Now Screen World editor Barry Monush has compiled another comprehensive work for every film lover's library. In the first of two volumes this book chronicles the careers of every significant film actor from the earliest silent screen stars Chaplin Pickford Fairbanks to the mid 1960s when the old studio and star systems came crashing down. Each listing includes a brief biography photos from the famed Screen World archives with many rare shots vital statistics a comprehensive filmography and an informed entertaining assessment of each actor's contributions good or bad. In addition to every major player Monush includes the legions of unjustly neglected troupers of yesteryear. The 30 chapters and 100 essays follow the connections that link Mae West to Marilyn Monroe and W C Fields to Will Ferrell. Offering unvarnished insight into comedians and directors such as Buster Keaton Christopher Guest Eddie Murphy and Ben Stiller this eye opening entertaining and enlightening tour encompasses the masterpieces the box office smashes and all the little known gems in between. Laurel and Hardy Marilyn Monroe Peter Sellers Mel Brooks Richard Pryor Steve Martin and the Coen Brothers are among others profiled while a list of the top 100 American film comedies is also included. Food in the Movies, 2d ed. Steve Zimmerman, 2010-07-28 Although food has been part of motion pictures since the silent era for the most part it has been treated with about as much respect as movie extras. It's always been there on the screen but seldom noticed. For the most part filmmakers have settled on three basic ways to treat food as a prop in which the food is usually obscured from sight or ignored by the actors as a transition device to compress time and help advance the plot as a symbol or metaphor or in some other meaningful way to make a dramatic point or to reveal an aspect of an actor's character mood or thought process This hugely expanded and revised edition details 400 food scenes in addition to the 400 films reviewed for the first edition and an introduction tracing the technical artistic and cultural forces that contributed to the emergence of food films as a new genre originated by such films as Tampopo Babette's Feast and more recently by films like Mostly Martha No Reservations and Ratatouille A filmography is included as an appendix
