J Is For Judgement A Kinsey Millhone Novel:

"J" is for Judgment Sue Grafton, 1993 J is for Jaffe Wendell Jaffe dead these past five years Or so it seemed until his former insurance agent spotted him in the bar of a dusty little resort halfway between Cabo San Lucas and La Paz In truth the facts about Wendell Jaffe had nothing to do with my family history but murder is seldom tidy and no one ever said revelations operate in a straight line It was my investigation into the dead man's past that triggered the inquiry into my own and in the end the two stories became difficult to separate Five years ago when Jaffe's thirty five foot Fuji ketch was found drifting off the Baja coast it seemed a sure thing he'd gone overboard The note he left behind admitted he was flat broke his business bankrupt his real estate gambit nothing but a huge Ponzi scheme about to collapse with criminal indictment certain to follow When the authorities soon after descended on his banks and his books there was nothing left Jaffe had stripped the lot Given my insatiable curiosity and my natural inclination to poke my nose in where it doesn't belong it was odd to realize how little attention I'd paid to my own past I'd simply accepted what I was told constructing my personal mythology on the flimsiest of facts But Jaffe wasn't quite without assets There was the 500 000 life insurance policy made out to his wife and underwritten by California Fidelity With no corpse to prove death however the insurance company was in no hurry to pay the claim Dana Jaffe had to wait out the statutory five years until her missing husband could be declared legally dead Just two months before Wendell Jaffe was sighted in that dusty resort bar California Fidelity finally paid in full Now they wanted the truth And they were willing to hire Kinsey Millhone to dig it up As Kinsey pushes deeper into the mystery surrounding Wendell Jaffe's pseudocide she explores her own past discovering that in family matters as in crime sometimes it's better to reserve jud

Investigating Identities, 2009-01-01 Investigating Identities Questions of Identity in Contemporary International Crime Fiction is one of the relatively few books to date which adopts a comparative approach to the study of the genre This collection of twenty essays by international scholars examining crime fiction production from over a dozen countries confirms that a comparative approach can both shed light on processes of adaptation and appropriation of the genre within specific national regional or local contexts and also uncover similarities between the works of authors from very different areas Contributors explore discourse concerning national and historical memory language race ethnicity culture and gender and examine how identity is affirmed and challenged in the crime genre today They reveal a growing tendency towards hybridization and postmodern experimentation and increasing engagement with philosophical enquiry into the epistemological dimensions of investigation Throughout the notion of stable identities is subject to scrutiny While each essay in itself is a valuable addition to existing criticism on the genre all the chapters mutually inform and complement each other in fascinating and often unexpected ways This volume makes an important contribution to the growing field of crime fiction studies and to ongoing debates on questions of identity It will therefore be of special interest to students and scholars of the crime genre identity studies and comparative literature It will also appeal to all who enjoy reading contemporary crime fiction

We Must Have Certainty J. Kenneth Van Dover, 2005 We Must Have Certainty surveys the development of the genre of the detective story from its origins in the mid nineteenth century to its current profile in the early twenty first century It locates a principal appeal of the genre in the nature of the world that the detective necessarily inhabits a world of more or less realistic violence and excitement and at the same time a world that always in the end makes sense It suggests that there is a significance to a popular narrative formula that requires that an initial world of suspicion and uncertainty be inevitably transformed by the detective into a world of clarity and order Though scholarship in the field is acknowledged the author's citations are most often from detective stories themselves The essays are written in an accessible style those who have read a few novels in the genre as well as those who have read many will find the book stimulating and provocative

"F" is for Fugitive Sue

Grafton,2010-04-01 1 New York Times bestselling author Sue Grafton crafts a thriller set in a town so small that P I Kinsey Millhone wonders just how private her investigation can be F is for Fugitive Floral Beach wasn't much of a town six streets long and three deep its only notable feature a strip of sand fronting the Pacific It was on that sandy beach seventeen years ago that the strangled body of Jean Timberlake had been found The people of Floral Beach didn't pay a whole lot of mind to past history especially when Bailey Fowler the self confessed killer had been properly processed and convicted They weren't even unduly concerned when a year after the murder Fowler walked away from the men's prison at San Luis Obispo never to be seen again After all everyone knew Jean had been a wild kid Like mother like daughter some said though never within hearing of Shana Timberlake who whatever her faults still mourned her murdered child And then by sheer fluke the cops stumbled on Bailey Fowler And a case seventeen years dead came murderously to life again For Royce Fowler old and sick with not much time left his son's reappearance was the chance to heal an old wound For Kinsey Millhone the case was a long shot but she agreed to take it on She couldn't know then it would lead her to probe the passions buried just below the surface of family relations where old wounds fester and the most cherished emotions become warped until they fuse into deadly soul destroying time bombs A Is for Alibi B Is for Burglar C Is for Corpse D Is for Deadbeat E Is for Evidence F Is for Fugitive G Is for Gumshoe H Is for Homicide I Is for Innocent J Is for Judgment K Is for Killer L is for Lawless M Is for Malice N Is for Noose O Is for Outlaw P Is for Peril Q Is for Quarry R Is for Ricochet S Is for Silence T Is for Trespass U Is for Undertow V Is for Vengeance W Is for Wasted X
