Financial services in particular is one non oil area where the emirate is starting to pull ahead with recent growth in the Islamic financial services segment fuelling the emirate's ambition of becoming the knowledge based capital of the Islamic economy in the future. Meanwhile Dubai's real estate and construction sectors which were badly affected by the 2008 financial meltdown are once again thriving as the legacies of the global crisis recede and the debts incurred from that time are repaid and restructured. Indeed Dubai is now firmly focused on the future with preparations for Dubai Expo 2020 in particular helping nourish its economic recovery development and growth in recent years. The event is expected to attract 25m visitors over a six month period and the build up is driving development across several sectors. Building upon the book Disappearing Destinations Jones and Phillips 2010 and its conclusion that promoted the need to recognize problems meet expectations and manage solutions. Global Climate Change and Coastal Tourism explores current threats to and consequences of climate change on existing tourism coastal destinations. Part 1 of the book provides a theoretical platform and addresses topics such as sustainability, tourism impacts, governance, trade and innovation and how the media addresses climate change and tourism. It also assesses management and policy options for the future sustainability of threatened tourism coastal destinations. Part 2 presents case studies from all regions of the world: Europe, The Americas, Asia, Africa and Australasia which synthesise findings to make recommendations that can be used to promote strategies that ameliorate projected impacts of climate change on coastal tourism infrastructure and in turn promote the future sustainability of coastal tourism destinations. This is a timely and informative text with appeal to researchers, undergraduate and post graduate students of tourism management, tourism planning, sustainable tourism development and leisure management, coastal tourism management, environmental management, planning, geography, coastal zone management or climate change studies.      Thesaurus of ERIC Descriptors, 1977
