History Of The Waterloo Campaign:

Napoleon's Waterloo Campaign Steven Marthinsen, 2003-04 Napoleon's Waterloo Campaign An Alternate History is a story of this famous campaign with a twist What would have happened if Marshal Grouchy Napoleon's wing commander had marched to the sound of the guns as his subordinate commanders had urged This intriguing idea is an open invitation for taking a closer look at what might have been in June of 1815 This volume is the first modern full length alternative history written about the Waterloo campaign but it does not stop there First the narrative seeks to examine and explain the logic behind the French emperor's decisions and to a lesser extent those made by his famous enemies Then the change in history is seamlessly inserted into the overall context of the campaign and followed to its dramatic climax at the battle of Ohain on June 19 1815 The campaign of Waterloo was a series of opportunities taken and missed by both sides and the volume shows how a single decision could have changed the course of history History of the Waterloo Campaign H.T.

Nofi, 1993-08-21 Albert Nofi has used his many years of research to produce an account of the battle of Waterloo that has all the grandeur and military detail one could want but which never loses its interest in individual human experience Here Napoleon rides forward to take personal command of a small detachment of French Marines to fight his way across the Sambre river on the way to Waterloo Hanoverian exiles who have been fighting Napoleon for a decade under English command are surrounded and wiped out in a classic last stand at the hour of victory The Waterloo Campaign also covers the death of the Duke of Brunswick the reconciliation of Napoleon and his estranged brother Jerome in the crucible of battle and the tragic loss and miraculous delivery of many ordinary people In addition to its popular appeal Albert Nofi s The Waterloo Campaign has found favor with the most demanding of military enthusiasts Waterloo is a Military Book Club Main Selection in the U S and has been selected for a special European edition Special features of The Waterloo Campaign include the most complete orders of battle available for the British French and Prussian armies a detailed comparison of artillery and musketry capabilities sidebars profiling many of the personalities of the campaign weather conditions for each hour of the battle and the best informed estimates available on unit strengths and casualties for horses as well as humans during the campaign New York educator Albert Nofi appeared frequently as a radio and TV military commentator during the Persian Gulf War always balancing the grand principles of command against the individual human drama He is the author of numerous books including The Spanish

American War 1898 The Marine Corps Book of Lists and The War Against Hitler The Campaign of Waterloo John Codman Ropes,1893 The Campaign of 1815: Ligny, Quatre Bras, Waterloo William O'Connor Morris,2016-03-21 A detailed history of the Waterloo campaign first published in 1900 which combines a succinct and complete narrative of events with a careful running commentary The author an Oxford academic takes us through the campaign step by step beginning with a portrait of France under the unpopular Bourbon monarchy Napoleon s triumphant return from exile in Elba his raising an army and the panic stricken response of the Allies to the renewed Bonapartist threat Morris takes us carefully through the military developments after Napoleon crosses the Belgian border in a bid to defeat the Prussians and the Anglo Dutch forces under Wellington piecemeal resulting in the twin battles of Ligny against Blucher and Quatre Bras There then follows the climactic titanic struggle at Waterloo itself when the French flung themselves against the defensive position chosen by Wellington south of Brussels only to be met by solid British squares The furious struggle for possession of the forward posts of Hougemont La Haye Sainte and the Belle Alliance are well described as is the role of the artillery and cavalry The Allied triumph is assured by the arrival of the Prussians in the nick of time to make the final victory over Napoleon complete

Taylor,Howard H. Gross,1889 Journal of the Waterloo Campaign: A Military History Various Authors,2020-09-28 The return of Napoleon from Elba though a surprise to many was far from being so to those who well aware of his restless disposition his insatiable ambition and the enthusiastic attachment of the French soldiery to his person and fortunes had scarcely expected that he would have remained so long as he actually did without some new attempt at disturbing the general peace The steps taken on this occasion by the different European Powers their preparations for a renewal of the bloody scenes so lately ended are out of my province They belong to the historian and not to the simple journalist whose affair it is to confine himself strictly to those transactions in which he was himself a participator or at most to glance at those more general subjects merely to give connection to his narrative and make it better understood At the time the news of this extraordinary event arrived the troop of horse artillery which I commanded was stationed at Colchester and the reductions necessary to put us on a peace establishment had already commenced when the order arrived for our being immediately equipped again for foreign service To do this effectually another troop then in the same barracks was broken up and we got the picked horses of both thus making it the finest troop in the service and such diligence was used that although our equipment fell little short of a complete reorganisation Major Sir A Fraser commanding the horse artillery in Colchester was enabled to report on the third day that the troop was ready to march at a moment s warning Meantime the town of Colchester situated as it is on the great road from Harwich to London presented a scene of bustle and anxiety seldom equalled couriers passing to and fro incessantly and numerous travellers foreign and English arriving day and night from the Continent many travelling in breathless haste as if fearful even here of Napoleon s emissaries The reports spread by these fugitives were various and contradictory as might be expected According to some Louis XVIII had been arrested in Paris according to others he had sought refuge in the Pays Bas and again it was asserted that his Majesty was at Ostend awaiting permission to pass the sea and return to his old and secure quarters in England In the midst of all this on the 8th April the post brought our order to march forthwith to Harwich there to embark for Ostend an order received with unfeigned joy by officers and men all eager to plunge into danger and bloodshed all hoping to obtain glory and distinction On the morning of the 9th the troop paraded at half past seven o clock with as much regularity and as quietly as if only going to a field day not a man either absent or intoxicated and every part of the guns and appointments in the most perfect order At eight the hour named in orders we marched off the parade The weather was fine the scenery as we skirted the beautiful banks of the Stour charming and the occasion exhilarating Near Manningtree we halted a short time to feed our horses and then pursuing our route arrived at Harwich about three o clock in the afternoon Here we found the transports the Adventure Philarea and Salus in which last I embarked awaiting us but the tide being unfavourable although we immediately commenced operations we only succeeded in embarking the horses of one division and those of the officers the remainder were therefore put up in the barracks for the night As might be expected the little town of Harwich presented a most animated spectacle Its narrow streets of modest houses with brick trottoirs were crowded with soldiers some all over dust just arrived some who had already been a day or two in the place comparatively at home lounging about in undress others about to embark hurrying along to the beach with baggage and stores sailors marketing or rolling about half seas over country people bringing in vegetables and the like and towns people idling at their windows or in groups at corners of the streets in short the usual picture incident on such occasions
