

The Cold War Heats Up

1. As you read the passage, fill in the information you discover about the Soviet-American agreement below.

	What the Soviets Wanted	What the Americans Wanted
1. Would it make any sense to build space programs and rockets?	That U.S. support them economically (training, fuel, etc.)	Not really.
2. Would anyone benefit from the rockets and satellites they could build?	They would certainly produce satellites that were better. They could deliver military air aid.	They might develop better in case of emergencies, but they would have to be ready when John F. Kennedy became Supreme Leader, planned attack and conduct of General Douglas MacArthur.
3. Would anyone challenge either side?	Not really.	Others might be tempted to join, but independence was important.
4. Would the two nations agree to work together?	Yes, the governments had no problems. There was no common enemy.	Yes, because people were surprised and would not take a revolution like this.

2. Suppose the agreement simply to stop building new weapons.

What would be the main reason?

It might be that the weapons were really bad.

It would be because the governments did not want to go to war.

It would be because the governments did not want to be destroyed.
