Macquarie Atlas Of Indigenous Australia Culture And Society Through Space And Time:

Macquarie Atlas of Indigenous Australia William Stewart Arthur, Frances Morphy, 2005 An atlas is a way of representing in graphic form a human landscape a pattern of human activities in space and time The Macquarie Atlas of Indigenous Australia opens up a window onto the landscape of Australian Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander lives from 60 000 years ago to the present time It covers a wide range of aspects of Indigenous life including society culture economics politics the environment technology land ownership and use the visual and performing arts sport education health and placenames Each chapter has been compiled by one or more experts in the field under the general editorship of Bill Arthur and Frances Morphy of the Centre for Aboriginal Economic Policy and Research at the Australian National University The core of maps is supplemented by explanatory text as well as numerous diagrams and illustrations including Indigenous artworks

More Than Words: The Making of the Macquarie Dictionary Pat Manser, 2021-02-23 The Editorial Committee of the dictionary of Australian English led by Arthur Delbridge were adamant that their dictionary was to be descriptive It was an important point of difference from traditional dictionary policy This dictionary would give an account of Australian English as it was heard and written We wanted it all spoken written technical polite rude The speech of labourers the jargon of merchants swearwords Australianisms as well as the basic core of English vocabulary The idea for a dictionary of Australian English was conceived in the 1960s but it wasn't until 1981 that the first edition of the Macquarie Dictionary was published More Than Words tells the story of how the dictionary was brought to life during this period from identifying the need for a genuinely Australian dictionary to the long road towards publication and explores how the dictionary has evolved over the years since then

Historical Dictionary of Australia Norman Abjorensen, James C. Docherty, 2014-12-05 Australia's development from the most unpromising of beginnings as a British prison in 1788 to the prosperous liberal democracy of the present is as remarkable as is its success as a country of large scale immigration Since 1942 it has been a loyal ally of the United States and has demonstrated this loyalty by contributing troops to the war in Vietnam and by being part of the coalition of the willing in the U S invasion of Iraq in 2003 and in operations in Afghanistan In recent years it has also been more willing to promote peace and democracy in its Pacific and Asian neighbors This fourth edition of Historical Dictionary of Australia covers its history through a chronology an introductory essay appendixes and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 500 cross referenced entries on important personalities politics economy foreign relations religion and culture This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Australia

Ethnography & the Production of Anthropological Knowledge Yasmine Musharbash, Marcus Barber, 2011-02-01 Professor Nicolas Peterson is a central figure in the anthropology of Aboriginal Australia This volume honours his anthropological body of work his commitment to ethnographic fieldwork as a source of knowledge his exemplary mentorship of generations of younger scholars and his generosity in facilitating the progress of others The diverse collection produced by former students current colleagues and long term peers provides reflections on his legacy as well as fresh anthropological insights from Australia and the wider Asia Pacific region Inspired by Nicolas Peterson s work in Aboriginal Australia and his broad ranging contributions to anthropology over several decades the contributors to this volume celebrate the variety of his ethnographic interests Individual chapters address revisit expand on and ethnographically re examine his work about ritual material culture the moral domestic economy land and ecology The volume also pays homage to Nicolas Peterson s ability to provide focused research with long term impact exemplified by a series of papers engaging with his work on demand sharing and the applied policy domain

Planning in Indigenous Australia Sue Jackson, Libby Porter, Louise C. Johnson, 2017-07-28 Planning in settler colonial countries is always taking place on the lands of Indigenous peoples While Indigenous rights identity and cultural values are increasingly being discussed within planning its mainstream accounts virtually ignore the colonial roots and legacies of the discipline s assumptions techniques and methods This ground breaking book exposes the imperial origins of the planning canon profession and practice in the settler colonial country of Australia By documenting the role of planning in the history of Australia s relations with Indigenous peoples the book maps the enduring effects of colonisation It provides a new historical account of colonial planning practices and rewrites the urban planning histories of major Australian cities Contemporary land rights native title and cultural heritage frameworks are analysed in light of their critical importance to planning practice today with detailed case illustrations In reframing Australian planning from a postcolonial perspective the book shatters orthodox accounts revising the story that planning has told itself for over 100 years New ways to think and practise planning in Indigenous Australia are advanced Planning in Indigenous Australia makes a major contribution towards the decolonisation of planning It is essential reading for students and teachers in tertiary planning programmes as well as those in geography development studies postcolonial studies anthropology and environmental management It is also vital reading for professional planners in the public private and community sectors

The A to Z of Australia James C. Docherty, 2010-04-01 The last continent to be claimed by Europeans Australia began to be settled by the British in 1788 in the form of a jail for its convicts While British culture has had the largest influence on the country and its presence can be seen everywhere the British were not Australia s original populace The first inhabitants of Australia the Aborigines are believed to have migrated from Southeast Asia into northern Australia as early as 60 000 years ago This distinctive blend of vastly different cultures contributed to the ease with which Australia has become one of the world s most successful immigrant nations The A to Z of

Australia relates the history of this unique and beautiful land which is home to an amazing range of flora and fauna a climate that ranges from tropical forests to arid deserts and the largest single collection of coral reefs and islands in the world Through a detailed chronology an introduction appendixes a bibliography and cross referenced dictionary entries on some of the more significant persons places and events institutions and organizations and political economic social cultural and religious facets author James Docherty provides a much needed single volume reference on Australia from its most unpromising of beginnings as a British jail to the liberal tolerant democracy it is today Aboriginal Biocultural Knowledge in South-eastern Australia Fred Cahir,Ian Clark,Philip Clarke,2018-05 Indigenous Australians have long understood sustainable hunting and harvesting seasonal changes in flora and fauna predator prey relationships and imbalances and seasonal fire management Yet the extent of their knowledge and expertise has been largely unknown and underappreciated by non Aboriginal colonists especially in the south east of Australia where Aboriginal culture was severely fractured Aboriginal Biocultural Knowledge in South eastern Australia is the first book to examine historical records from early colonists who interacted with south eastern Australian Aboriginal communities and documented their understanding of the environment natural resources such as water and plant and animal foods medicine and other aspects of their material world This book provides a compelling case for the importance of understanding Indigenous knowledge to inform discussions around climate change biodiversity resource management health and education It will be a valuable reference for natural resource management agencies academics in Indigenous studies and anyone interested in Aboriginal culture and knowledge

Historical Dictionary of Australian Aborigines Mitchell Rolls,Murray Johnson,2019-11-05 The Aboriginal Australians first arrived on the continent at least 60 000 years ago occupying and adapting to a range of environmental conditions from tropical estuarine habitats densely forested regions open plains and arid desert country to cold mountainous and often wet and snowy high country Cultures adapted according to the different conditions and adapted again to environmental changes brought about by rising sea levels at the end of the last ice age European colonization of the island continent in 1788 not only introduced diseases to which Aborigines had no immunity but also began an enduring and at times violent conflict over land and resources Reconciliation between Aborigines and the settler population remains unresolved This second edition of the Historical Dictionary of Australian Aborigines contains a chronology an introduction an extensive bibliography and more than 300 cross referenced entries on the politics economy foreign relations religion and culture of the Aborigines This book is an excellent resource for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about the indigenous people of Australia A Millennium of Cultural Contact Alistair Paterson,2016-06-16 Alistair Paterson has written a comprehensive textbook detailing the millennium of cultural contact between European societies and those of the rest of the world Beginning with the Norse intersection with indigenous peoples of Greenland Paterson uses case studies and regional overviews to describe the various patterns by which European groups influenced overcame and were resisted by the populations of Africa the Americas East

Asia Oceania and Australia Based largely on the evidence of archaeology he is able to detail the unique interactions at many specific points of contact and display the wide variations in exploration conquest colonization avoidance and resistance at various spots around the globe Paterson s broad student friendly treatment of the history and archaeology of the last millennium will be useful for courses in historical archaeology world history and social change Digging It Up Down Under Claire Smith,Heather Burke,2007-03-14 This field manual provides essential background information for those interested in undertaking archaeology in Australia Professional archaeologists provide their personal tips for working in each state and territory dealing with a living heritage working with Aboriginal peoples and coping with Australian conditions Grounded in the social political and ethical issues that inform Australian archaeology today this book is also packed with practical advice

Missionary Women, Leprosy and Indigenous Australians, 1936-1986 Charmaine Robson,2022-10-01 This book focuses on twentieth century Australian leprosaria to explore the lives of indigenous patients and the Catholic women missionaries who nursed them Distinguished from previous historical studies of leprosy the book examines the care and management of the incarcerated enabling a broader understanding of their experience beyond a singular trope of banishment oppression and death From the 1930s until the 1980s respective governments appointed the trained sisters to four leprosaria across remote northern Australia where almost two thousand people had been removed from their homes and detained under law for years sometimes decades The book traces the sisters holistic nursing from early efforts of amelioration and palliation to their part in the successful treatment of leprosy after World War II It reveals the ways the sisters stepped out of their assigned roles and attempted to shape the institutions as places of health and hygiene of European culture and education and of Christianity Making use of accounts from patients doctors bureaucrats missionary men and Indigenous families and communities the book offers fresh perspectives on two important strands of history First its attention to the day to day work of the Australian sisters helps to demystify leprosy healthcare by female missionaries generally Secondly with the sisters specifically caring for Indigenous people this book exposes the institutional practices and goals specific to race relations of both the Australian government and Catholic missionaries An important and timely read for anyone interested in Indigenous history medical history and the connections between race religion and healthcare this book contextualizes the twentieth century leprosy epidemic within Australia s broader colonial history Justice and Warfare in Aboriginal Australia Christophe Darmangeat,2020-11-12 Meticulously examining ethnographic sources Christophe Darmangeat argues that warfare among Australian Aborigines was mostly an extension of their judicial systems He demonstrates how violent conflict occurred when circumstances prohibited regulated proceedings Demography at the Edge Rasmus Ole Rasmussen,Prescott Ensign,Lee Huskey,2016-05-23 Addressing the methodological and topical challenges facing demographers working in remote regions this book compares and contrasts the research methods and models and policy applications from peripheral regions in developed nations With the emphasis on human populations as dynamic adaptive evolving systems it explores how populations respond in different ways to changing environmental cultural and economic conditions and how effectively they manage these change processes Theoretical understandings and policy issues arising from demographic modelling are tackled including competition for skilled workers urbanisation and ruralisation population ageing the impacts of climate change the life outcomes of Indigenous peoples globalisation and international migration Based on a strong theoretical framework around issues of heterogeneity generational change temporariness and the relative strength of internal and external ties Demography at the Edge provides a common set of approaches and issues that benefit both researchers and practitioners Bands, Tribes, & First Peoples and Nations Richard

Barrington,2014-07-15 Anthropology politics and history come together to form an insightful blend in this authoritative title covering kinship tribalism and nonurban cultures the world over Both the theory and practical examples of tribal cultures are presented with several chapters dedicated to the various schools of anthropological thought on nonurban societies accompanied by a survey of tribal and indigenous cultures both historically and in modern times American Indians the indigenous peoples of South America nomadic tribes of the Middle East and Aboriginal Australians are a few of the societies explored in this extensive text The Rights and Wrongs of Land Restitution Derick Fay,Deborah James,2008-08-18

The Rights and Wrongs of Land Restitution Restoring What Was Ours offers a critical comparative ethnographic examination of land restitution programs Drawing on memories and histories of past dispossession governments NGOs informal movements and individual claimants worldwide have attempted to restore and reclaim rights in land Land restitution programs link the past and the present and may allow former landholders to reclaim lands which provided the basis of earlier identities and livelihoods Addressing the practical and theoretical questions that arise this book offers a critical rethinking of the links between land restitution and property social transition injustice citizenship the state and the market Creativity in Transition Maruška Svašek,Birgit Meyer,2016-07-01 In an era of intensifying globalization and transnational connectivity the dynamics of cultural production and the very notion of creativity are in transition Exploring creative practices in various settings the book does not only call attention to the spread of modernist discourses of creativity from the colonial era to the current obsession with innovation in neo liberal capitalist cultural politics but also to the less visible practices of copying recycling and reproduction that occur as part and parcel of creative improvisation Conceptions of Giftedness Shane N.

Phillipson,Maria McCann,2020-11-25 The effective education of gifted children is one of the most significant challenges facing educational systems in many countries around the world made particularly difficult by the forces of globalization Conceptions of Giftedness describes the unique and varied ways cultures conceive of giftedness As language influences perception different ideas of giftedness may embody different ways of thinking especially in the areas of creativity and problem solving This important new volume in special education encourages the understanding appreciation and preservation of our intellectual diversity Contributing authors to this book are authorities in the field of gifted education and represent a range of languages and cultures including Western Chinese Japanese Australian Aboriginal and Malay cultures Each chapter describes giftedness from one cultural perspective within the global context resulting in both local and global educational implications Conceptions of Giftedness appeals to an international audience and will serve as a primary and or secondary resource for scholars teachers and undergraduate and postgraduate students interested in gifted education Its distinctive universal perspective will attract sociolinguists and anthropologists as well as educators Farmers or

Hunter-gatherers? Peter Sutton, Keryn Walshe, 2021-06-16 Australians understanding of Aboriginal society prior to the British invasion from 1788 has been transformed since the publication of Bruce Pascoe s Dark Emu in 2014 It argued that classical Aboriginal society was more sophisticated than Australians had been led to believe because it resembled more closely the farming communities of Europe In Farmers or Hunter gatherers Peter Sutton and Keryn Walshe ask why Australians have been so receptive to the notion that farming represents an advance from hunting and gathering Drawing on the knowledge of Aboriginal elders previously not included within this discussion and decades of anthropological scholarship Sutton and Walshe provide extensive evidence to support their argument that classical Aboriginal society was a hunter gatherer society and as sophisticated as the traditional European farming methods Farmers or Hunter gatherers asks Australians to develop a deeper understanding and appreciation of Aboriginal society and culture Handbook of Postcolonial Archaeology Jane Lydon, Uzma Z Rizvi, 2016-07-01 This essential handbook explores the relationship between the postcolonial critique and the field of archaeology a discipline that developed historically in conjunction with European colonialism and imperialism In aiding the movement to decolonize the profession the contributors to this volume themselves from six continents and many representing indigenous and minority communities and disadvantaged countries suggest strategies to strip archaeological theory and practice of its colonial heritage and create a discipline sensitive to its inherent inequalities Summary articles review the emergence of the discipline of archaeology in conjunction with colonialism critique the colonial legacy evident in continuing archaeological practice around the world identify current trends and chart future directions in postcolonial archaeological research Contributors provide a synthesis of research thought and practice on their topic The articles embrace multiple voices and case study approaches and have consciously aimed to recognize the utility of comparative work and interdisciplinary approaches to understanding the past This is a benchmark volume for the study of the contemporary politics practice and ethics of archaeology Sponsored by the World Archaeological Congress
