Transfer of Care Document (TOC)

Animal Transport Records (ATR)

WHO?

Anyone transporting animals to an abattoir, assembly yard, or an auction market.

Commercial transporters, or those transporting animals for business or for financial benefit.

WHEN?

When the animals are left at an abattoir, assembly yard, or auction market.

When loading the animals • when the animals are provided FWR en route • when the animals arrive at destination.

WHAT?

- ❶ Condition of the animals on arrival
- ❷ Date, time and place of last time they received feed, water and rest (FWR)
- ❸ Date and time of arrival

See the list of information to record in Part XII of the Health of Animals Regulations, section 154. Some of the information is the same as on a TOC and a provincial livestock manifest. Information already available does not need to be repeated.

HOW?

Transporter writes the TOC and gives it to the abattoir, auction market or assembly yard. No special format (can be electronic). Recommendation: both parties keep a copy in their files.

Transporter completes record for each load of animals, keeps original (or a copy) onboard with the load, and keeps in files for at least 2 years. There is no special format (can be electronic).

WHY?

To ensure there is no gap in the responsibility for the animals. It is the transporters and receivers proof of what condition the animals are in, and when they arrived.

To ensure information about the animals' journey is available, and can be shared when needed, with everyone involved in humane transport.

The novel begins with Richard Pape, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a brilliant and suspenseful novel that will keep you wondering until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
