Qualitative Research in Criminology Rita Faria, Mary Dodge, 2022-11-18 This volume introduces innovative and inspired qualitative methods through topics on crime commission, victimisation, and crime control. It highlights how qualitative methods offer significant insights that frame our understanding of the narratives, events, theoretical perspectives, and realities of the social world. This book includes chapters discussing cutting-edge methods which demonstrate how qualitative research can expand beyond traditional approaches. It offers diversity in research including gender, race, and geographic sensitivities. The volume addresses a multitude of approaches for using qualitative methodologies including innovative uses of technology, mediums such as social media, participatory videos, Zoom interviewing, and photographic visual methods as means of collecting and co-producing relevant data on meaning. Ultimately, this book illustrates how qualitative criminology allows for deeper and more nuanced understandings of local and regional specificities in a globalized world and how social interactions are influenced by individual interpretations, social interactions, and collective decision making. This volume is an essential read for graduate students and researchers in criminology and other social science disciplines interested in qualitative empirical research and informed policy making.

African American Classics in Criminology and Criminal Justice Shaun L Gabbidon, Helen Taylor Greene, Vernetta D Young, 2002 Congratulations to SAGE author Shaun L Gabbidon for becoming the second scholar in the college's history to be named a Distinguished Professor by the University's Office of the President, Pennsylvania State University Harrisburg. This collection of writings is crucially important in part because it reminds us the theoretical paradigms of these and other African American scholars are excluded when crime, its causes, and its control are discussed by criminologists, criminal justice practitioners, and policy makers. To understand crime fully, the perspectives advanced by these scholars must become an integral part of discussions about who is a criminal and which public policies will best control crime. From the forward by Anne Thomas Sulton, Ph.D., J.D. From W.E.B. DuBois through Lee Brown, this anthology provides a collection of the key articles in criminology and criminal justice written by black scholars. Available in a single volume for the first time, the articles collected in this book reflect the voices of African American scholars and display the diversity of perspectives sought after in today's academic community. Crime in the African American community is examined from social, economic, and political perspectives, and the historical context of each article is provided by the editors. Spanning the 20th century, these works present a historical chronology of African American views on crime and its control with theoretical perspectives that have often been tangential to mainstream scholarship. For your courses in Criminological Theory, Race and Crime, Crime and Social Policy, Minorities and Criminal Justice.
