols and tactics the mass media could not resist By exploiting press coverage through everything from posters to public appearances to photo ops the Panthers created a linguistic and symbolic universe as salient today as during the group's heyday They also pioneered a sophisticated version of mass media activism that powers contemporary African American protest Featuring a timely new preface by the author Framing the Black Panthers is a breakthrough reconsideration of a fascinating phenomenon

Building/Object Charlotte Ashby, Mark Crinson, 2022-06-16 Building Object addresses the space in between the conventional objects of design and the conventional objects of architecture probing and reassessing the differences between the disciplines of design history and architectural history Each of the 13 chapters in this book examine things which are neither object like nor building like but somewhere in between air conditioning bookshelves partition walls table monuments TVs convenience stores cars exposing particular political configurations and resonances that otherwise might be occluded In doing so they reveal that the definitions we make of objects in opposition to buildings and of architecture in opposition to design are not as fundamental as they seem This book brings new aspects of the creative and experiential into our understanding of the human environment

Hipster Modernism The Struggle For Utopia: Bestsellers in 2023 The year 2023 has witnessed a noteworthy surge in literary brilliance, with numerous engrossing novels enthraling the hearts of readers worldwide. Let's delve into the realm of popular books, exploring the fascinating narratives that have charmed audiences this year. The Must-Read : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This touching tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover masterfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can succeed. Hipster Modernism The Struggle For Utopia : Taylor Jenkins Reid's "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This spellbinding historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reid's compelling storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Discover the Magic : Delia Owens' "Where the Crawdads Sing" This evocative coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens spins a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These popular novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of compelling stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is an exceptional and suspenseful novel that will keep you wondering until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
