Rangarajan, 2018-09-18 In an epoch when environmental issues make the headlines this is a work that goes beyond the everyday Ecologies as diverse as the Himalayas and the Indian Ocean coast the Negev desert and the former military bases of Vietnam or the Namib desert and the east African savannah all have in common a long time human presence and the many ways people have modified nature With research covering countries from Asia Africa and Australia the authors come together to ask how and why human impacts on nature have grown in scale and pace from a long pre history The chapters in this volume illumine specific patterns and responses across time going beyond an overt centring of the European experience The tapestry of life and the human reshaping of environments evoke both concern and hope making it vital to understand when why and how we came to this particular turn in the road Eschewing easy labels and questioning eurocentrism in today's climate vocabulary this is a volume that will stimulate rethinking among scholars and citizens alike Bully Beef &

Balderdash Graham Wilson, 2012-03-15 The Australian Imperial Force first raised in 1914 for overseas war service became better known by its initials the AIF There was a distinct character to those who enlisted in the earliest months and who were destined to fight on Gallipoli During the war the AIF took its place among the great armies of the world on some of history's oldest battlefields The Australians would attack at the Dardanelles enter Jerusalem and Damascus defend Amiens and Ypres and swagger through the streets of Cairo Paris and London with their distinctive slouch hats and comparative wealth of six shillings per day However the legend of the AIF is shrouded in myth and mystery Was Beersheba the last great cavalry charge in history Did the AIF storm the red light district of Cairo and burn it to ground while fighting running battles with the military police Was the AIF the only all volunteer army of World War I Graham Wilson's Bully Beef and Balderdash shines an unforgiving light on these and other well known myths of the AIF in World War I arguing that these spectacular legends simply serve to diminish the hard won reputation of the AIF as a fighting force Graham Wilson mounts his own campaign to rehabilitate the historical reputation of the force and to demonstrate that misleading and inaccurate embellishment does nothing but hide the true story of Australia's World War I fighting army Bully Beef and Balderdash deliberately tilts at some well loved windmills and for those who cherish the mythical story of the AIF this will not be comfortable reading Yet given the extraordinary truth of the AIF s history it is certainly compelling reading Earthopolis Carl H. The Global Politics of Globalization Barry K. Gills, 2013-09-13 Are we moving inexorably towards a new empire or is global civil society transforming global politics into a new cosmopolis In The Global Politics of Globalization the alternatives of Empire and Cosmopolis are counter poised as representative of two antithetical conceptions and practices of world order both historically and in the present era and each expresses an alternative idea of human unity and community Today global politics is embroiled in a clash of globalizations a clash between these two opposed forms of world order The contributions in the debate range from deep historical reflections on world civilizations critique of neoliberal economics and imperialism new thinking on the ideals and practices of global citizenship the philosophical basis for cosmopolitan politics and the emergence of new forms of global social forces and movements Previously published as a special issue of Globalizations this book brings together a very distinguished set of contributors to explore and debate the relationship between globalization processes and world order in light of recent controversies over the return of empire
