Industrialization, Urbanization, and Immigration

During the Gilded Age, two transforming experiences changed many aspects of American life – industrialization and urbanization.

Four primary factors contributed to the rapid industrialization of America: improved transportation and communication; new inventions and technology; new marketing and merchandizing techniques; and plentiful labor. Technology fuels most political, social, and economic change.

Industrialization-

occurs when a nation's economic system decreases its reliance upon producing goods by hand and increases its reliance upon producing goods by machine.

Factors contributing to the rise of Industrialization

- Improved transportation and communication.
- A growing number of entrepreneurs.
- New inventions and technology.
- New marketing

Urbanization-

occurs when a community takes on the characteristics of a city. A city is a relatively large and permanent settlement of people who generally have some type of system for sanitation, utilities, land usage, housing, and transportation and more.

By 1870, the nation had only 25 cities with more than 50,000 people.

with a total population of 5 million. By 1890, there were 58 cities that size with nearly 12 million people. Most were in Immigration is the process of moving from one nation to another nation to permanently resettle.

Emigration is the process of moving from one nation to another, with the possibility of returning to one's original homeland.

Migration is the process of moving from one location within a nation to another location within that same nation.

Rethinking Home Economics Sarah J. Stage,Virginia B. Vincenti,2018-07-05 Until recently historians tended to dismiss home economics as little more than a conspiracy to keep women in the kitchen This landmark volume initiates collaboration among home economists family and consumer science professionals and women s historians What knits the essays together is a willingness to revisit the subject of home economics with neither indictment nor apology The volume includes significant new work that places home economics in the twentieth century within the context of the development of women s professions Rethinking Home Economics documents the evolution of a profession from the home economics movement launched by Ellen Richards in the early twentieth century to the modern field renamed Family and Consumer Sciences in 1994 The essays in this volume show the range of activities pursued under the rubric of home economics from dietetics and parenting teaching and cooperative extension work to test kitchen and product development Exploration of the ways in which gender race and class influenced women's options in colleges and universities hospitals business and industry as well as government has provided a greater understanding of the obstacles women encountered and the strategies they used to gain legitimacy as the field developed

21st Century Sociology: A Reference Handbook Clifton D. Bryant, Dennis L. Peck, 2006-11-17

With this valuable handbook the editors have successfully synthesized a field that has expanded considerably in recent years

M L Stark CHOICE Because the field of sociological inquiry is multi faceted in perspective and does subsume a variety of specialty interests the literature in this discipline has developed and proliferated in a near exponential fashion

Sociology today has become so specialty driven in its research and theory agenda that the result is an enormous and complex body of sociological knowledge that is often considered to be unwieldy

21st Century Sociology A Reference Handbook provides a concise forum through which the vast array of knowledge accumulated particularly during the past three decades can be organized into a single definitive resource

The two volumes of this Reference Handbook focus on the corpus of knowledge garnered in traditional areas of sociological inquiry as well as document the general orientation of the newer and currently emerging areas of sociological inquiry

Key Features Provides a timely and comprehensive assessment of the 100 specialty fields of sociology with contributions by leading authorities in their area of expertise from the U S Canada Europe and Singapore

Examines four distinct phases of development in the history of sociological inquiry a period of theoretical development the emphasis on methodological development and refinement the phase of specialization and a period that has taken representatives of the discipline into previously unexplored areas

Addresses the various traditional subfields of sociology such as political sociology educational sociology rural sociology criminology occupational sociology and minority relations

Explores important new evolving subfields such as environmental sociology sociology of sports and leisure military sociology medical sociology the sociology of food and eating and the sociology of emotions 21st Century Sociology presents the most comprehensive overview of modern sociology making it a must have resource for any academic library Library Journal Melvil Dewey, Richard Rogers Bowker, L.
